SERIOUSLY INJURED. - James Chees man, flagman on our freight train, was very seri-man, flagman on our freight train, was very seri-mally injured at Philipsburg, on Monday morning last, while coupling cars. He was cought between the humpers and dragged a considerable distance before he was discovered. By his own request he war brought back to the Leonard House, where he has been bearing and ever attrice, to give he has been boarding, and every attention is given him. The turning of the railroad bridge at Lin-den, on the P. & E. road, is consequence of which the trains on that road are compelled to come up the Valley road to the Central, has enused lively imes along the whole line, and this harry may account for this aerident happening to an expe-ienced and naturally saceful callvoader.
