

CLEARFIELD REPUBLICAN

GOODLANDER & HAGERTY, Publishers. PRINCIPLES; NOT MEN. TERMS—$2 per annum in Advance. VOL. 46—WHOLE NO 2282. CLEARFIELD, PA., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 14, 1872. NEW SERIES—VOL. 13, NO. 32.

Terms of Subscription. Rates of Advertising. Job Work. Cards. G. R. BARRETT, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW.

Cards. GEORGE C. KIRK, Justice of the Peace, Surveyor and Conveyancer, Luthersburg, Pa.

THE REPUBLICAN. WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 15, 1872. HAPPINESS.

Reasons for Supporting Greeley. The N. Y. World, which cannot be accused of yielding to any sudden impulse in favor of Greeley, gives the following sensible reasons for voting for the peace candidate representing ballots over the war candidate who is in favor of ballots.

ALLEN HAS THE FLOOR. One of the Transmissions of Harrison Allen, the Ring Candidate for Auditor General—What became of the "The Daily Bulletin"?

Grant to be Sued. The following letter was written to George L. Watkins, Esq., who resides in Seipio. The writer is no less a personage than ex-Mayor and late Postmaster of the capital of the United States; Sayles J. Bowen.

Letter from General Banks. HE DECLINES FOR GREELEY. BOSTON, August 11.—The rumors of the defection of General Banks from the support of Grant and Wilson are confirmed by the following letter:

Job Work. Cards. T. H. MURRAY, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW.

Cards. DAVID REAMS, SCRIVENER & SURVEYOR, Luthersburg, Pa.

Contested Election Case. County Superintendent of Clearfield County. In the matter of the objections to the issue of a Certificate to George W. Snyder of the County of Clearfield.

Allen has the floor. Two years ago last winter I was interested with Messrs. Henry Fisher, Adair Neyhart, Joshua Pierce, M. G. Cashing, Jas. Porshall, and J. L. Grandin, all of Tidouss, Pa., in a pipe for running oil from the wells on Dennis Run at the river and railroad.

Grant to be Sued. I am compelled to believe and to say that the perpetuation of the present policy of the government is not for the advantage of the country and that it will not tend to establish its former good and prosperity nor to promote the interests of any class of citizens.

Letter from General Banks. No personal feeling of any form or character enters into my judgment in this view of general principles and public interests alone that I am led to this conclusion. The uniting of the masses of the people of all parties, sections and races in support of the grand results of the war is indispensable to the permanent establishment and general recognition of those results.

From the Senate to the Gutter. On Wednesday evening a ragged, filthy, utterly abandoned-looking vagrant, a young man, apparently between 30 and 40 years of age, while grossly intoxicated fell down a cellar, at the corner of Margin and Houston streets, and sustained such severe injuries to his head as compelled his removal to Bellevue Hospital.

Job Work. Cards. WALLACE & FELDING, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Clearfield, Pa.

Cards. J. A. BLATTENBERGER, Claim and Collection Office, OSCEOLA, Clearfield Co., Pa.

Contested Election Case. Mr. Snyder's certificate of election was filed May 21, 1872. On the 23rd of the same month, the following paper was received and filed. It was signed by a majority of the boards of directors of Clearfield Borough, Osceola, Brady, Girard, Bradford, Goshen and Lawrence Independent. It was also signed by three of the directors of Lawrence township district, and by a considerable number of leading citizens and duly sworn to according to law.

Allen has the floor. I returned to Harrisburg again, called on Mr. Allen and told him that the Company had concluded to pay the money. He then said he would not accept any of the two thousand dollars but would tell me where to leave it.

Grant to be Sued. I believe it is now tendered in good faith in the nomination of Mr. Greeley, and for one I cannot reject it. It was what I desired. Its consummation, although sudden and startling, does not alarm me. My duty to myself and my country require me to give him my support. I cannot advocate before your friends a different course, which neither my judgment nor my heart approves.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

Job Work. Cards. A. W. WALTERS, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Clearfield, Pa.

Cards. JOHN D. THOMPSON, Justice of the Peace and Scrivener, CURTISVILLE, Pa.

Contested Election Case. The date of the election was May 21, 1872. On the 23rd of the same month, the following paper was received and filed. It was signed by a majority of the boards of directors of Clearfield Borough, Osceola, Brady, Girard, Bradford, Goshen and Lawrence Independent. It was also signed by three of the directors of Lawrence township district, and by a considerable number of leading citizens and duly sworn to according to law.

Allen has the floor. I returned to Harrisburg again, called on Mr. Allen and told him that the Company had concluded to pay the money. He then said he would not accept any of the two thousand dollars but would tell me where to leave it.

Grant to be Sued. I believe it is now tendered in good faith in the nomination of Mr. Greeley, and for one I cannot reject it. It was what I desired. Its consummation, although sudden and startling, does not alarm me. My duty to myself and my country require me to give him my support.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

Job Work. Cards. H. W. SMITH, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Clearfield, Pa.

Cards. FRANCIS COUTRIET, MERCHANT, Frenchville, Clearfield Co., Pa.

Contested Election Case. The date of the election was May 21, 1872. On the 23rd of the same month, the following paper was received and filed. It was signed by a majority of the boards of directors of Clearfield Borough, Osceola, Brady, Girard, Bradford, Goshen and Lawrence Independent. It was also signed by three of the directors of Lawrence township district, and by a considerable number of leading citizens and duly sworn to according to law.

Allen has the floor. I returned to Harrisburg again, called on Mr. Allen and told him that the Company had concluded to pay the money. He then said he would not accept any of the two thousand dollars but would tell me where to leave it.

Grant to be Sued. I believe it is now tendered in good faith in the nomination of Mr. Greeley, and for one I cannot reject it. It was what I desired. Its consummation, although sudden and startling, does not alarm me. My duty to myself and my country require me to give him my support.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

Job Work. Cards. J. J. LINGLE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Clearfield, Pa.

Cards. CHARLES SCHAFER, LAGER BEER BREWER, Clearfield, Pa.

Contested Election Case. The date of the election was May 21, 1872. On the 23rd of the same month, the following paper was received and filed. It was signed by a majority of the boards of directors of Clearfield Borough, Osceola, Brady, Girard, Bradford, Goshen and Lawrence Independent. It was also signed by three of the directors of Lawrence township district, and by a considerable number of leading citizens and duly sworn to according to law.

Allen has the floor. I returned to Harrisburg again, called on Mr. Allen and told him that the Company had concluded to pay the money. He then said he would not accept any of the two thousand dollars but would tell me where to leave it.

Grant to be Sued. I believe it is now tendered in good faith in the nomination of Mr. Greeley, and for one I cannot reject it. It was what I desired. Its consummation, although sudden and startling, does not alarm me. My duty to myself and my country require me to give him my support.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

Job Work. Cards. WALTER BARRETT, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Clearfield, Pa.

Cards. JAMES CLEARY, BARBER & HAIR DRESSER, Clearfield, Pa.

Contested Election Case. The date of the election was May 21, 1872. On the 23rd of the same month, the following paper was received and filed. It was signed by a majority of the boards of directors of Clearfield Borough, Osceola, Brady, Girard, Bradford, Goshen and Lawrence Independent. It was also signed by three of the directors of Lawrence township district, and by a considerable number of leading citizens and duly sworn to according to law.

Allen has the floor. I returned to Harrisburg again, called on Mr. Allen and told him that the Company had concluded to pay the money. He then said he would not accept any of the two thousand dollars but would tell me where to leave it.

Grant to be Sued. I believe it is now tendered in good faith in the nomination of Mr. Greeley, and for one I cannot reject it. It was what I desired. Its consummation, although sudden and startling, does not alarm me. My duty to myself and my country require me to give him my support.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

Job Work. Cards. JOHN L. CUTLER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Clearfield, Pa.

Cards. G. H. HALL, PRACTICAL PUMP MAKER, NEAR CLEARFIELD, PENN.

Contested Election Case. The date of the election was May 21, 1872. On the 23rd of the same month, the following paper was received and filed. It was signed by a majority of the boards of directors of Clearfield Borough, Osceola, Brady, Girard, Bradford, Goshen and Lawrence Independent. It was also signed by three of the directors of Lawrence township district, and by a considerable number of leading citizens and duly sworn to according to law.

Allen has the floor. I returned to Harrisburg again, called on Mr. Allen and told him that the Company had concluded to pay the money. He then said he would not accept any of the two thousand dollars but would tell me where to leave it.

Grant to be Sued. I believe it is now tendered in good faith in the nomination of Mr. Greeley, and for one I cannot reject it. It was what I desired. Its consummation, although sudden and startling, does not alarm me. My duty to myself and my country require me to give him my support.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

Job Work. Cards. DR. W. A. MEANS, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Luthersburg, Pa.

Cards. H. F. NAUGLE, WATCH MAKER & JEWELER, Clearfield, Pa.

Contested Election Case. The date of the election was May 21, 1872. On the 23rd of the same month, the following paper was received and filed. It was signed by a majority of the boards of directors of Clearfield Borough, Osceola, Brady, Girard, Bradford, Goshen and Lawrence Independent. It was also signed by three of the directors of Lawrence township district, and by a considerable number of leading citizens and duly sworn to according to law.

Allen has the floor. I returned to Harrisburg again, called on Mr. Allen and told him that the Company had concluded to pay the money. He then said he would not accept any of the two thousand dollars but would tell me where to leave it.

Grant to be Sued. I believe it is now tendered in good faith in the nomination of Mr. Greeley, and for one I cannot reject it. It was what I desired. Its consummation, although sudden and startling, does not alarm me. My duty to myself and my country require me to give him my support.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

Job Work. Cards. HOLLOWBUSH & CAREY, BOOKSELLERS, Clearfield, Pa.

Cards. MISS E. A. P. RYNDER, Clearfield, Pa.

Contested Election Case. The date of the election was May 21, 1872. On the 23rd of the same month, the following paper was received and filed. It was signed by a majority of the boards of directors of Clearfield Borough, Osceola, Brady, Girard, Bradford, Goshen and Lawrence Independent. It was also signed by three of the directors of Lawrence township district, and by a considerable number of leading citizens and duly sworn to according to law.

Allen has the floor. I returned to Harrisburg again, called on Mr. Allen and told him that the Company had concluded to pay the money. He then said he would not accept any of the two thousand dollars but would tell me where to leave it.

Grant to be Sued. I believe it is now tendered in good faith in the nomination of Mr. Greeley, and for one I cannot reject it. It was what I desired. Its consummation, although sudden and startling, does not alarm me. My duty to myself and my country require me to give him my support.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.

From the Senate to the Gutter. He is utterly past reformation, and the most charitable thing that can be done with him is to place him somewhere where he cannot obtain the only thing his soul craves—rum. His case, on account of the extraordinary brilliancy of his prospects as a scholar, and his unparalleled degradation now, offers an unusually impressive warning to the thousands who are following in his footsteps.