

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor and Proprietor

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 27, 1872.

Democrat's Convention. Personal in a resolution of the Democratic State Executive Committee...

ON HAND.—We notice that the National Labor Reform Party proposes to hold a State Convention at Williamsport on the 7th of May next...

THE SAW MILL.—Is the title of quite a pretentious monthly newspaper published at Williamsport and Sandy Hill, N. Y., with Jesse K. Sanborn as editor...

DECLINES.—The Wellsboro Democrat proposes the name of L. A. Mackey, Esq., of Lock Haven, for Governor...

ANOTHER FORNEY AT LARGE.—When Forney, for six years past State Librarian, has been removed by Gov. Geary...

GOING TO STRONG.—The Erie Observer says that the court records show the fact that 91 one divorce cases were instituted in that county between the 1st day of February, 1871, and 1st day of February, 1872...

EXTREME MODESTY.—We notice by the proceedings of the Central Pennsylvania M. E. Conference that Rev. S. W. Kerby, convicted of adultery some time ago in the Quarter Sessions of Franklin county...

MODEST JOHNNY.—Our readers will recollect that B. F. Myers, Democrat, defeated John Cessna for Congress, in the Bedford district, last October a year ago...

BOYD ABROAD.—A. Boyd Henderson, Esq., of Lock Haven, (Court Reporter), has undertaken to interview the Lowery Swamp Angel outlaws in North Carolina, for the benefit of the New York Herald...

Radical Fairness. To fully show the hollowness of Radical honesty in legislation, we need refer but to one feature of the Congressional Appropriation bill now before the Legislature...

The Excitement Revived.

About thirty-five years ago a great excitement prevailed in the upper end of Buffalo Valley and the lower end of Penna Valley...

It is now reported that a man died in Illinois lately who confessed to the murder, and implicates four other parties. He states that the man they killed was a drover from Berks county...

Although but a small boy at the time we recollect the facts of the excitement and search very distinctly, and when our parents removed from Lycoming to this county, soon after, while passing through the Narrows...

NETS TO CRACK.—The Pittsburgh Commercial inquires whether the Administration has taken any steps to investigate the charges of gross misconduct and corruption made by Hon. J. B. Forney...

Has Returned. A squad of high-toned Boston philanthropists, too cowardly to go and see themselves, took it into their heads last fall to send the Rev. Sella Martin...

A LITTLE TAMMANY IN RADICAL BRADFORD.—The Bradford Argus charges that the county officials of that Radical stronghold are steeped in corruption...

DANGER.—Auditor General Hartranft was among the witnesses before the Evans' investigation committee, last week and his testimony is not uninteresting...

WELL STATED.—The New York Tribune says: The Southern Governors who advocate the re-nomination of President Grant...

VALUABLE ONES.—Mr. D. Karns, practical geologist of Bedford county, has discovered a rich vein of iron ore, and that iron ore, the purest and most valuable iron ore yet found in this State...

REVENUE FRAUD.—On Monday, 18th, John Koch of Centreville, Elk county, charged with violation of the revenue law, was arrested by Deputy Marshal Covert and brought before United States Commissioner Force...

Democrat's Convention.

Personal in a resolution of the Democratic State Executive Committee this day adopted, a Democratic State Convention in numbers equal to the representation in both houses of the Legislature...

ON HAND.—We notice that the National Labor Reform Party proposes to hold a State Convention at Williamsport on the 7th of May next...

THE SAW MILL.—Is the title of quite a pretentious monthly newspaper published at Williamsport and Sandy Hill, N. Y., with Jesse K. Sanborn as editor...

DECLINES.—The Wellsboro Democrat proposes the name of L. A. Mackey, Esq., of Lock Haven, for Governor...

ANOTHER FORNEY AT LARGE.—When Forney, for six years past State Librarian, has been removed by Gov. Geary...

GOING TO STRONG.—The Erie Observer says that the court records show the fact that 91 one divorce cases were instituted in that county between the 1st day of February, 1871, and 1st day of February, 1872...

EXTREME MODESTY.—We notice by the proceedings of the Central Pennsylvania M. E. Conference that Rev. S. W. Kerby, convicted of adultery some time ago in the Quarter Sessions of Franklin county...

MODEST JOHNNY.—Our readers will recollect that B. F. Myers, Democrat, defeated John Cessna for Congress, in the Bedford district, last October a year ago...

BOYD ABROAD.—A. Boyd Henderson, Esq., of Lock Haven, (Court Reporter), has undertaken to interview the Lowery Swamp Angel outlaws in North Carolina, for the benefit of the New York Herald...

Radical Fairness. To fully show the hollowness of Radical honesty in legislation, we need refer but to one feature of the Congressional Appropriation bill now before the Legislature...

Democrat's Convention.

Personal in a resolution of the Democratic State Executive Committee this day adopted, a Democratic State Convention in numbers equal to the representation in both houses of the Legislature...

ON HAND.—We notice that the National Labor Reform Party proposes to hold a State Convention at Williamsport on the 7th of May next...

THE SAW MILL.—Is the title of quite a pretentious monthly newspaper published at Williamsport and Sandy Hill, N. Y., with Jesse K. Sanborn as editor...

DECLINES.—The Wellsboro Democrat proposes the name of L. A. Mackey, Esq., of Lock Haven, for Governor...

ANOTHER FORNEY AT LARGE.—When Forney, for six years past State Librarian, has been removed by Gov. Geary...

GOING TO STRONG.—The Erie Observer says that the court records show the fact that 91 one divorce cases were instituted in that county between the 1st day of February, 1871, and 1st day of February, 1872...

EXTREME MODESTY.—We notice by the proceedings of the Central Pennsylvania M. E. Conference that Rev. S. W. Kerby, convicted of adultery some time ago in the Quarter Sessions of Franklin county...

MODEST JOHNNY.—Our readers will recollect that B. F. Myers, Democrat, defeated John Cessna for Congress, in the Bedford district, last October a year ago...

BOYD ABROAD.—A. Boyd Henderson, Esq., of Lock Haven, (Court Reporter), has undertaken to interview the Lowery Swamp Angel outlaws in North Carolina, for the benefit of the New York Herald...

Radical Fairness. To fully show the hollowness of Radical honesty in legislation, we need refer but to one feature of the Congressional Appropriation bill now before the Legislature...

Democrat's Convention.

Personal in a resolution of the Democratic State Executive Committee this day adopted, a Democratic State Convention in numbers equal to the representation in both houses of the Legislature...

ON HAND.—We notice that the National Labor Reform Party proposes to hold a State Convention at Williamsport on the 7th of May next...

THE SAW MILL.—Is the title of quite a pretentious monthly newspaper published at Williamsport and Sandy Hill, N. Y., with Jesse K. Sanborn as editor...

DECLINES.—The Wellsboro Democrat proposes the name of L. A. Mackey, Esq., of Lock Haven, for Governor...

ANOTHER FORNEY AT LARGE.—When Forney, for six years past State Librarian, has been removed by Gov. Geary...

GOING TO STRONG.—The Erie Observer says that the court records show the fact that 91 one divorce cases were instituted in that county between the 1st day of February, 1871, and 1st day of February, 1872...

EXTREME MODESTY.—We notice by the proceedings of the Central Pennsylvania M. E. Conference that Rev. S. W. Kerby, convicted of adultery some time ago in the Quarter Sessions of Franklin county...

MODEST JOHNNY.—Our readers will recollect that B. F. Myers, Democrat, defeated John Cessna for Congress, in the Bedford district, last October a year ago...

BOYD ABROAD.—A. Boyd Henderson, Esq., of Lock Haven, (Court Reporter), has undertaken to interview the Lowery Swamp Angel outlaws in North Carolina, for the benefit of the New York Herald...

Radical Fairness. To fully show the hollowness of Radical honesty in legislation, we need refer but to one feature of the Congressional Appropriation bill now before the Legislature...

Democrat's Convention.

Personal in a resolution of the Democratic State Executive Committee this day adopted, a Democratic State Convention in numbers equal to the representation in both houses of the Legislature...

ON HAND.—We notice that the National Labor Reform Party proposes to hold a State Convention at Williamsport on the 7th of May next...

THE SAW MILL.—Is the title of quite a pretentious monthly newspaper published at Williamsport and Sandy Hill, N. Y., with Jesse K. Sanborn as editor...

DECLINES.—The Wellsboro Democrat proposes the name of L. A. Mackey, Esq., of Lock Haven, for Governor...

ANOTHER FORNEY AT LARGE.—When Forney, for six years past State Librarian, has been removed by Gov. Geary...

GOING TO STRONG.—The Erie Observer says that the court records show the fact that 91 one divorce cases were instituted in that county between the 1st day of February, 1871, and 1st day of February, 1872...

EXTREME MODESTY.—We notice by the proceedings of the Central Pennsylvania M. E. Conference that Rev. S. W. Kerby, convicted of adultery some time ago in the Quarter Sessions of Franklin county...

MODEST JOHNNY.—Our readers will recollect that B. F. Myers, Democrat, defeated John Cessna for Congress, in the Bedford district, last October a year ago...

BOYD ABROAD.—A. Boyd Henderson, Esq., of Lock Haven, (Court Reporter), has undertaken to interview the Lowery Swamp Angel outlaws in North Carolina, for the benefit of the New York Herald...

Radical Fairness. To fully show the hollowness of Radical honesty in legislation, we need refer but to one feature of the Congressional Appropriation bill now before the Legislature...

Democrat's Convention.

Personal in a resolution of the Democratic State Executive Committee this day adopted, a Democratic State Convention in numbers equal to the representation in both houses of the Legislature...

ON HAND.—We notice that the National Labor Reform Party proposes to hold a State Convention at Williamsport on the 7th of May next...

THE SAW MILL.—Is the title of quite a pretentious monthly newspaper published at Williamsport and Sandy Hill, N. Y., with Jesse K. Sanborn as editor...

DECLINES.—The Wellsboro Democrat proposes the name of L. A. Mackey, Esq., of Lock Haven, for Governor...

ANOTHER FORNEY AT LARGE.—When Forney, for six years past State Librarian, has been removed by Gov. Geary...

GOING TO STRONG.—The Erie Observer says that the court records show the fact that 91 one divorce cases were instituted in that county between the 1st day of February, 1871, and 1st day of February, 1872...

EXTREME MODESTY.—We notice by the proceedings of the Central Pennsylvania M. E. Conference that Rev. S. W. Kerby, convicted of adultery some time ago in the Quarter Sessions of Franklin county...

MODEST JOHNNY.—Our readers will recollect that B. F. Myers, Democrat, defeated John Cessna for Congress, in the Bedford district, last October a year ago...

BOYD ABROAD.—A. Boyd Henderson, Esq., of Lock Haven, (Court Reporter), has undertaken to interview the Lowery Swamp Angel outlaws in North Carolina, for the benefit of the New York Herald...

Radical Fairness. To fully show the hollowness of Radical honesty in legislation, we need refer but to one feature of the Congressional Appropriation bill now before the Legislature...

Democrat's Convention.

Personal in a resolution of the Democratic State Executive Committee this day adopted, a Democratic State Convention in numbers equal to the representation in both houses of the Legislature...

ON HAND.—We notice that the National Labor Reform Party proposes to hold a State Convention at Williamsport on the 7th of May next...

THE SAW MILL.—Is the title of quite a pretentious monthly newspaper published at Williamsport and Sandy Hill, N. Y., with Jesse K. Sanborn as editor...

DECLINES.—The Wellsboro Democrat proposes the name of L. A. Mackey, Esq., of Lock Haven, for Governor...

ANOTHER FORNEY AT LARGE.—When Forney, for six years past State Librarian, has been removed by Gov. Geary...

GOING TO STRONG.—The Erie Observer says that the court records show the fact that 91 one divorce cases were instituted in that county between the 1st day of February, 1871, and 1st day of February, 1872...

EXTREME MODESTY.—We notice by the proceedings of the Central Pennsylvania M. E. Conference that Rev. S. W. Kerby, convicted of adultery some time ago in the Quarter Sessions of Franklin county...

MODEST JOHNNY.—Our readers will recollect that B. F. Myers, Democrat, defeated John Cessna for Congress, in the Bedford district, last October a year ago...

BOYD ABROAD.—A. Boyd Henderson, Esq., of Lock Haven, (Court Reporter), has undertaken to interview the Lowery Swamp Angel outlaws in North Carolina, for the benefit of the New York Herald...

Radical Fairness. To fully show the hollowness of Radical honesty in legislation, we need refer but to one feature of the Congressional Appropriation bill now before the Legislature...

Advertisement for a book or publication.

Advertisement for a book or publication.