To Exchanges.-We have prepaid ic our exchanges, until the 1st of January next, and our postmaster has so informed the postmaster at each office to which it is sent. Therefore, none of our brethren need pay postage on our paper, and we here they will reciprocate. Over two-thirds of the exchanges we receive come to us unprepaid, or, if paid, no much evidence has been Turnished our postmaster, as the Postoffice Inventorable of the Charles Horton, Esq., at his home in Morth Base on Horton, and some two of three business. Mr. Horton was a prominent Democrat, and was our nominee for Assembly to local optionists last week and bound evidence has been Turnished our postmaster, as the Postoffice by the local optionists last week and bound ever to court.

The Lowistown hotelists were raided by the local optionists last week and bound ever to court.
