GEORGE O. BOAL .- The Elecutionary by this young gentleman would have done credit to one of more assuming proportions. His rucitation of "The Rayen" was particularly well renaated in the roof about 10 o'clock in the mornpletures.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Lovi Reynolds, of Rush township, white assisting in driving logs down Cold Stream for Mr. C. Munson, on Thursday, was standing men a rock in the efream when day, was standing upon a rock in the stream when a jam of logs above him broke and he was struck by a log, knocked into the water and held there by the first log until thirty or forty had passed ever him. The men hastened to his relief with eant hoeks, one hand only being above water to tadicate his position. He was speedily extricated and sayed from drowning, but sustained serious ajory from being struck with the log that carried peburg Jonenal.

PAIR AT LAST .- We learn that Wm. Ogden, residing at Bigler station, received a letter through the post office, containing $15, stating that that sum belonged to him; the writer stating that he found a letter in 1862 containing $10, but did est know until quite recently where to address him. There is no name to the letter nor any marks to show where it came from: Mr. Ogden was a member of the 5th regiment during the war, and in 1862 mailed a $10 greenback to his mother a this place which never came to hand, and was given up for lost. It is evident that somebody's ment—consisting of goods suitable for Spring free lence has been troubled for over ten years, to the tase of $5. This is still $1 short of legal in low that no person need be in want. Give them brest. The comittance is therefore a little short, a call and eccure a bargain. They have anything given up for lost. It is evident that somebody's when conscientionally slewed.
