James Vick, the celebrated Rochester, and confusion. The time was who ness. He says:

We have sometimes thought, and perhaps uncharitably, that if the Post-office Department would give some of the time now devoted to making uncertainty or the time of the becessary rulings to obtaining honest subordinates, our losses by robberies in the mails would be much reduced. If this judgment seems barsh, our apology is the annoyance and vexation caused by having over three thousand distributions of the administration, and money letters and packages stolen from as in passing through the mails every year. The money loss we could bear with comparative patience, but the annoyance and delay to our cos-tomers, especially at planting time, is something we cannot endure with becoming equanimity. From January let to May 28th, '78, we have had statements of 1,829 letters sent us by customers, containing $2,522.47, which we never received. In the same time we sent 409 packages of seeds by mail, valued at 8063 70, which did not reach their destination. We have not only to endure this loss of money and seeds, but our customers have to suffer by delay. In the same time 230 post-

A Fluby Affair.

During the sitting of the late Preabyterian (Northern) General Assembly, at Baltimore, that body was much exercised over the question of calling on the President of the United State.

In fact they made it a subject of anxious and serious deliberation. The great point debated was where to allow with them to be always at home. In the days of former Presidents, the rule was with them to be always at home, occupied with the cares of state and attending to the advants of fine and the rule for him to be constantly dead-heading it about the country; one day at Denver, another at St. Louis, again at New York, and now at Long Branch, leaving him the contests attending the Agricultural Exhibitions in Wost Chester.

Hon. J. K. Luttrell, congressman elect from the Third California distriet, writes to Commissioner Smith. of the Indian bureau, an account of his recent visit to the scene of the Modoc war, and says he has been able to arrive at only one conclusion in reference to it, namely, that it was caused by wrongful acts of bad white men. He was informed, on what seemed to him reliable authority, that the Mo-does were compelled to slaughter their horses for food on the Klamath reservation, and having exhausted their means of subsistence were then compelled by hunger to seek the fishing and hunting grounds in their old reservation on Lost river. Mr. Luttrell urges an investigation into the to say that never was there a time since the organization of the government that there was so much corruption and swindling, not only to the government and people, but to the Indians, as is to-day being practiced in the Indian reservation on the Pacific

It was scarcely necessary for Mr. Luttrell to write this addendum. It is scarcely reasonable to expect Indian agents to be honest when the highest offices of the government are recking with corruption, and sending forth fetid smells from innumerable jobbing transactions. If an honest one could be found our department at Vienna could be easily completed.
