

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER SPITUR AND PROPRIETO CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 21, 1873.

Starkweather, Radical, was re-elect-Mayor of Williamsport last week by 130 majority over Reighard, the Dem ocratic candidate. The average Radical majority was 850.

Senator Sumner was divorced from his wife by a Boston court last week. She eloped with a German Prince who was hanging around Washington three years ago. The ground of divorce was adultery and desertion.

"The Government" got back to Washington, on Saturday a week, after a month's pilgrimage through the West. About a thousand patriots had gathered at the National Capitol during the President's absence, looking for an office. As the Modoc and Louisiana affairs may have attracted Gen. Grant's attention, be may overlook the claims of the "bread and butter brigade" for several weeks longer.
