

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. CLEARFIELD, PA. WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 12, 1872.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, CHARLES R. BUCKALEW, OF COLEBURN COUNTY. FOR SUPREME JUDGE, JAMES THOMPSON, OF BIRCH COUNTY. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, WILLIAM HARTLEY, OF BEDFORD COUNTY.

National Democratic Convention.

The National Democratic Committee, by virtue of the authority conferred upon them by the last National Democratic Convention, voted, at a meeting held this day in New York, to hold the next convention for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, on the 9th day of July, 1872, at 12 o'clock, M., in the city of St. Louis.

THE "TREATY TINKER."

Since Grant's back down on the Alabama question European diplomats pronounce him the giant treaty tinker.

THE CONVENTION.

On our first page will be found full proceedings of the Democratic State Convention. Mr. Buckalew's speech will appear next week.

A WIT.

Our Congressman, Scofield, perpetrated the following at the Philadelphia Convention: "We are for the man that whined, against the man that failed Jefferson Davis."

AFORISM.

A Lancaster exchange says that city has 22 churches, but a visit to the mayor's office every morning for a week satisfies the editor that the churches don't do the devil much harm.

RATHER THIN.

On Friday, Forney hoisted a Grant & Wilson flag, badly tattered, exclaiming, "Now for November!" If the Press gentlemen are satisfied, we shall file no objections; but as for us, we are in for an affair in October. But the ring in October, then it will stay so in November.

TRUTHFUL.

The Philadelphia Press says: "The best speaker in Philadelphia says that the best speakers in the National Convention were colored men."

WE HAVE NO DOUBT UPON THAT POINT.

But it's rather severe on the white demagogues who figured so conspicuously in that "oil" body, which contained fifty negro delegates.

THE LEATHERHEADS.

Grant and Wilson the Shoemaker, will now be the battle cry of the freedom strikers. While the great "Smiler" Colfax will no doubt resume his lectures "Across the Continent" at an early day. The South Carolina bigamist, Bowen, should be added to this trio.

THE RETIRING "SMILER."

The defeat of Colfax, before the Philadelphia Convention, was very unexpected to that "retiring" statesman. By letter, he has retired from public life about a score of times—in a horn. But exchanging him for the cobbler from Massachusetts, in the hour of his sublime repose, is the unkindest cut of all.

HEAVY.

All the political cannons in the Senate who wear Grant collars are picking into Senator Sumner for telling the truth about "the government." Carpenter, Logan & Co. have brought all their heavy artillery to bear on the Massachusetts Senator, but he is quite likely to survive and dodge successfully every javelin hurled at his head.

THE GREELY BANNER.

We are in receipt of the initial number of this new journal, published at Lancaster and edited by E. H. Rauch, Esq., heretofore a leader of the Radical forces in that hot-bed of loyalty and big Radical majorities. It is evident from the tone of the paper that the editor will do it up Brown in the Greeley way for the ring candidates this fall. We are pleased to know that Mr. Rauch has got his eyes open and is "making for" the ring ticket with proper zeal. Elsewhere in this issue will be found his views on Hartman and Buckalew. He will blaze the line as he passes along.

Grant's Convention.

A Radical National Convention of office holders and negroes assembled in the Academy of Music, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 6th. The convention was called to order by Hon. Wm. Gladin, Chairman of the National Executive Committee. He nominated Hon. Morton McMichael, of this city, for Temporary President. Mr. McMichael, on taking the chair, made a speech which evoked great enthusiasm, especially when President Grant's name was mentioned. The various organizing committees were then appointed, after which General Logan of Illinois, Hon. Gerrit Smith of New York, Senator Morton of Indiana, Hon. James L. Orr of South Carolina, and ex-Governor Oglesby of Illinois made speeches in response to calls from the assemblage. Mr. Wm. H. Gray of Arkansas, a negro delegate, being also called upon, made an eloquent address, which was loudly applauded. Hon. R. B. Elliott of South Carolina, and James H. Harris, of North Carolina, both negroes, also spoke. The Committee on Resolutions then reported. The reported Hon. Thomas M. Holt of North Carolina, for Permanent President, and H. H. Bingham, of Philadelphia, for Permanent Secretary, with a list of Vice Presidents from each State. The report was adopted, and Mr. Settle acknowledged the honor conferred upon him in a brief speech. The Convention then adjourned until Thursday morning.

RESURRECTED.

Wm. Lloyd Garrison, the father of the disunion Abolitionists, has written a long letter, denouncing his life long friend, Charles Sumner, for telling the truth about Grant. This old political reprobate used to have the following motto at the head of his newspaper, the Boston Liberator, "The United States Constitution is a covenant with death and an agreement with hell. No Union with Slaveholders." Such are the sentiments of this mongrelized Englishman, who now abuses his warmest personal friend for warning the American people of the danger of re-electing Grant. Garrison wants him re-elected with the hope of destroying the Republic. He expected to accomplish its destruction through his slavish hobby, but having failed he now adopts Grant for a similar purpose. He favors a monarchy and is seeking a pretext to destroy the Republic, and he thinks Grant competent for the work.

A STRONG COMBINATION.

The members of the Philadelphia Convention, having nominated the president of the whisky ring and the president of the Young Men's Christian Association and chairman of the Congressional prayer-meeting, will embrace the Radical party to drive a heavy business, if the combination of great spiritual and moral interests availed anything these demoralizing times. The combination is on the plan of Beecher religion—success in great gains, no difference about the means. The men who are running the Radical machine will run a distillery through a prayer-meeting with as much complacency as Beecher delivers a political speech in a church, provided it makes votes for Grant.

ANOTHER RING.

The action of the Radical Convention at Philadelphia has led to a ring combination in the leather and shoe business, which will open an entire new field for the Grant family. Ulysses is to open a National Tannery at Washington, and Henry Wilson is to open a government Shoe shop in Boston, and together they propose to give constant employment to all the skippers and cobblers in the country. The whisky ring is to back Grant, and the Congressional prayer-meeting Wilson.

Juditor General.

It seems that the Reading Convention was peculiarly fortunate in selecting our nominee for Auditor General. The Bedford Gazette, published at the home of Mr. Hartley, says: "Bedford county was honored by the convention in the nomination of Wm. Hartley, Esq., for Auditor General. Mr. Hartley's peculiar qualifications for the office to which he has been named, were recognized by the representatives of the Democracy of the State, and it was solely on account of his singular fitness for the position that he was singled out among the good men named in connection with this nomination as the proper person to fill this place on the ticket. We have known him intimately for fifteen years, and we give it as our deliberate judgment that he will make as honest, careful and efficient an officer as ever presided over the financial accounts of the Commonwealth. Here at home no man enjoys a higher reputation for integrity of character, and in the northwestern counties, where Mr. Hartley has acquired large business interests, he is immensely popular. He has never been a politician, never before sought an office, though always taking a keen interest in public affairs. He is a man of refined culture, a graduate of Jefferson College, a writer of much force, and a logical and effective speaker. The Democracy of Bedford county owe it to their brethren throughout the State, to show their appreciation of the honor conferred upon them in the nomination of Mr. Hartley, by turning out en masse at the coming election, and polling the largest majority ever given in the annals of politics."

THE WAY THEY DO IT.

The Radicals are constantly claiming that they are reducing taxes. They will know there is scarcely a word of truth in the statement, because they pay more taxes every year. The Rochester Union puts these two facts side by side as an evidence of the way taxes are being reduced:

Tax for 1871, $206,278,363. Tax for 1870, $194,353,274. Increase nearly twelve millions of dollars for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1871, as compared with that ending June 30, 1870. This statement does not include the millions paid that never go into the Treasury. That is the way taxes are reduced.

JUST SO.

An intelligent correspondent of the New York Sun comes to the following conclusion: "The situation may be, then, briefly summed up. The Grant party is divided in two camps. The Liberal Republicans are united in favor of Buckalew. As Pennsylvania goes, so goes the Union."

Grant's Convention.

A Pittsburgh retail grocer announces, "Dolly Varden gets, laid to order." Pennsylvania will hereafter have twenty-eight votes in the electoral college. The parade of the Masonic fraternity in Reading on the 18th promises to be a very large affair. Hartman is briefly described as the man who "borrowed some thousand dollars from George O. Evans." Governor Palmer delivered an anti-Grant and pro-Greeley speech at Doar, Ill., on the 25th instant. If you want to have a Radical equal, mention it to Sumner, he has lately made a speech about the Grant party. The Lancaster Express objects to one man calling another "a goose." It suggests "an ass" as being more applicable. Switzerland is said to be the only country in Europe where more money is spent on public education than on the army. One who wishes the world to know what he knows about farming, says the best way to raise strawberries is with a spoon. The people of Wyoming don't know whether to call their female judge a justice of the peace, or a justice of the peace.

Georgians complain.

That the colored "revivals" continue all night and impede the participants for working in the day time. Victoria C. Woodhull has written a letter—"three columns in length"—accepting the Apollo Hall nomination for the Presidency. The Pittsburgh Post states that the Hon. Carl Schurz will speak for Mr. Buckalew throughout Pennsylvania in the present campaign. The Radicals of Bloomsburg have elected a negro to represent them in the Town Council. He will no doubt represent them properly. A Wisconsin minister avoke his slumbering charge by vehemently saying, "Deacon T., wake up, the best of the sermon is come."

Forty thousand Bibles.

were burned in the Chicago fire, but owing to their not being fired before, it has just come out as an item of news. It is believed that Mr. Hendricks will be nominated for Governor by the Indiana Democratic Convention, which assembles on the 12th inst. The Ehrenburg dam was stocked with fish some years ago and this year a limited amount of fishing has been allowed. Some whoppers were caught. A Baltimore jeweler has invented an engagement bracelet, which the gentleman locks on the wrist of the lady when they are engaged, and keeps the key. Herring were last week a drag in the Chester market, selling from 10 to 40 cents a hundred, some of the fishermen returning their surplus stock to the river. The Philadelphia North American, Radical, demands a Pennsylvania on the ticket with Grant to insure the State in 1874, while only 37,000 votes, which assembles on the 12th inst.
