

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 15, 1872.

Local Opinion.

It looks now as though the Legislature would pass a law allowing the citizens of every borough, ward and township to vote every three years on the "liquor or no liquor" question.

Democratic State Convention.

Parent to a resolution of the Democratic State Executive Committee adopted at a Democratic State Convention in numbers equal to the representation in both houses of the Legislature.

Three weeks ago nearly all our exchanges buried Judge Woods, and last week the same papers had Gen. Burns deathly sick.

Poor Devil.—Heed, the carpetbag Governor of Florida, has been impeached of "high crimes and misdemeanors" by the Legislature of that State.

STEAMBOAT DISASTER.—A fire broke out at the Cincinnati steamboat landing on Thursday night, and so rapid and terrible was the conflagration that before the landing could be opened six fine steamers, with their cargoes, were destroyed.

How Is It?—The New York World asks: How could it be that Brigadier General O. R. B. Babcock first visited Ohio at one?

A NICE DOOR.—The State robber, Evans, has fled to New York. He feigned sickness, and the Legislative investigating committee did him the steved favor of going to his sick chamber in Philadelphia, but when the members arrived Evans was not there, and they learned that he was in New York.

OUR CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—The Chairman of the Congressional Apportionment Committee in the House reported a bill on Friday last.

LOYALTY ON STILES.—Crown Prince Frederick D. Grant and his escort, Gen. Sherman, when last heard from were in the city of Columbus, Ohio.

TRUTH'S OUR SENTIMENT.—The editor of the Erie Observer says: Hon. Wm. McClelland, member of Congress from the Lawrence district, has placed most of the Democratic papers of this section who have no local political representative at Washington, under obligations by the cleverness with which he has kept them supplied with Congressional Documents.

Coupon Notes.

They use coupon notes in Juniata county as a preventive of small-pox. The concision fund at Washington now amounts to $180,000.

The New Hampshire election came off yesterday, but we are unable to give the result.

The California wheat crop promises to be fifty per cent. greater than in any previous year.

Pittsburgh boasts of a coal trade amounting to three million five hundred tons annually.

The house of Patrick Welch, near Scranton, was destroyed by fire Friday, and his two children perished.

They have a steam distillery in Johnstown. Just think of a steam engine jerking out teeth. Ugh!

The world has had its iron age, its golden age, and age of bronze; but the present is the age of steel.

The eleven territories exceed, by nearly 200,000 square miles the aggregate of all the admitted States.

The Grand Duke Alexis spent Sunday in company with his staff and the Governor in Havana at a cock-fight in that city.

This bill is now before the Legislature for the ostensible purpose of organizing a Lumberman's Exchange at Williamsport.

The Pittsburgh Post announces by authority, that General Cass will not decline the Democratic nomination for Governor.

Nine persons were immersed in the river, at Lewisburg, on Sunday last. The ice was cut from the shore some twenty feet for the religious ceremony.

If you want to talk heavy science, say "protaxol of hydrogen" instead of ice. It sounds bigger, and not one man in a thousand will know what you mean.

The Postmaster General wants all letter writers to place the name of the county, as well as post office and state, on all letters and papers hereafter addressed by them.

A Centre county school teacher appeals to the ladies to visit his school in the following pathetic terms: "Come often; we love to see your pretty faces and winning looks."

On Friday evening a Democratic meeting was broken up in Kingston, England, by a loyal mob, such as used to break up Democratic meetings in this country, during the negro war.

A Farmer's and Stock Breeder's Association was organized in Crawford county a short time since, embracing some of the most substantial farmers and stock breeders in the county.

A venerable Tyrone lady is collecting for the "Hospital" she can lay her hands on. She says: "I don't care if they are a 'dear old boy' better than ashes, they are almost clear lie."

Although the Legislature had agreed to adjourn on the 28th of March, the Senate, on Thursday last, passed a resolution to extend the time to the 1st of April, and we suppose the House will concur.

Congress is talking about buying Independence Hall in Philadelphia. We advise that city, if it don't want the historic spot turned into an asylum for impetuous niggers, to keep it itself.

At one place on Bennett's, a short distance below Mix Run, says the Cameron Press, there is an ice gorge about one half mile long, and an average depth of ten feet. It starts with a flood, look out!

Ex-Senator Ross, Mark J. Parrott, N. Wood, Ex-Governor Crawford and T. H. Walker, lead in the Liberal Republican movement in Kansas. A full delegation of anti Grant men will be sent to the Cincinnati Convention.

It is said that Fred Douglass' colored brethren in Erie are about to bring suit against the Reed House of that city for damages in refusing him the privileges of the hotel. We haven't heard that Sumner's civil rights bill had passed.

The Williamsport Sun says: A certain young lady in this city advised a gentleman friend not to take a night to bed with him on cold nights, and she might keep his feet. The stupid fellow did not know enough to take the hint and propose.

The latest population is that of 48-U. S. Senator Cattell of New Jersey and Secretary of the Navy Robeson of the same State, by collusion have each made a half million of the Government in the way of furnishing supplies of coal to the several Navy yards.

According to the Democrat, Leek Haven has a class of individuals styled "coal heavers." They mount catalpa trees passing through the city, and push off the coal for several squares along the route. The authorities are called upon to check the open theft.

"No one to Love," is the raging ditty in Bellefonte, just now. Furo says it "sorter seems to him he has heard it somewhere before, but that his relations wander through his ears like madmen through a basket." But, then, Joe has the only pair of ears that kind in Bellefonte, — unaltered, — Brainerd.

Rev. J. H. Grier of Jersey State is eighty four years of age — has preached the Gospel six years — married five hundred and eighty-six couples, and from his good health and activity, we have no doubt he will be spared to "tie many knots" yet. This is certainly the wish of his many friends.

Great excitement exists just now throughout the Oil regions, arising from the black mailing system adopted by the "Southern Improvement Company," which succeeded in obtaining a charter from the Legislature and is now trying to control all the oil interests. It appears to be a grand monopoly.

We notice that a bill for the appointment of a measurer of timber, in Allegheny county, has again been introduced in the Legislature. This is doubtless the same kind of a measure attempted two or three years ago, but was appointed by Grant about the 23d of May, 1869. A most remarkable coincidence.

"LOYAL" NEBRASKA.—They have a middle in the Legislature of Nebraska, which broke up in a row on Saturday last. It is rather hard to get at the head or tail of the middle, but it seems that there is a fierce quarrel among the members of the Rig of Radical leaders, as to a division of the state, and was appointed by Grant about the 23d of May, 1869. A most remarkable coincidence.
