

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor and Proprietor.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 17, 1872.

Ohio.—Gen. Geo. W. Morgan has been nominated by the Democrats of this State for United States Senator.

Enouou.—Governor Baldwin, of Michigan, has issued a proclamation to the people of the United States.

Reformers.—The Louisiana "love feast," instituted by the brothers-in-law, has thus far resulted in the death of only one negro member of the Legislature.

A Loyal "Delusion."—Senator Carpenter, of Wisconsin, denounces Grant's "civil service reform" project.

Political.—Hon. Fernando Wood, as Chairman, called a caucus of the Democratic Senators and Representatives.

Obituary.—Major General Henry W. Halleck, one of the leading officers of the regular army, died at Louisville, Ky., on the 10th of congestion of the brain.

Highly Favored.—Our Senator and Member have been complimented by the Radical Speakers by being placed on the Congressional Appropriation Committee.

Nothing Doing.—The Legislature adjourned on Friday until yesterday, hence we have no proceedings to report.

Their Wages.—The Grant Ku Klux committee, it is very evident from the bill passed by Congress on Wednesday, does not work for nothing and live accordingly.

Deaths in Philadelphia.—According to the medical report, 13,139 deaths occurred in Philadelphia the past year.

The Temperance Dood.—Last winter the Rads made a labored effort, through the temperance politicians, to force the State Senate to pass a "local option" liquor law.

The Wrong Man.—Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, has a project on hand, and has offered it in Congress, by which he proposes "to elevate the condition of the rank and file of the regular army and prevent desertions."

The Weekly Patriot.—We are in receipt of a copy of this excellent journal. The publishers have enlarged and improved it so much lately that we scarcely recognized it as an old friend when laid upon our table.

Woman's Rights must be wrong. If in Holy Writ we trust, Man, while tells the earth along.

Shelved.—It pleases us to learn that James Harlan, an illustrious demagogue, now United States Senator from Iowa, has been shelved.

The Boston Post says: "Five Senators and fourteen Assemblymen of New York, all Republicans, are said to be trembling before certain checks found among Tweed's papers."

Forty-seven young ladies are applicants for clerkships in the Iowa Legislature.—Exchange.

Political Sinners.—Politicians, like theologians, often differ too much about non-essentials, while they overlook the more weighty matters and accept prejudices for knowledge or an idea for principle.

Imposed Upon.—This is the language of Grant's organs and defenders since the custom house frauds, at New York, have been developed by the congressional investigating committee.

The New Orleans Vainance.—The following dispatch was received at Washington on the 12th: NEW ORLEANS, JAN. 12.

CONGRESS.—This body is not doing much for the country yet. The members have not all got back from their holiday spree, which demoralized some very much.

THE SUFFERING SISTERS.—The half a score of suffrage women who went to enjoy all the men in the Union, held a convention at Washington, (5th place), last week, for the purpose of laying their grievances before Congress.

THE DRIFT OF THE TIDE.—The Radical National Committee met in Washington last week for the purpose of fixing on a time and place for holding their next convention.

THE WEEKLY PATRIOT.—We are in receipt of a copy of this excellent journal. The publishers have enlarged and improved it so much lately that we scarcely recognized it as an old friend when laid upon our table.

Senate and House Committees.—The Legislature is now fully organized for business, and we are highly pleased at the important positions assigned to Senator Wallace and Representative Lawshe, in their respective Houses.

Coupon Votes.—It is estimated that five thousand cars pass through Harrisburg daily. Neutrality played hot with the editors in the Huntingdon Monitor last week.

The True Idea of Government.—It will be remembered that in the so-called Ku-Klux trials now in progress at Columbia, the Hon. Reverdy Johnson and the Hon. Henry Stodolger are acting as counsel for the prosecution.

The Two Radical Wings.—There are now two parties in the country, says the Sun, claiming the title of Republican. One is the real Republican party; the other the party of Grant's office-holders.

THE FATE OF DICK YATES.—The Peoria (Ill.) Review prints this plain story: Springfield has just had a sensation. A former State official and a man who has occupied high positions, not only in the Commonwealth but in the nation, has been an apocryphal for some days in her classic precincts.
