J. A. Lukens, of Philipsburg, who was found guilty of muder in the second degree at Bellefonte, last August, for the killing of Richard Atherton, was granted a new trial last week.

Our Centre county contemporaries are highly pleased with Judge Bucher, of the Union district, who last week presided at Bellefonte. Judge Bucher is one of the youngest Judges on the bench, as well as one of the best in the State, and we hope he may live to a green old age.

The Philipsburg Journal in alluding to the munificent contribution of Judge Leonard, toward the erection of our High School building, says: "We think that the public spirit of Judge Leonard has been manifested in a manner that places more than one generation under obligations to him. Would that there were more Judge Leonards."

SAD ACCIDENT.—We regret that we are compelled to chronicle the fact that our esteemed friend, J. A. L. Flegal, of Goshen township, had one of his legs broken in two places, on Thursday last, while attempting to turn a stick of timber. We understand that he is as comfortable as can be expected under the circumstances. John is one of our best farmers and active business men, and it will go hard with him to be "cooped up," as he necessarily must be for some time.

ARISTOCRATIC.—Our Indiana county neghbors built a new Court House a few years ago, and we notice by the Auditors' report that the job has entailed a "blessing" (as Lincoln termed it) upon them in the shape of a debt amounting to the sum of $189,950. By the time this debt and the interest thereon is paid, Indiana will have rather an expensive Court House. But then, they are very "loyal" and proud over there, and should pay for their whistle.

It is said that up in Clearfield county lovers of "Old Bourbon" are stealing whisky barrels, to split up into small pieces and chew, as you would licorice root. A well soaked stave is equal to two drinks, and a bung hole affords sustenance for weeks.—Williamsport Bulletin.

Yes, but we have more orders for staves and bung holes from Williamsport than we have for saw logs, which the editor in question knows are not a few. About the "sustenance" we know nothing, never having chewed anything of the kind, but we have no doubt the editors of the Bulletin have learned by experience whereof they speak. Inquirers after this new article of commerce are referred to Williamsporters for further information.

FIRE BRICK.—This very important branch of business will shortly be a leading feature in the trade of our county, and promises to be far more profitable and not half so hazardous as the timber business. On our first page will be found a detailed statement relating to the Fire Brick works at Woodland, five miles east of this place, for which we are indebted to the Philipsburg Journal. The material interests of our county are being slowly but surely developed. Work has been commenced this week by the Clearfield Fire Brick Company, and the buildings will be pushed with vigor, so that the manufacture of brick will commence at an early day. Some feeble minded persons fear that the market will soon be overstocked with brick of this kind. That will occur about the time the Susquehanna overstocks the Chesapeake bay with water.

RUNAWAY.—On Saturday last while Mr. Charles Shaffer's team was standing at the depot, the horses took fright and ran out Reed street to Second, up that to Market, down that, on the pavement, until the sled caught on the posts of the wooden awning erected in front of Kratzer & Lytle's store, which knocked the awning down upon the horses and sled. But the horses succeeded in getting out from under the roof, which fell upon the sled, and with what was already on made the load so heavy that the horses could not move it, and a number of persons ran up and caught the horses by the bridles. Accidentally, nobody received any injury, and the horses and sled also escaped, and the tearing away of the old shed improves the appearance of things about the store. Charley has a fast team, and they need watching, or somebody will get hurt.

WM. K. WRIGLEY, ESQ.—A telegram received at the station at 10 o'clock on Friday last, and which announced the sudden death of our fellow townsman, shocked everybody. He was killed on his log job, near Three Runs, on the Centre county side, the previous evening. It appears that he and his partner, Mr. Holt, had gone down to the foot of the slide in the evening to see if all was right, and on their way up they loosened a log, which switched out and threw Mr. Wrigley down, and while in this position another log came down and jumped the slide, striking him in the face, crushing his head and causing instant death. His body was brought home and followed by a large concourse of our citizens to its last resting place in Bradford church yard, on Sunday last. Mr. Wrigley filled the office of County Treasurer in 1868–69, and was one of the most faithful officers the county ever had and one of its most exemplary citizens. He leaves a wife and seven children, the youngest about 13 years of age. Less than two weeks ago he followed his aged mother to the tomb. Now he is with her. His age was 57 years and 14 days.

ESCAPE OF PRISONERS.—On Sunday morning, as Sheriff Overhiser opened the door leading into the main corridor of the jail, for the purpose of giving the prisoners their breakfast, three of them, Alexander Hamilton, confined for larceny, Isaac Britton, charged with forgery, and Jack Doyle, charged with larceny, threw snuff and tobacco in his eyes, and then rushed out and succeeded in escaping from the jail. The Sheriff, although nearly blind, immediately gave the alarm and attempted to follow and capture the runaways. Mr. A. L. Pepper succeeded in capturing Isaac Britton, and Hamilton was soon after found hid under Narbey's blacksmith shop, corner Broad and Fifth streets. Doyle has not yet been captured.—Cameron Herald.

THE MASONIC HOME.—The annual meeting of the stockholders and Board of Management of the Masonic Home of Pennsylvania was held at Pittsburgh, February 5th, 1873, at which the following named brethren were elected as a Board of Management for the ensuing year: Dr. J. Roberts, Philadelphia; James Goodlander, Williamsport; James M. Porter, Easton; Robert A. Lamberton, Harrisburg; J. H. Simons, Franklin; H. Stanley Goodwin, Bethlehem; John Gibson, York; M. Richard Muckle, Philadelphia; Fred. Lauer, Reading; E. Kinsberry, Scranton. After which the following officers were elected:

President—James H. Hopkins, Pittsburgh.
Treasurer—Robert Klotz, Mauch Chunk.
Secretary—M. M. Meredith, Brookville.

After the business of the meeting was transacted, it adjourned to meet in Meadville on the second Thursday in in May.

THE END NOT YET.—We made a trip up the Moshannon Branch, on Monday, just to see how things looked up that way. Save the sickly appearance of one or two cars loaded with coal standing on the Moshannon Colliery's siding, there was no show of business more than there was on the sixteenth day of November last, the day after this fatal strike commenced. We saw knots of men standing at every siding, whom we knew to be miners, and who we knew had not struck a lick for nearly three months, many of them our acquaintances; and on the train were also acquaintances of ours, representatives of the different works along the road. We endeavored to interview both sides, that we might, in this issue, be enabled to give some word of encouragement to those who are weekly looking for us to do so; but at this writing we must confess it looks as far off as it did the day it commenced, and unless there is something secret at work that cannot or will not be made known, it is so. We are now rapidly approaching the end of the third month; and as ninety five thousand dollars is the amount which was monthly paid out here, in the coal business alone, two hundred and eighty five thousand dollars will be what we will have lost from this region, and which of us can say we have not felt it, or that it has not reduced—for the time being, at least—the valuation of our properties. We said that we interviewed parties on both sides, and we are now convinced that the evasions of either party, to our even roundabout questions to this all absorbing topic, would have done credit to the leaders of the "Know-Nothing" party in the days of its brightest prosperity, and were met about as follows: "Don't know." "Can't say." "Haven't heard anything." "That may be." "I hope so."—Osceola Reveille.

A CORRECTION WANTED.—

ROCKTON, February 1, 1873.

MR. EDITOR: I see a great mistake in the publication of the proceedings of the convention of School Directors in your last number. In speaking of the different subjects acted upon, the reporter says the proposition to allow institute time to teachers was voted down in both cases. This so far is correct. But then he says, "Col. Irwin made a motion, which was adopted, that teachers be bound in the articles to attend the institutes and that a sufficient amount over and above their salaries be allowed them for that purpose, they to make up whatever time they may lose in said attendance." The Col. never made such a motion, and reason will teach you that when the pay for institutes was voted down, the amount over and above their salaries would again have been voted down. Please make correction and oblige

MANY DIRECTORS.

We were not present at the meeting indicated and published the proceedings as reported. If there is anything wrong, we are not the author, nor can we make the correction. That somebody is mistaken is plain, but whether anybody will suffer is not so visible. However, it is always better to be right.

SINGULAR FATALITY.—Elsewhere we chronicle the sudden death of Ex-Treasurer Wrigley; a week ago Ex-Treasurer Flegal fell and put his shoulder out of joint, from which he is suffering great pain, but is improving. On Saturday a week Treasurer Wilson took a chill, which threatened serious results, but medical aid being promptly at hand and he possessing a vigorous constitution, he rallied after several days and is again able to be about.

BRADY INSTITUTE.—

MR. EDITOR: Please publish the following proceedings of the Brady Township Teachers' Institute: On Saturday, February 8th, 1873, Institute convened at Schindele school house, and was called to order by W. F. Shannon, President. The roll was then called and twelve teachers responded. An address of welcome was then delivered by Mr. A. K. Luther. Response by S. F. Brockbank. The newly elect officers then entered upon their duties, when Mr. W. S. Luther delivered an inaugural address. Next was called the regular programme. Class drills was then conducted as follows: 1st. Derivation of words, by J. S. Seyler. During this class drill Superintendent J. A. Gregory advanced some very good ideas on Derivation. 2nd. Mental Arithmetic, by S. T. Brockbank. 3d. Penmanship, by J. C. Wilson. 4th. Primary Mental Arithmetic, by H. M. Seyler. 5th. History, by J. K. Seyler. 6th. Reading Class, by M. A. Kirk. Institute then adjourned for dinner.

In the afternoon Class Drills were conducted. 1st. Geography, by C. S. Luther. 2nd. Alligation Alternate, by E. C. Hays. 3d. False Syntax, by J. W. Corp. 4th. Philosophy, by W. S. Luther. 5th. Physical Geography, by E. Wilson. 6th. Evolution, by W. F. Shannon. A vote of thanks was tendered to Superintendent Gregory for his services at the Institute and during his visit in the township. Institute then adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock.

Evening Session. 1st. Drill on Globe, by E. G. Hays. 2nd. Essay, by J. B. Johnson. The Orchestra then entertained the Institute with music. Next, Essay, by W. S. Luther. Professor P. S. Weber then delivered a lecture on Physiology and Education. His lecture was a good production and was listened to attentively. Then Mr. J. B. Johnson and E. G. Hays read some very good selections from the Garland Speaker. The exercises of the day sessions was accompanied with music by the Glee Club, and the evening session by the Troutville Orchestra and Glee Club. Votes of thanks was tendered to all who helped make the Institute a success. Institute then adjourned.

If Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is half as valuable as people say it is, no family should be without it. Certainly no person, be he lawyer, doctor, minister, or of any other profession, should start on a journey without it. No sailor, fisherman or woodsman should be without it. In fact, it is needed wherever there is an ache, sprain, cut, bruise, cough or cold.

Farmers and "horsemen" are continually inquiring what we know of the utility of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders, and in reply we say that we have heard from hundreds who have used them with gratifying results, which appears to be the general experience.

COUGHS AND COLDS.

There are few persons who are aware of the importance of attending to a cough or a cold at its first appearance. The thousand who die annually of consumption, were first attacked with a "slight" cough or cold, which they thought would soon "wear" itself off, and therefore neglected to use the proper remedies until they became incurable.

Every day that a cough, cold, or any lung disease is neglected, makes the chances of a cure more uncertain. We would recommend all suffering from any disease of the Lungs whatever, to use HASSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR. It never fails in curing the worst cases of coughs, colds, hoarseness, sore throat, catarrh and asthma. It is an infallible remedy for Whooping Cough; being prescribed by some of the leading physicians in the Northern and Southern States, and being prepared under the immediate supervision of a graduate of the Pennsylvania Medical College.—The proprietors beg leave to inform all that it is no "Quack" preparation, but made strictly in accordance with the advanced principles and theory of medicine. Price 50 cents per bottle.

A Notorious Fact!

THERE are more people troubled with Lung Diseases in this town than any other place of its size in the State. One of the great causes of this is, the use of an impure article of Coal, largely mixed with sulphur. Now, why not avoid all this, and preserve your lives, by using only Humphrey's Celebrated Coal, free from all impurities. Orders left at the stores of Richard Mossop and James B. Graham & Sons will receive prompt attention.
