

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

CLEARFIELD, PA. WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 16, 1872.

Democratic National Ticket. FOR PRESIDENT, HON. HORACE GREELEY, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, B. GRATZ BROWN, OF MISSOURI.

- ELECTORS. SENATORIAL. GEORGE COWAN, of Westmoreland. ROBERT MARION, of Erie. JOHN S. MILLER, of Huntingdon. S. GROSS FRIZ, of Philadelphia.

No Difference.—A party at our elbow feels indignant over the fact that the Radical Chairman went about town soliciting contributions from Democrats...

Attention.—We have been requested to state that the display column in last week's Journal was not intended for a circus advertisement...

D—D IMPUDENCE.—That corruptist of all living men, Simon Cameron, has just done what Yerkes did the day after Geary and Swoope got him out of the penitentiary...

Two Apostles.—Two votes were polled in Burnside township at the late election, for Simon B. Chase, the Temperance candidate for Governor. These two seem to have been the only real temperance men in the county at the time...

Outlawry.—The Radical "mass" entitled a jubilee in this borough on Friday night, was an outrage upon decency and a disgrace to the county, in a moral point of view, however creditable it may have been individually to the participants...

OUR MAJORITY.—The majority of one thousand four hundred and thirty-seven (1,437) for Charles R. Buckalew, speaks well for the moral and political integrity of Clearfield county. This is a little more than we claimed, and the largest ever given by our county...

Happy Fellow.—The success of the Penitentiary ticket turned the Journal into a pictorial last week, highly embellished with birds and beasts of prey.

RATHER DEER.—Twenty-five dollars was the price paid for votes by the Camerons in Lewisburg on election day. In Dauphin and Lebanon they paid only five dollars per capita.

The State Election. The battle has been fought and lost, and to-day Pennsylvania has for Governor elect a man whose character for honesty and integrity has no other endorsement than that of a penitentiary convict and a partner in the criminal use of the State funds.

We confess that we have been disappointed in the result. We had hoped for the overthrow of the Cameron dynasty, and the destruction of the Harrisburg ring of Treasury thieves...

We feel proud over the moral and political sentiments of Clearfield county, as expressed through the ballot box on the 8th by the unprecedented majority of 1,437, but we are humiliated and disgraced by the general result.

Our Tabular Statement. For a detailed statement of the vote of the county we refer our readers to the tabular statement elsewhere.

In the vote for Delegates at Large to the Constitutional Convention we only publish the vote cast for Judge Black and Mr. Meredith, who headed the ticket of their respective parties.

Our gains in Clearfield, Carwensville, Guilch, Kartaus and Pike are particularly gratifying, because it comes from Republicans who were too conscientious to vote for men who should be in the penitentiary instead of aspiring to be Governor and Auditor General.

The Four Jacks. The Grant party of Pennsylvania holds a strong hand. Hartrant, Allen, Yerkes and Marner. These men have for years gambled with the public money in the State and in the City Treasury of Philadelphia.

OUR MAJORITY.—The majority of one thousand four hundred and thirty-seven (1,437) for Charles R. Buckalew, speaks well for the moral and political integrity of Clearfield county.

HAPPY FELLOW.—The success of the Penitentiary ticket turned the Journal into a pictorial last week, highly embellished with birds and beasts of prey.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF CLEARFIELD COUNTY, OCTOBER 8, 1872.

Table with columns for DISTRICTS, GOVERNOR 1872, AUDITOR GENERAL, etc., listing candidates and vote counts.

The Aggregate Vote. We like to dwell upon and investigate our domestic prosperity. What other country may do, Clearfield has an abiding progressive faith in the doctrine of the "old Union Saver."

The Monstrous Doctrine. Last week at the Radical Republican meeting, where Mr. Taylor, Radical candidate for Congress and a certain old name of Pittsburgh, gave vent to the doctrine held by his party...

Administrators' Notice.—The undersigned auditor, appointed to distribute the balance due to the holders of George W. McCarty, administrator, of John L. McCarty, late of Burnside township, Clearfield county, deceased...

Dissolution of Partnership.—The partnership heretofore existing between Barrett and Edinger, in Clearfield county, Pa., in the Trade and Hardware business, was dissolved by mutual consent...

Administrators' Notice.—In pursuance of an order of the Orphans' Court of Clearfield county, Pa., the undersigned administrator of the estate of Wm. Lumbeck, deceased, will sell at public sale...

Public Sale.—The undersigned will sell at Public Sale, at his residence in Morris township, at 10 o'clock, a. m., on Saturday, November 9, 1872...

Democrat Delaware.—The late vote for local officers in Delaware shows the Democratic party is still in the ascendant in that steady and gallant little State.

The Thieves Endowed.—The Lancaster Intelligencer says: "The late struggle with the rings that can ever be made at the ballot-box, has resulted in disaster to the people."

Ohio and Indiana.—These two States acted nobly on the 8th. The Democrats and Liberals carried the latter State by a small majority, and made heavy gains in the former.
