LETTER FROM KNOX. Mr. Editor: No doubt you will be glad to know the political condition of this place and vicinity. I will give it as I find it, though I might not have concerned myself so much only that my attention was drawn to it through the Republican, the organ of Grant and Hartranft.

Address of the Democratic State Committee. Much care and industry has been taken to impress the voters of the State with the belief that an unusual and excessive majority will be given against the Democratic and Liberal Republican State ticket, at the October election.

that many negroes have no fixed place of residence, but are to be found in all parts of the State, and are ignorant and careless about the risk of being detected. Many of them, for a dollar or two, can be manipulated as these having them in charge may choose.

In the counties where the white population predominates, the officers chiefly operated by agreeing to release those guilty of violating the revenue laws and giving permission to others to distill whisky, &c., on condition of voting the Republican ticket. Carrow, the Marshal, also admitted in a published letter, that they had about 3,000 whites under arrest as Ku-Klux prisoners, and many of these men assert that they have been assured that they will be released if they vote the Radical ticket.

In some counties, I am informed that there are in each at least a hundred small distilleries, the owners of which, by paying small sums to the officers, are permitted to go on without prosecution if they vote the Radical ticket.

In addition to these performances, in a number of counties they procured men to run independent candidates for the positions of Sheriff or Member of the Legislature, and thus by having no candidates of their own, made many votes for the State ticket, by swamping with the friends of the contestants.

By these several operations they have probably obtained 8,000 or 10,000 votes (mostly illegal) above their strength. Being paid by the United States Government, and acting in concert under orders, they were able to effect these large results.

In this part of the State they did not effect so much, as early in the contest I assailed them constantly, and they became so odious that their efforts were materially crippled. Their success in most places seems to have depended in a great measure upon their ceaseless observation and denunciation while they were operating.

When it is remembered that in no one of our most exciting elections has there ever been a vote cast coming within 15 per cent. of the entire vote, you will readily see that immense frauds must have been practised in many of these counties. Besides this, there was intimidation of voters. The poor men arrested, though innocent, knew that they would be ruined pecuniarily by being carried hundreds of miles to jail, and others being incarcerated or compelled to bear their expenses and to employ counsel to escape conviction. Hence many voted the Radical ticket or left away from the polls. To this cause in part is to be attributed the fact that in Butlerford, Cleveland, Taylor, &c., nearly 50 per cent. of the votes were cast for the Radical ticket.

We shall feel confident, carry the State easily for Greeley in November. In the first place, while retaining our late strength, we shall have many accessions to our ranks from former Republicans who are with us on the Presidential issue; secondly, our whole effort will be concentrated on a single election; and thirdly, the tactics of demoralization are now generally and easily being carried out.

I thus hurriedly write to you as an old friend, to advise you as to the condition of things in our State. Very sincerely yours, T. L. CLINGMAN, To—New York.

Paragrafts. The California wheat crop is the largest ever produced in the State. A paper advertisement for "girls for cooking." Our devil says "he likes them raw." The most irredeemable bonds yet known in the financial and moral world are vega-bonds. I promised to love, honor and obey; it is the way Philadelphia brides go around the nuptial vows. Mary Clemmer Ames thinks the love of finemoney is the most fruitful source of matrimonial unhappiness. "The gaunt spectre of cholera stalks through the East," says an exchange. This must be cholera infantum. An elderly man said the other day that modern young ladies were not the daughters of Shem and Ham, but the daughters of Hem and Sham! An Ohio lady sent back a book she had ordered, because the leaves were uncut. She thought it was an unfinished copy, and was right. Life is a maddy pasture—full of brambles and briars; or it is a green field fragrant with the breath of fresh flowers, just as each one makes it for himself. A merchant in San Francisco has invented a baby carriage, so formed that when not in use it may be folded up into a space not larger than an ordinary portfolio. A Terre Haute woman's pet puppy swallowed a diamond ring on her finger and kept it until she was killed and dissected for its recovery. Their are six ordained women pastors in the Universalist church in the United States. This is the only church which admits women to ordination. A woman in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, has sent the saloon keeper there a bill of $200, being the amount legally due her for a poisoning inflicted by her husband. A tall, fine looking woman, dressed in male attire, was arrested recently in Michigan as a successful horse-thief. About twenty separate charges have been brought against her. The New York confederator, who a few days ago was making a parrot to say "prety creatures" to every lady who entered his store, is now very rich.
