Biz.—The Tyrone Herald says:

The long train will bring down the mountain, on the Clearfield road, east on Saturday last. It amounted to a little yard of 55 cars.

EARLY PEACHES.—Mr. Charles Held, of Millburn, Centre county, has a young peach tree in his house, about two and a half feet high, which blossomed two months ago and developed twenty-four peaches, all of which have been eaten off.

THE CONVENTION.—The triennial convention of School Directors assembled in the Court Room on Tuesday, but as we are compelled to go to press at 12 o'clock we are unable to give any of the proceedings in this issue or indicate who will win the ball.

ASSESSOR APPOINTED.—William Riddle, the Assesser elect for Necessaries, having removed from the township, the County Commissioners have appointed Philip Dotis to fill the vacancy. Mr. Dotis is a worthy citizen, sound Democrat, and will make an excellent officer.

ANOTHER MUNICIPALITY.—It seems that the village of Hennville, Woodward township, has been erected into a borough, and will hereafter be styled among the municipal corporations of Clearfield county. The unparalleled prosperity of this section has made it necessary to take this step.

ON HAND.—We have before us the initial number of a daily diary journal, started at Williamsport, by the proprietor of the Standard, H. L. Dieffendorf, Esq., entitled the Daily Morning Standard. It is a lively six column paper, and starts off vigorously, and will no doubt prove a success.

A DECIDED IMPROVEMENT.—The Bald Eagle Valley Railroad is just completing a connection with the P. & R. R. to the Junction at Lock Haven, which will enable the train to run up to the depot without backing, and allow the engines to turn without resorting to the round table. An "X" is now formed at that point, giving two points of connection with the P. & R. road.

IN TROUBLE.—We notice that one of the County Commissioners and the Clerk of Indians county have been arrested for embezzlement. It appears that from $30,000 to $40,000 worth of Court House bonds, and some of the County Commissioners' records, are missing. What a pity that the officials of that excessively loyal county should be disturbed by some foolish notioned old fogies who cannot see things as modern loyalists do.

GOOD FOR THE BRUTES.—It is reported that the Pennsylvania Society for the Protection of Cruelty to Animals intend shortly to appoint a resident agent for every town in our State, whose duty it will be to report to headquarters all cases of cruelties of animals which may come under his notice. He will call out all of you persecutors of household and tormentors of other animals, or you and find yourselves to the modes of the law before you are aware of it.

ACCIDENT.—The Philipburg Journal says a young lad named Bowes had his leg broken and his head badly cut at the Mortisale mine on Wednesday. He was attempting to get a ride upon the cart which were entering the mine, some eight or nine in number, when he missed his footing and fell between two of them, receiving the injuries above stated. The fracture of the leg was compound, and the scalp was cut to the skull from ear to ear, across the back part of his head. It was fortunate that he escaped, even, with no more dangerous wounds.

THE QUEEN.—The vendors of this article have opened their summer campaign. There are other methods of cheating and defrauding people than by "new dust" alone. The testimony of the Balaclava Watchmen is to this effect.

"The photograph man and the paper collar individual, each offering fortunes to the eager gullible, who patronized them, were in town this week and last. They were attempting to get a ride upon the cart which were entering the mine, some eight or nine in number, when he missed his footing and fell between two of them, receiving the injuries above stated. The fracture of the leg was compound, and the scalp was cut to the skull from ear to ear, across the back part of his head. It was fortunate that he escaped, even, with no more dangerous wounds.

THE SCHOOL.—The Directors of the Altoona Tribune thus warn the Mayor of that city, who seems to cultivate misions in the vicinity of his office:

With all due deference we would still attract the attention of the city authorities to the following fact: The school which is to be established in the winter of 1872-73 will be in residence to attend all professional calls, by day or night. Office off Broad street, west of the depot, Clearfield, Pa.

May 21, 1872.

RICH NEIGHBORS.—We notice that our down-stream—Williamsport—neighbors have at length obtained a settlement with their city authorities. The auditors report loss on the amount of $72,807.66 over three quarters of a million of dollars. We notice that the sum of $40,000 was raised from bonds issued, and the balance from taxation. The account shows the loss, we trust, not to be great, Peter Herdin, Esq., took $162,000 worth of bonds and credited the City Treasury with $160,540, being a discount of over $55,860, or about 35 percent. No wonder however cannot be brought down. The Williamsport blow on a very nice white, but they have to pay for it roundly. The city debt is $714,324.71.

SAINTY ADVICE.—The editor of the Altoona Tribune thus warns the Mayor of that city, who seems to cultivate misions in the vicinity of his office:

With all due deference we would still attract the attention of the city authorities to the following fact: The school which is to be established in the winter of 1872-73 will be in residence to attend all professional calls, by day or night. THE SCHOOL TERM.—The Directors of the several school districts will not doubt have in mind, the fact that the Legislature, last winter passed an act extending the school term to the Northern and Southern States, and were prepared under the immediate supervision of a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College.

The school term is to be increased by one month, so as to "keep" preparation, but made strictly to conform with the advanced principles and the theory of medicine.

"THE LITTLE GAME."—We clip the following from a late number of the Harrington Journal:

Judge Mayes, during the court, now in session at Williamsport, gave the attorneys practicing him a respite the other day, in which they took trial lists and announced their desire no longer to tolerate the delay in coming to trial, so many attorneys indulged, and declared that he would now tell all who further thus embarrassed him. At 10 o'clock, all the Judges announced a similar intention, and the result was that the attorneys to delay suits is only a picture of little game of pitting which by which clients are robbed and innocent parties shamefully injured.

A little legislation for the regulation and control of the legislature is much needed.

If ever "special legislation" was required it is upon this point. But as the lawyers "run" the Legislature, their system of not trying suits will likely go on unless the Judges of our courts have "backbone" enough to break up this method of delaying and embarrassing the business of our courts.

MERCANTILE LICENSE.—The County Treasurer, Mr. Wilson, requests us to state that all mercantile houses in the apparel section, are now ready, and applicants are requested to call and let them know.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH—Episcopal—Rev.

Communicated.

LAWRENCE, May 7th, 1872.

Mr. EDISON in your valuable paper of 27th March, our humble servants, the Superintendents and Auditors, gave us a tabular statement of our finances for the year 1871, which was all right and proper, and perfectly in accordance with the Act of Assembly.

It is now evident to us that the same is not correct, and we will make a full and complete statement of our financial condition.
