

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor and Proprietor.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 8, 1872.

WILL HE JUMP OFF.—It looks more as though Gen. Grant would back off the track before the Philadelphia Convention meets.

ALARMED.—It is said that after Grant heard of the nomination at Cincinnati he telegraphed his old piece to the convention—"Let us have peace."

"SHAMEFUL."—The Mechanicsburg Journal, a Radical organ of Cumberland county denounces Hartranft's nomination for Governor. "Shameful and disgraceful."

An International Penitentiary Congress will assemble at the city of London in July next, for the purpose of exchanging notes on prisoners and prison discipline.

WILLIAMSPORT.—The debt of this infant city is $714,934.71. Population, 16,000; or, about $45 for every soul in it. What a "national blessing" they have down there, anyhow! It is no wonder they are saucy.

A short time ago Anna Dickinson was praised by every Radical journal in the land. Now the Grant organs are unenthusiastic in their abuse. "Sigh" is life. We suspect that "gentle Anna" has been telling the truth about somebody.

THE IRON Famine.—The present high price of iron has produced great excitement among the dealers of that commercial commodity. Pig iron, which not over six months ago sold slowly for $35 per ton, now brings $50 to $55 per ton; while nails have advanced $1.50 to $2 per keg, and everything manufactured out of iron has advanced nearly 50 per cent. It is said that an iron famine has set in, not only in this country but in Europe, and that it will take several years to settle prices permanently. Those therefore who are in the business had better keep their eyes open.

DEFEATED.—Andrew Armstrong, a "rooster" of the Legislature from Lancaster county, prosecuted the editor of a newspaper called Father Abraham, for slander. The Intelligence states that the suit was tried last week and resulted in a verdict for the defendant. In his charge to the jury, Judge Hayes took a broad and liberal view of the rights of newspaper publishers, holding that free criticism of the acts of public officials was guaranteed by the bill of rights as a sacred privilege.

GENERAL CONFERENCE.—All the Methodists in the World are just now represented in the General Conference, which has been in session in Brooklyn, New York, the past week. And for the first time in the history of that denomination lay delegates participate in the affairs of that body. It appears that the vote polled in the several Conferences on this question stood, for lay representation, 4,945 against, 1,597; more than two thirds the vote of the Conference was, yeas, 279; nays, 5; viz: Dr. Curry, N. Y.; Drs. Dobbins and Hill, N. J.; Dr. Godfrey, Ia.; Dr. Jacques, Maine. The lay delegation consists of 129 members; 7 of whom are Ex-Governors, 7 Judges, 7 Bankers, 23 Merchants, 28 Lawyers, and the rest Farmers and Mechanics and one United States Senator, (Harlan, of Iowa), the head of the Indian ring at Washington.

READ IT AGAIN.—Radicals and the rest of mankind should believe the leaders of the Radical party when they tell the truth, especially when the allegations criminate themselves. Three weeks ago we published the report of the Legislative Committee, relating to the Evans robbery. A majority of that committee were Radicals, and every man who is opposed to being robbed by officials ought to read it and note carefully this sentence:

The State officials knew this fact that Evans collected $181,168.24, and retained the whole for three years before it became public, and their neglect to report the transaction to the Legislature is regarded by us as a gross dereliction of official duty.

John F. Hartranft was one of these officials, and it was his special duty to see that all collecting officers and agents made prompt settlements. But during all the three years here spoken of by the committee he had $7,000 of Evans' money in his pocket. He never uttered a word in his reports to the Legislature, or otherwise, about the defalcation, until the newspapers exposed the villainy. Now he wants to be Governor, probably that he may pardon his good friend Evans. This would be quite natural after Evans befriended him for three years with $7,000.

PITY.—The Administration, the Hartford Courant acknowledges, has committed "errors of the head, not of the heart." Adds the Tribune: "That it is, let us have a change of head. Change of heart is a cure for original sin; perhaps a change of head will be as efficacious for political errors."

Tickets are Multiplying.

The Radical Reformers who assembled at Cincinnati on the 1st inst., have placed another ticket for President and Vice President in the field—making the third for the season. Two more may be expected by the 4th of July. The "bread and butter brigade" will of course present Grant and somebody else no better, while the Democrats will probably present the last and of course the best. So voters cannot possibly make a mistake this fall in voting the wrong ticket, if variety is a preventive.

The Labor Reformers have presented David Davis, one of the Judges of the United States Supreme Court, and Joel Parker, now Governor of New Jersey.

The Temperance Advocates submit the names of James Black, of Lancaster, in this State, and Austin Blair, a prominent Michiganian, to the friends of total abstinence and the rest of mankind.

The third and last ticket presented for consideration is that of the Radical Reformers, who seem to have pinned their faith to Horace Greeley, the great farmer and editor of the New York Tribune, and B. Gratz Brown, of Missouri, now Governor of that State.

The gentleman named are all Radicals, except Mr. Parker, the associate of Judge Davis. The general appearing of the political elements seems to be wholly confined to the Radical wigwag, which, if those who have escaped from it tell the truth, seems to be a chaldron boiling over with corruption and iniquity.

Democrats can, under these circumstances, afford to "keep quiet," as the "lamented Corvado" used to write it, until their own convention speaks from St. Louis or some other city at no distant day.

Providence seems to be on the side of the people in the approaching campaign, and it looks now as though every "ring" of corruptionists, State and National, would burst, and restore to the people of these once more United States a republican form of government, so essential to our individual happiness and general prosperity. This all but demagogues and men controlled by mercenary motives desire, but it can never be obtained through the agents now in power in the State and Nation. Hence, the duty of patriots is plainly marked out for them by the corruptionists. The latter rock that lies in the political channel is "official corruption," and must be avoided, or our craft will go to the bottom with all on board.

Don't PAY HIS BILLS.—It is said that Wendell Phillips will not file, if so, what will Grant's temperance backers say to this. Wendell says: "Recently, while on a visit to the West, in the vicinity of Grant's former home, I asked a friend of mine, at whose house I was stopping, what the people there thought of the President, and he replied that they had a very poor opinion of him, they did not think he was an honest man. My friend asked me to ride around with him to the neighborhood and he would show me at least five grog shops where the now President of the United States has yet whisky bills standing against him, the score not having been wiped out."

PRINCE FIELD AND PRINCESS NELLIE.—The bold Britons are receiving the President's daughter, Miss Nellie, as if she were a princess. They decorated the railway station at Leamington (a noted watering place near Warwick Castle, and also near Stratford, the birthplace of Shakespeare) with American and English flags, and cheered the young lady as they do their own fair pensioners. Evidently Miss Nellie is to have a royal progress in Europe; and the triumphal procession of Lieut. Fred. Grant, escorted by General Sherman, through Russia, is about to begin. This is all very nice, but is there not rather too much of it?—Cincinnati Commercial.

OF COURSE.—The Harrisburg State Journal copies Horace Greeley and John W. Forney together, denouncing them both as enemies of the Republican party. The truth is that the Republican party in Pennsylvania has ceased to exist for any other purpose than to register the decrees of Cameron and to keep in place the creatures who compose the Treasury Ring.—Any man who has sufficient manhood to assert his independence must expect to be read out of the party.

SHOVERS SENTENCED.—Clinton Menges, of Muncy, Lycoming county, son of the notorious John Menges, of counterfeiting fame, has been sentenced to the Western Penitentiary for seven years for following in the footsteps of his father. Young Menges had been in the shoving business for a number of years and had served a short time in the State prison of Ohio for the crime. This notorious family has been engaged in these nefarious businesses for over forty years.

CHANGE OF TUNE.—Less than three years ago, the entire Radical press pronounced George Wilkes one of the ablest and best men of the country.—His paper was the oracle of the party, and he was President Grant's most confidential friend and adviser, and his intimate personal companion. To-day he is denounced as a "rooster" and the "bottle holder to prize fighters." This sudden change of expression is entirely owing to the fact that Mr. Wilkes is opposed to Grant's reelection.

A HEAVY CONTRACT.—The Pittsburgh Gazette says that Hartranft must have 18,000 majority in Philadelphia to get through. This will put Macn, Kemble and Bann under heavy contract. After the unhappy failure of Gopher Bill, the Educated Hog and the other noble upholders of the Republican institutions in the Fourth district election case, the loyal leaders in Philadelphia have begun to despair. Like detected conjurers their best trick has been exposed, and their game is up.

A PROBLEM.—If it only took three years for the carpet baggers to add two hundred millions of dollars to the funded debt of the Southern States, how long will it take them to make the debt greater than all the property personal and real? Here is an excellent opportunity for the mathematicians of our contemporaries to display their talents.

THE TIDAL WAVE.—The West Chester Jeffersonian says: "We show which way the wind blows." This adage was verified on Saturday evening last, in Xenixville, in the effort to organize a Hartranft Club for the gubernatorial campaign. Large posters were conspicuously displayed calling the meeting, and we are informed from reliable sources that but three persons accepted of the invitation, and they deserted themselves officers and adjourned. Such demonstrations being made at this early stage of the contest go to show, in their unmistakable way, that something is rotten in Denmark, and the people know it.

A SWEET DEED.—Collector Casco of New Orleans, one of Grant's fortunate brothers-in-law, has received a mortgage of $32,000 for confiscated sugar. This money really belonged to a poor widow, but the brother-in-law being nearer the throne got the "swag." How pleasant it is to be a brother-in-law to the President.

How Made of Political.

"For ways that are dark and tricks that are vain" the Radicals are about as peevish as the "heaven Chinese." Not only do they present bills to the Governor for signature that never passed the Legislature, but they veto others by not presenting them after having passed—an irresponsible clerk thus as effectually vetoing an act of the Legislature as the Governor himself can do it! Oh, Radical rascality! is not thy name legion? Is there a villainy that you do not practice?

A few years ago a law authorizing the election of an additional law Judge in the Tenth district was passed. As there is no business enough there to keep one Judge employed, the extra became a nuisance. A bill passed both Houses at the late session repealing the law authorizing an additional Judge, thus saving about $5,000 to the people. But before this bill reached the Governor, after having been passed by the Legislature, some Radical stole it, and consequently it cannot become a law. It is the Judge's fault, affected by it is a Congressman, Wilkes, a particular friend of a distinguished citizen of Williamsport who is supposed to have presented a bill to the Governor for signature that had never passed! It really looks as though this Cesar of ours not only passes bills for the Legislature but also vetoes such as do not suit him, by withholding them from the Governor.—Williamsport Standard.

No, Sir!—Will General Hartranft withdraw? This question is being passed around, so we will answer it. No, sir, he will not. Why should he? If ever a Governor was fairly, squarely and enthusiastically nominated, General Hartranft is that nominee.—He stands before the people upon his record. A good citizen before the war, a valiant soldier in the late war, a faithful civil officer since the war, this very day, why should he withdraw? The duty of the General is plain. He is the nominee of the Republican party for the Governorship of this State. He has the opposition of some of the members of that party.—The latter say if Hartranft runs they will beat him at all hazards—if they can.

Now if the party is defeated in October, the responsibility will not lie with Hartranft, but with those that are his implacable foes, and with them he should leave it. We write thus because we are satisfied that the only quarter in which the withdrawal of General Hartranft is seriously considered is where the wish is the father of the thought.—Philadelphia Post.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION of Mississippi met on Wednesday. A. S. Morgan, a white man having a negro wife, presided. The delegates were about equally divided between white and colored.

C. H. Pearce, Bishop of the African Methodist Church, member of the Florida State Senate, and a Radical politician, has been sentenced in that State to six months in the county jail for bribery.

Col. Rush C. Hawkins, a member of the New York Legislature, has resigned because he is disgusted with the villainous conduct of the House. Both branches are Republican, and so is Hawkins.

A great joint stock company is to be formed to pay the expenses of the Centennial. As everything in Philadelphia is run by rings, it will be surprising if this does not fall into the same control.

OF THE 357 electoral votes to be cast in the coming Presidential election New England and the Middle States will have 109; the Western States, 102; the Pacific States, 12; and the Southern States, 134.

The California delegation to the Philadelphia Convention have been instructed to vote for Grant and Wilson. This is a sad disappointment to Mr. Colfax, who leaned trustingly upon the vote of the Golden State.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch thinks that the Cincinnati Convention is "a sweet morsel to the starved Democracy." It will prove devoid of anything to blot and discredited Radicalism—so there's the difference 'twixt this and that.

Swift justice was meted out to a man named McCallis in Philadelphia last week. He had committed an assault with the intent of robbing, and in seventeen hours thereafter he was committed to the Penitentiary for seventeen years.

The Florida State Senate has decided to set as a high court of impeachment for the trial of the carpet bag Governor, who has robbed and disgraced the State. Should he be convicted, he will, no doubt for the State, as did Holden, of North Carolina.

It seems to be conceded on all hands that Hon. James Thompson, the present Chief Justice of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, will receive the nomination for Supreme Judge from the Democratic State Convention at Reading. No better nomination could be made. His eminent fitness for the place is universally acknowledged.

The St. Louis Christian Advocate is evidently unfit for circulation in the Fifth district. It says: "We do not pretend to account for Satan. We can not understand the propriety of his existence any more than we can that of General Benjamin Butler; but both are facts in the world, which we receive upon competent testimony."—Boston Advertiser.

The enlightened Radicals and Know Nothings are again ridiculing the Germans. If there is still any of that nationality stupid enough to hang to the Republican zebra's caudal, they deserve no better treatment than they are getting. If any German citizen delight in eating dirt from the Radical spoon and enjoy the thought that they are every draught, they are not to be pitied at all.

John P. Brown, secretary and dragoman of the American legation at Constantinople, who died there on the 28th ult., had been probably longer in office than any other member of the diplomatic service, having received his first appointment under President Jackson's administration, in 1836, as dragoman or interpreter. He was so conversant with the language and state affairs of Turkey that his services were deemed essential by the successive ministers. He was a native of Ohio.

ON THE FENCE.—Some of Hartranft's friends claim that he would decline the nomination for Governor only that it would be claimed as an acknowledgment that the charges against him concerning the Evans business were true; and that he now has the endorsement of his party and it would be better to be defeated before the people, than to "acknowledge his guilt."

Conjurer.

President Grant was fifty years old on the 27th ult. He may live thirty years yet in perfect obscurity.

The Philadelphia and Reading cars, at Reading, make one passenger car and ten freight cars per week.

General Kane, of "Bucktail" fame, announces himself as a candidate for a seat in the Constitutional Convention.

The "Pap Snickers" is what they call the office-holders who are to nominate Grant in Philadelphia in June next.

A Texas editor contends that a member of Congress from that State has a right to his seat because "he bought it."

It was a Radical delegate to the State Convention that dubbed Hartranft, "the Evans due bill candidate for Governor."

The Philadelphia Post give advice to Democrats about supporting the Cincinnati ticket. Not a good source to seek advice from.

The Boston Free Press is the only Republican paper in the Eleven Congressional Districts of Pennsylvania that gives Hartranft an unqualified support.

The property of Emanuel Schaffer, the Danbury county wine poisoner, was sold on Thursday by the Sheriff for $5,500. George Schaffer was the purchaser.

A man in Oregon has sued to recover $5,000 from his parents-in-law for representing his wife wrong and healthy when she has turned out sickly and peevish.

The "Gen. Grant" is the significant name of a boat which collided with another boat on the canal near Williamsburg, Blair county, lately, and was nearly destroyed.

The official vote of Connecticut gives Jewell, the Republican candidate for Governor, 28 majority over the Democratic, temperance and labor reform candidates combined.

The Charleston News says that the effect of the Ku-Klux arrests in South Carolina has been to render 500 ploughs idle in Laurens county alone, and prevent the cultivation of 10,000 acres.

Mrs. David E. Porter, wife of ex-Governor Porter, and mother of General Horace Porter, the President's private secretary, died in Harrisburg, on Wednesday night, at an advanced age.

Forty-six "patriots" announce themselves in Mercer county as willing to have honors thrust upon them at the Republican nomination, and about half the townships have not yet been heard from.

The Republican State Convention of Mississippi met on Wednesday. A. S. Morgan, a white man having a negro wife, presided. The delegates were about equally divided between white and colored.

C. H. Pearce, Bishop of the African Methodist Church, member of the Florida State Senate, and a Radical politician, has been sentenced in that State to six months in the county jail for bribery.

Read Out.

At a regularly called meeting of the postoffice politicians of Philadelphia, held in Spring Garden Hall on Monday evening last, for the purpose of organizing the postoffice officers and repeaters for service in the approaching campaign, the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That we look upon the final departure beyond the lines of the Republican party of the political reformers headed by A. K. McClure as a political heresy.

The same meeting very appropriately endorsed Hangman Hartranft and "Rooster" Allen as follows:

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the ticket placed in nomination by the late Republican State Convention, and we will give it an energetic support.

We must condole with Mr. McClure upon the loss of such valuable political friends and hope that the associations he may form with honest citizens may assuage his grief. Of course it was his impudent course in opposing the ballot-box stuffing, repeating and perjury in the late Special Election in the Fourth Senatorial District, that has so aroused the virtuous indignation of these members of the paper-feder's ring and caused the alienation.—Hatcheter Jeffersonian.

EPHRAIMATIC BUT TRUTHFUL.—Hon. Cassius M. Clay made the following speech upon the occasion of Presidency at a meeting of the Liberal Republicans of Kentucky in Cincinnati previous to the Convention: "I think there are two or three great elements upon which all the patriotic people of this country can agree. That is that the people of the State shall govern the State; that the National Government shall come back to its normal state, standing upon the Constitution; that character and honesty and fidelity in office shall be reinstated; for when the Treasury of the country can not be preserved, no form of institutions can long exist. Failure must be the consequence."

"LET US HAVE PEACE."—The following resolution was voted "down with a storm of hisses," by the "pap feeders" in the late Radical Convention:

"Resolved, That this Convention do earnestly request our Senators and Representatives in Congress to vote for the speedy passage of an act of Congress extending the term of office to all persons engaged in the late rebellion."

Grant cries: "let us have peace," but insists upon his followers in and out of Congress opposing amnesty or any other measure looking towards peace. He proclaims himself in favor of civil service reform, but secures its defeat in Congress.

ENDORSERS.—It is said that the Ohio Radical State Convention which recently met in Columbus to appoint Grant delegates to the Philadelphia Convention, was composed entirely of rural post-masters, revenue assessors and whiskey gaugers. Of course they endorsed Grant.

"TOO THIN."—The Chicago Evening Post suggested that a couple of jackasses be sent to Cincinnati to get "tone" to the convention. The Memphis Avalanche replied that this effort of the editor of the Post to get an invitation was too thin.

Dentistry.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE GREAT REDUCTION OF PRICES!

BY S. POTTER SHAW, D. D. S.

IMPORTANT TRUTH! Having succeeded in getting a lighter (and) material, hence the few and moderate charge for partial and full sets of Teeth. I am the best.

It is well to wear patients from a distance to the office. It is very important that children between the ages of six and twelve years should have their teeth examined.

Dispositions and character are judged of all the world by the expressions of the face, hence how very desirable is it that there be persons to indulge an expression of distorted features, even apart from a hygienic view. Now, to enjoy Discomfort and malformation commensurate to the respect and obey natural discipline and justice.

Office in New Masonic Building, Second street, Clearfield, Pa.

DENTAL CARD. DR. A. M. HILLS

Wanted say to his patients and the public generally, that having disengaged partnership with Dr. Shaw, he is now doing the entire work of his office himself, so that patients need not fear being put under the hands of any other operator.

J. M. STEWART, D. D. S., Office over Irwin's Drug Store, CURWENSVILLE, PA.

All dental operations, either in the mechanical or operative branch, promptly attended to and done with the greatest care and skill.

Miscellaneous. A Move in Curwensville!

J. R. IRWIN, Druggist, CURWENSVILLE, PA.

HAS removed his Drug Store to his new rooms, three doors west of his old store, and takes this opportunity of thanking his old customers for their liberal patronage, and begs by close attention, combined with a selection of goods, to merit its continuance on the part of all his old customers, and assure that of many new ones. Please give him a call.

WATCHES! WATCHES! I have a large stock of AMERICAN and SWISS WATCHES, of the different grades, in from two to eight cases. I offer these for sale LOW, and guarantee them to give entire satisfaction.

A good assortment of Ladies' and Gents' jewelry of the latest styles! Always getting something new!

I would ask Lumbermen and others who intend purchasing Watches to call and see my stock before going to the cities, as I am very sure I can sell Watches as low as they can be bought, besides the difference in price is the event of the goods proving defective.

All kinds of REPAIRING in my line promptly attended to at the store on Second street, opposite the Court House. For your liberal support in the past I am very thankful.

S. I. SENDER, April 3, 1872. YOUR ATTENTION! JUST FOR A MOMENT!

Are you in need of a good set of Harness? Are you in need of a good Saddle or Bridle? If so, call at the Saddle and Harness Shop of J. O. C. HARVEY, where you can get the best of the market. Double and Single Harness and all assortment of Saddlery, Hardware, etc., etc., always on hand or manufactured to order.
