

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER

CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 30, 1873.

"Twelve Years Adrift," on our first page, is an article everybody should read and study.

RECOGNITION—Gov. Hartranft has appointed Reuben Smith, a negro, Notary for Franklin.

JAIL DELIVERY.—Saved persons made their escape from the Washington, Pa., prison one night last week.

The Philadelphia Inquirer thinks Gov. Hartranft is a very wise selection in appointing Montgomery Forster as Insurance Commissioner.

How singular.—The thin skinned philanthropist throughout the country are wonderfully exercised over the death of a number of negroes in Louisiana, caused by the infamous course of the Washington Government family.

Promoted.—We have merely time to announce the fact that Senator Wallace has been elected Vice President of the Texas and Pacific Railway.

DIRTY WORK.—The Legislature passed a bill allowing the Governor to send three Commissioners to the World's Fair, at Vienna, at a salary of $2,000.

Progressive People.—We presume that in view of the fact that the next Blair county jury has four national "wards" on it, the Commissioners have had all the chairs in the jury box cushioned.

J. National Disgrace.—The Devil seems to have full control over the great majority of our public men.

THE NATURAL BRIDGE.—It is feared that the Natural Bridge in Virginia will be destroyed.

IRREVERSIBLE CONFLICTS.—The postmaster of New Orleans is a delinquent to the amount of $34,000.

The President Paying his Debts.

The New York Tribune comments as follows upon some of the President's appointments. The strictures are as just as they are severe.

Revenge is sweet to the deeply wronged, but is never justified, and very seldom palliated even by human law, and positively condemned by divine law.

Terrible Storm in Nebraska.—LINCOLN, Neb., April 21.—The first train for a week on the Burlington & Missouri River Railroad came in this morning.

STILL IN THE WOOD-PILE.—The irrepressible darkey is always on hand when there is a social or political "mass."

LET. COL. GRANT.—This is a new thing in military circles. It is a dead, who was kicked out of West Point by his father.

STUDEN RICHES.—Senator Stewart is one of the many examples of sudden wealth acquired while in Congress.

OUTSTRIPPING THE ROTHSCHILDS.—The Buffalo Courier says that Orvil L. Grant, the President's brother, drives a thriving business on the strength of his fraternal relation.

According to a Harrisburg correspondent, it is pretty well settled that Robert W. Mackey is to be the Republican nominee for State Treasurer.

New Military Bill.

The late Legislature passed a new military bill. The bill provides for the creation of two hundred companies of volunteers of from forty to fifty officers and men.

Our military system, it must be confessed, is in a wretched condition, and it has been brought to this condition by Radical politicians.

Postal Cards.—The object of the Postal Cards is to facilitate letter correspondence and to reduce the cost of postage.

Truths from the Right Source.—General Farnsworth, from the third Congressional district of Illinois, has appropriated his share of back pay in his district.

STATE THIEVES.—While the Legislature of South Carolina was in session, a man who could read and write—

ESCAPE OF A MURDERER AND A NUMBER OF OTHER CONVICTS.—The jail at Washington, Pa., was opened by force on Saturday night, April 19th.

THE ONIONS WHITE.—"No white man for office," is the motto of the negro lodges of Know Nothings now forming in the South.

Leading has struck a flowing well that runs 75,000 gallons of water a day.

Postal Cards.

The Third Assistant Postmaster General, Mr. E. W. Barber, has given notice that, the necessary appropriation having been made for the purpose, the Department will, on the first of May next, commence the issue of postal cards.

The card adopted is five and one-eighth inches in length and three inches in width, and is made of good stock paper, watermarked with the initials U. S. P. O. D. in monogram.

Postal cards will be sold for one cent each, neither more nor less, whether in large quantities or in small.

Among the last bills passed by the Legislature was one making the State Treasurer elective by the people.

Coupon News.

Joseph Murard, of Reading, one of the County Commissioners of Berks county, died on Tuesday last at his city.

The Warren Ledger says: "Radical editors have spontaneously every day and wear finery." For which they have to thank the deal of dirty linen for the administration.

A Buffalo girl, pretty and eighteen, has sold over five hundred sewing machines in the last two years.

PERSONAL.—U. S. Senator Fenelon of N. Y. passed through Emporium on the 16th on his way to Warren, Pa.

GRANT'S SPRING AND SUMMER EXCURSIONS are the themes which now engage the attention of the Democratic party.

THE SUMMER TERM of eleven weeks, will commence Monday, April 15, 1873.
