THE GARDEN

OF UNION TOWNSHIP,

OWNED BY PHILIP O. BLANCHARD, ESQ.

OFFERED AT PRIVATE SALE

This beautifully located farm and desirable home, is situated in the most fertile and best watered portion of Union township, Clearfield country, Pa., with good roads leading to and from it in all directions. It is two and a half miles from the flourishing village of Rockton, and only four miles from the destined city of "Rumbarger," on the line of "Bennett's Branch extension of the Allegheny Valley Railroad," which will be completed and running trains in less than eighteen months. The Farm contains

150 Acres of Land,

er 100 ACRES of which are cleared and

Orchard of 200 Apple Trees

carefully selected and bearing the choicest fruit, planted sight years ago, with a fair promise of yielding at least forty bushels this season. Also, a small GRUHARD OF PLUM, PEAR AND PRACH TREES.

A young and thrifty GRAPERY is set out, in a neat and tasty style. The fences are all in the best condition, being what is known as "stake and bun" fence, built of chestnut rails, 16 feet long, five rails high. The dwelling is a built according to the most modern and improved style of architecture, (lately repainted), and fin-iabed inside and out in the most complete and workmanilke manner. The cellar is eight feet in the clear, dressed stone walls, two feet thick, and commented floor. Attached to the dwelling is a building, 50 feet long, containing Wash Room, Bath Room and Water Tank, Wood House, Sta-Bath Room and Water Tank, Wood, House, Sta-ble for three horses and Carriage, all under one roof and as good as new. Near by is an Ice House, 2 Corn Cribs, a Pig Sty and Hen Coop. A Stream of pure cold water flows into the Wash Room, and is forced from there by a stone pump-into the kitchen. Conveniently near the dwelling is a handsome and unique office, 15x18 feet, fla-libred and painted in complete style.

Two-story Plank House

ALSO, A FARM BARN is erected at a proper distance from the dwelling, with a cellur under the entire building, enclosed by a stone wall two feet thek. This building, 22216 feet, is furnished in that style of neatness and durability characteristic of the owner. There is also A TENANT HOUSE on the farm, 18x24 feet, two stories high, with a small "L" attached, and a small stable belonging thereto. The House is plastered and nainted and precents a neat and counfertable appearace, having a 21 foot well, with a stone pump and plenty of water at the door. Also a small orofard, belonging to the Tenant House, with twenty or more choice fruit trees. There are no less than thirteen Springs of good water on the farm.

Adjoining this place is a tract of land containing 150,000,000 Feet of Lumber.

fore ready market for all produce raised on the farm.

Maney has been laviably expended in beautifying the "Grass Plat" around the dwelling. The "Lawn" is tastefully and artistically adorned with occumental trees, excepteen shrubbery and the choicest flowers. The dwelling is protected from the rays of the sun by a rew of shada trees, whose intrivining branches east a cool and refreshing shade all around it, making it a pleasant and inviting retreat, such as one rarely fluid even in the environs of a city. A carrest representation or tiew of the realisance can be seen as the northwest corner of the map of Clearfield county. Three is always a person on the farm, who will show any one over the premises who desires to purchase, and give them any information in regard to the farm they may desire.
