OFFICIAL ELECTION RETURNS.—Below will be found the official vote for President and Governor for 1872. It will be observed that the Democratic vote is about 34 per cent short in Clearfield, being 1,122, and that for Hancock, while the Republicans lost only 250 votes on Hancock.

Table with columns for DISTRICTS, HANCOCK, and CLEARFIELD. Lists names and vote counts for various candidates.

Patrol Accident.—The following we take from the Salineville (Ohio) Index: A patrol accident occurred last Wednesday evening, which resulted in the death of Mr. Alexander H. Dunlap.

THE HOUSE DISORDER.—The horse episode, which has prevailed throughout the east for several weeks, has reached the central and northern portions of the State, and it is estimated that a number of horses are suffering in this borough, although none have died.

THE WARD HOUSE.—The Alhona No. 5 of the city: On next Monday week this celebrated hotel will be attached to the new Philadelphia and Pittsburgh—falls into the hands of our excellent friend George N. Colburn, at Clearfield, who has leased the same for five years.

IRON DEVELOPMENTS.—Pittsburgh has been laboring with a great excitement for some time, caused by the discovery of large iron deposits along Mahoning creek. The Atlas says: "There is great excitement among the people of this region, caused by the discovery of large deposits of iron ore in this neighborhood."

LICENSE OR NO LICENSE.—The Legislature of Pennsylvania passed an act last winter providing that once every three years the citizens of the various counties should be asked to vote upon the question of license or no license.

MUTILATED CURRENCY.—A fringed currency is a disgrace to the State and the credit of commerce. The government should grant liberal facilities to the people for the exchange of torn or otherwise mutilated bills for new ones.

SHOT HIMSELF.—On Monday afternoon last, a young man named David Lindsey, of this borough, while out hunting in the Big Valley, accidentally shot himself in the following manner: He had placed a trap on the table of a house, pulled the cock back, and was pointing the muzzle of the gun at his own head.

RECONSTRUCTED.—The new State Hospital for the insane, at Danville, has been completed and is now ready for the reception of patients. The northern District, for which this hospital is established, is made up of the following counties: Monroe, Carbon, Pike, Wayne, Susquehanna, Wyoming, Luzerne, Columbia, Montour, Sullivan, Bradford, Lycoming, Tioga, Clinton, Centre, Clearfield, Elk, Cameron, McKean and Potter.

POCKET PICKED.—The Alhona Tribune of the 7th says: As Hainesville, on Thursday last, a lady got on board of a stage for the purpose of visiting the city. She was accompanied thus far by a gentleman acquaintance who was on his way East, and upon their arrival at Alhona, as the lady was about to leave the stage, her friend stooped down and picked up a handkerchief which had fallen from her pocket.

SIX YEARS AND SIX MONTHS.—John Edinger, who shot and killed Wm. Wingate, at Tyrone, on last Fourth of July, was placed on trial at Hollidaysburg, on the 11th inst., and found guilty of murder in the second degree. Judge Hays sentenced him to six years and six months, being the term of murder which is required by the statute, according to the sentence.
