LITTLE BOYS DROWNED .- The Clinton Democrat says: A sorrowful occurrence took place in Lock Haven last Saturday morning Mrs. Jennie Hurst was visiting Mrs. Hiram My and took with her her little son Channey, (named after his grandfather, Lawyer Channey Lyman.) The little fellow, aged between four and five, went out to play with Harry Myers, about a year his Shortly after they went out Mrs. H. miss d her little boy and went across the way on the ceing any sign of their presence, the opinion pre-railed that they had strayed off to the circus ten and got lost in the crowd. They were hunted for cround town that day and night, and the next morning their little bodies, close together, were und in the river just across from Mrs. Myers' off into the water too deep for them to get out.

Dien.-Near Ansoaville, Clearfield county, obert Liddell, in the fifty-seventh year of his e. Coming to America more than twenty-nine are ago, he settled in Clearfield county, and leath. A man of more than assumption of disposi-tion, his intellect gained for him the respect of all who knew him. It was a well merited respect. He was not only an intelligent, but also a good man. He was honest. He was a firm friend—a good neighbor and citizen—and a christian. lemarkable for his firmness and decision of char-eter, he was yet kind and affectionate. For early twenty years Mr. Liddle has been a Ruling in the Fruit Hill Presbyterian Church His trust was in Jesus. The religion he professe is life. The community in which he lived mourn his loss, and bear a merited testimony to his usted during life, was the foundation of the Heavenly hopes that supported him in death. In an eminent degree, his end was peace.

ociation.—This association has undertaken to current year. A map is to be constructed on the national uniform plan showing the location, deminstion, &c., of every school. Arrangements re also made to furnish any kind of assistance hat may be required by feeble schools. New chools will be organised wherever necessary. Each school will be provided with blanks prepar is earnestly desired that Superintendents will carefully fill out these blanks and promptly forward hem to George W. Rheem, Esq., the County Sabbath School Secretary, at Clearfield.

Menant, of Lafayette College, have already entered upon this work, which is undertaken in the name f Him whose "name is above every name." The officers of the Association cordially com mend these brethren to all christian people in th ounty, whose co-operation will greatly further the objects of their mission.

Mr. Epiron.—I notice by your last paper that he Clinton Democrat, has been making a blow about "the largest raft yet," and credits it to Farwell & Grugans, and it is said to be 325 feet long and 284 feet wide. This raft must have been refused to marry her, and that his mind was a kind of gum-elastic concern, or it could not ering after a married woman, and Sarah have gone through the schute at Lock Haven. Let the editor of the Democrat measure the schute in sight of his office, and he will see where the "largest" will stick. None of your jokes on old raftmen, down there. Either make your raft narrower, or your schules wider! A. RAPTNAN.
