poses named of $800,157.28. The State outside of Philadelphia has 14,161 schools, 16,402 teachers, an attendance of 700,000 pupils, and an average school term of 5 months and 21 days. Of teachers employed 7,-640 are males and 8,402 females. Male teachers were paid during the past year $40.03 per month and female teachers $31.12. Of 12,091 school houses reported as in use during the year 7,774 are of frame, 2,838 of brick, 1,500 of stone and 320 of log. During the year 640 new school houses were built. The total value of school property is set down at $16 .-880,624, being an increase during the year of $1,052,441. Of the 14,018 schools, 3,434 are graded and 10,597 well classified. These figures show an advance in our Common School A VARIETY STORE System which is great and encouraging.

In making up a statement of the work which has to be performed by the school department Superintendent Wickersham shows very clearly that there is need for a competent second deputy to whom a portion of the labor might be entrusted. He recommends the establishment of a School Department to be composed of a Super tendent and two deputions, said de-partment to be divided into bareaus 1. A Bureau of Elementary Education, to take charge of the work connected with the Common Elementary Schools. This would require one chief clerk and two assistants. 2. A Bureau of Higher Education,

3. A Bureau of Professional Education, which, with one competent officer, eould attend to the Normal Schools and Teachers' Institutes. 4. A Bureau of Orphans' Schools, which would be temporary, so far as relates to Soldiers' Orphans, and would require only a single desk to take charge of the work relating to and Schools for Friendless Children. This seems to be a very proper classification of the duties devolving upon the school department, and we do not besitate to recommend the legislation necessary to carry out the suggestions

Mr. Wickersham suggests that the Mr. Wickersnam suggester that State Superintendent should be np pointed by a board composed of the Such as Cloths, Sathests, Cassimeres, Muslins, Delaines, Lines, Prillings, Calicors, Triamings, Ribbons, Lace, preme Court, the Speaker of the Senste, one person selected by the State preme Court, the Speaker of the Sen-ate, one person selected by the State Teachers' Association, one by a Con-Hose, Seeks, Gloves, Mittens, Laces, Ribbons, &c. vention of County Superintendents. one by the Principals of State Normal Coffee, Tes, Sugar, Rice, Molasses, Fish, Salt, Schnols and one by a meeting of Col.

Pork, Linseed Oil, Fish Oil, Carbon Oil. Schools and one by a meeting of College Presidents. This would relieve the State Superintendent from the three controls of the state Superintendent from the st liability to removal whenever a Gov- Perfumery, Paints, Varnish, Glass, and a general ernor is elected, and would remove the school department so much further from the influence of politics.

Mr. Wickersham takes occasion to commend the principle of the bill providing for the cleation of School Directors by the "free vote" system, which was prepared by Mr. Buckalow, and passed through the Sanate. The and passed through the Senate. The passage of Mr. Buckalew's bill would give to each political party represent Threshing Machines. tation in the various School Boards proportionate to its numbers, and would be an improvement upon the present system. Taken as a whole, we can conscientiously say, that the report made by Mr. Wickersham is one which does credit to its author and to the State.-Lancaster Intelli-

Cheap Pleasure.

Do you ever study the cheapness of GOODS AT REDUCED PRICES some pleasures? Do you know how little it takes to make a multitude happy? There are two or three boys passing along—give them each a chest-nut, and how smilling they look; they will not be cross for some time. A poor widow lives in the neighbord who is the mother of a half dozen children. Send them a half-peck of sweet apples, and they will be happy. A child has lest his arrow—the world to him—and he mourns sadly; help him to find it or make him nother, to furnish all kinds of Goods and how quickly will the sunshine play over his sober face. A boy has as much as he can do plic up a load of wood: assist him a few moments, or speak a kind word to him, and he forgets his toils and works away without sainding it. Your apprentice has broken a mug, or slightly injured a piece of work. Say "You scoundre!!" and he feels miserable; but remark "I am Willowere, Groceles, Boots & Shoes, Hata Phase sorry, you must try and do better." You employ a man; pay him cheer-fully, and speak a pleasant word to him, and he leaves your house with a All of whith will be sold or contented heart to light up his own able terms, and the highest market price paid hearth with smiles and gladness. Pleasure is cheap. Who will not bestow it liberally? We can make the wretched happy, the discon-tented cheerfal, the afflicted resigned, at an exceedingly cheap rate. Who will refuse to do it?
