A Checquered Life.

This is the history of Ann Ferret, who has sat knitting in the Courtmouse at Syracuse, N. Y., for several arms of the circuit Court. Seventy

WE are now opening up a lot of the best and most seasonable Goods and Wares ever offered in this market, and at prices that remind one of the good old days of charp things. Those who lack faith upon this point, or deem our allegations superfluous, need but who has sat knitting in the Courthouse at Syracuse, N. Y., for several terms of the circuit Court. Seventy | white years ago she was born at Perth, in Scotland. When she was fifteen years old she married a servant in her father's bouse, and her parents discarded her. Her husband abused and abandened her, and then she became housekeeper to the Archbishop of through Europe as maid to the widow of Sir John Moore. She saved money, married (her former husband being dead) and came to this country thirty years ago, bringing with her $5,000 in gold. Her husband was a drunkard, squandered all her money, and then died. She worked hard, saved money and built a little cottage with her own hands at Syracuse, where she lived with her little son, the child of her second husband. After a while she married again, but her life was made unhappy by some meddling women, who caused trouble between man and wife; part of her property was sold now back in our old quarters, which have been on an execution against her husband, would live no longer with him but salling. went to work in her old way and soon had several thousand dollars invested in real estate. Her son was tenderly of all kinds of Merchandice over brought to Clearattached to her, and when one day seld county, which we intend to sell at such fig. not long ago a man insulted her he knocked him down, and an action for assault was brought against him .-She was told that it was very uncer fail to give us a call, as we feel confident our and so went every day to the court- satisfy all. IMPORTANT TRUTHS IMPORTANT TRUTHS:
Having succeeded in getting a lighter tariff on material, hence the low and stodework charge for partial and full sets of Teeth. I use the best manufacture of teeth and other material. All operations registered and warranted to give service and satisfaction.

Frieuds, reflect that my charges for the insertion of artificial and the saving of the material.

tion of artificial and the saving of the natura-teeth are now the most reasonable in Proserys pour teeth and you preserve your teeth and you preserve your health. Patting of the natural teeth in a healthy, pre-servative and useful condition is made a specialty Diseases and usafformations common to the mouth law and associate parts, are treated and corrected with fair success. Examinations and consulta-tions are:

with fair success. Examinations and consultations right.

It would be well for patients from a distance to let me know by mail a few days before coming to the office.

It is very important that children between the ages of six and twelve years should have their tecth examined.

Amesthetics are administered and Teeth removed without pain

Disportions and character are judged by all the world by the expressions of the face, hence how very disastrous may it therefore be for persons to indulge an expression of distorted features, even apart from a hygienic view. Now, to enjoy instruct (not artificial) comforts and pleasures, respect and obey natural simplicities and instinct.
