Democratic State Ticket. SUPREME JUDGE, JAMES R. LUDLOW, Philadelphia.

Democratic County Ticket. ASSEMBLY, DR. T. J. BOYER, of Clearfield.

SHERRIFF, W. ROSS McPHERSON, of Clearfield.

COMMISSIONER, CLARK BROWN, of Lawrence.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY, FRANK FIELDING, of Clearfield.

AUDITOR, LEWIS C. BLOOM, of Lawrence.

JURY COMMISSIONER, JOHN W. SHUGART, of Clearfield.

CORONER, GEORGE THORN, of Clearfield.

'The Government' is in the White House again.

BACK AGAIN—'The Government' family and all its trappings left Long Branch for Washington, last Friday.

Clark Brown is an honest, upright, thrifty farmer, and will, of course, make a good County Commissioner.

By the election of Wm. W. Worrall, as County Treasurer, the people will have an accomplished accountant and an affable, upright officer.

The political communists are still spending, and the country is becoming more prosperous, no doubt, according to Radical economists.

It looks now as though the Constitutional Convention would increase our members of the Assembly to 200 members.

James T. Brady & Co., a second, rate Pittsburgh banking concern, has followed Jay Cooke & Co. into prosperity, by suspending.

RADS WILL DIFFER, TOO.—The refined Massachusetts Radicals in their State Convention refused to endorse Gen. Grant, but our Clearfield Rads on Wednesday night glorified him to the highest point.

THE NEW FIRM.—The New Washington and Curwensville ring have entered into a co-partnership for the purpose of raising and electing honest men to office. How we applaud them. The twain have taken a Savage subject to begin with.

Rev. Edwin W. Hutter, a leading clergyman of the Lutheran denomination, died in Philadelphia on the 21st. He was an active politician in his younger days, but had dedicated himself to the ministry since 1850. He was 60 years of age.

Democrats, by voting for our county ticket, from Dr. Boyer down to George Thorn, you will be voting for gentlemen who would never be bolted, had they been bolted at the primary election. Because their word is just as good as their note.

A TRUE TEST.—Reader, when ever you hear a politician canvassing the religious views or opinions of his rival instead of his integrity, ability or moral fitness, set that man down for a fool or a knave. There can be no doubt on this point. This test is as true as the needle is to the pole.

No one of our nominees is better qualified for his position than Mr. Fielding. He is an able lawyer and will, of course, make a number one District Attorney. The reforming Modocs have such an abiding faith in his integrity, that they adopted him without any hesitation.

Another defaulting Revenue Collector, or a bank suspension are stereotyped news items of the day. Still, they say the country was never so prosperous. Well, then, we suppose defaulting will become more frequent and the country still more prosperous. Go ahead.

Patton, Murray, Fulford and McNally all gave glowing descriptions, on Wednesday night last, at the Modoc marriage, of the wonderful prosperity of the country, which all arose from the fact that we are governing the country. If suspensions create prosperity, let us have more of the same sort.

'Subject to the action of the Democratic party at the primary election.' This is what Potter, Savage and Wise remarked to everybody. Now, they have violated their pledge of honor and have sold themselves to Cummings, Patton & Co. Talk about corruption and fraud at the primary election! If there are any greater frauds than these three individuals, we would like to have them pointed out. A Radical may support them with consistency, but no Democrat, who loves his party, can vote for either.

Party Treason.

We have no fault to find with any man who, in a proper manner, forsakes the Democratic party and joins the enemy. The same moral rule which controls honorable men in their business and social affairs, should control them in their politics. If a man believes the doctrine of the Radical party wrong, let him join the Democrats. Ad vice versa. This is mainly dignified. But to forsake a party and join the enemy after being defeated, partakes too much of the Benedict Arnold plan, and cannot be defended by any man who prefers truth to falsehood and moral integrity to duplicity.

Dr. Potter, Mr. Savage and Mr. Wise, after pledging their word and honor to abide the result of the primary election, and then going over to the enemy, have done just as wicked an act, in our estimation in a moral point of view, as Arnold, the traitor, when he joined the British.—Had they joined the enemy before seeking a nomination at the hands of our party friends, we would have respected them. But as it is, we must denounce their movement as unbecomingly dishonorable men, and their act cannot be defended by any Christian or Heathen code of morals.

They have disappointed and compromised all their real friends, and must look to men who wanted to imprison them a few years ago, for supporters and defenders.

THE CHANGE. We have for years been a strong adherent of the Crawford system of nominating candidates, but it has been so alarmingly abused within the last three years, that we have been compelled to surrender to the advocates of the delegate system, or a blending of the two systems with proper safeguards.

The proceedings of the convention which met in the Court Room last week, will be found elsewhere in this issue, and we ask our friends to give the new rules due consideration and a fair trial. A very large portion of our people have always been strenuously opposed to the 'Crawford system,' and the action of the late convention was so harmonious and strong for a change—54 to 19—that we have surrendered our views and call upon all those who have felt like us to fall in, so that every evil of the old system may become abrogated and harmony exist throughout our organization, and so that the most erratic Modoc may exclaim, 'see how these brethren dwell together in harmony.' We really think that the change must satisfy the most captious opponent of the old system, whose friends will to a man give the new rules a proper interpretation and a cordial support.

It is necessary for us to spend any time to tell our readers who Dr. Boyer is; because, he is personally known to two-thirds of our citizens. A prominent Republican, in a private letter to us, remarks: 'I have had business in Harrisburg, during the sitting of the Assembly, for at least five years; yet, during all that time, Dr. Boyer is the only man from this district who invited me to his room, while a member of the House.' That of itself stamps his character as a legislator, and would be well enough 'a copy,' as printers would say.

MEETING NUMBER TWO.—The Curwensville branch of the New Washington ring met in the Court Room on Wednesday evening last, and after Fulford, Murray and Patton eulogized Mackey and Gordon, the Radical nominees for State officers, as such, they deemed it inexpedient to nominate a county ticket.

Our nominees for the offices named being peculiarly well qualified for their respective positions, it is but natural that they should be elected by a very large majority. On the other hand, our nominees for Assembly, Sheriff, Treasurer and County Commissioner are far better qualified to discharge their respective duties than their opponents. Hence, there is not a single reason why any Democrat should vote the Modoc ticket.

DAVID W. WISE.—Up to within three months there was not an individual within the bounds of our country for whom we had greater respect than Maj. Wise. But since that time he has been so deceptive and vacillating that he seems to have undergone an entire change. His ambition seems to have run with his good sense and he now prefers to back in the affections of his enemies, instead of his friends. His qualifications are undisputed, yet not a whit better than Mr. Worrall's, who is seeking the office of Treasurer in an honorable manner, and Democrats will fail to discharge their duty to the party in preferring Mr. Wise to him.

JAMES SAVAUGH.—We unhesitatingly say that this gentleman is wholly unfit to fill the office he is seeking. It is the height of presumption on his part and that of his friends to press him. We have known him personally for a number of years, and having observed served over a year in the capacity of Sheriff, we have no hesitation in saying that he should never be elected. Were there any hopes of this, we would speak much plainer; but we simply want all good men to stop and inquire before casting their ballot for this office.

A Washington dispatch says that among the sufferers here by the suspension of Jay Cooke & Co., there are two or three charitable institutions.—Religion and charity are the cloaks this firm has worn ever since it went into business. We mean that kind of religion adopted by a great many sharp business men and shrewd charity vendors.

Col. Charles J. Biddle, one of the editors and proprietors of the Philadelphia Age, died in that city on the 21st.

To the Democracy of Clearfield County.

For the first time in many years, an Independent ticket has been placed in nomination, in opposition to the one regularly nominated by the Democracy. Men calling themselves Democrats, under the plea of purifying the party, have arrayed themselves in opposition to it. Some of them have been honored with high official position, received from the party. Others have been repeatedly supported for office. With hands ingratiate they now turn upon their benefactor and seek to strike it down.

Professing to be political reformers, they have nominated a ticket, but have taken no other step to correct what they allege to be frauds in our nominations. If they had been nominated, all would have been well. Their views would have been loudest in support of the ticket.

The party, through its delegates in Convention assembled, have thrown around our nominations every safeguard to prevent mistakes in the future. What more do these men ask? They seek their own election. That accomplished, they are content. They are for nothing more than this.

Democrats, this is not a question of men. It is a contest for the existence of your party in this county, and the principles you advocate. Do not be deceived. These men have stopped outside of our organization. While we respect them, personally, they are unworthy of your support.

They have invoked the aid of the Republican organization. The Republican committee made no nominations. They have virtually endorsed the bolters' ticket. The bolters have bargained for office. Democrats and honest Republicans will spurn and repudiate such political trickery.

Work for the ticket, vindicate your manhood and the honor of your party. Come to the polls. Vote for Boyer, McPherson, Worrall, Brown, and our whole ticket.

WM. M. McCULLOUGH, Chairman Dem. Com.

Democratic Convention.

Tuesday evening, September 23rd, 1874, was the date fixed by the Democratic County Committee for the assembling of a County Convention of Delegates from the several boroughs and townships of Clearfield county, elected on the Saturday previous, for the purpose of changing, amending or abolishing the present system of nominating county officers.

The Convention was called to order by Wm. M. McCullough, Chairman of the County Committee, at which the following delegates, of Osnoda, and J. B. Shaw, of Gordon, were elected Secretaries. The Convention being organized, the Chairman requested the Secretaries to call the boroughs and townships in alphabetical order, the Delegates answering to their names as called. Before proceeding to the call, Mr. Blattenberger made a motion to the effect that where the delegates elected failed to attend, they should be deemed as having been substituted. The motion was not adopted, after which the clerks proceeded to call the roll:

Osnoda—Philip Datta, B. Armstrong, Henry Wright. Bell—Robert McPherson, R. C. Thompson, Henry Blattenberger, J. B. Shaw, J. R. Fernald. Bloom—Wm. Limer, D. W. Chilton. Gordon—James H. Waple, David Mosey, James McGee. Osnoda—Y. E. Holt, Jacob Williams, James Lonsberry, S. A. Caldwell. Brady—Andrew Fests, Jr., Dr. W. A. Meigs, W. R. Luther, Jos. Limer, Jr., R. H. Hughes. Harrisburg—J. H. Reed, Daniel Gorman, Matt. Irvin. Lawrence—J. D. Miller, T. P. Danbar, Samuel Williams. Covington—John P. Reed, L. M. Courtier, Lawrence J. Blattenberger, J. B. Shaw, J. R. Fernald. Clearfield—Geo. L. Reed, Israel Test, John L. Cuttle, W. A. Wallace. Curwensville—Wm. P. Chambers, Jas. Thompson, Ira Waple. Falford—Richard Hughes, Edward Carley, Douglas—A. B. Shaw, J. S. Fernald. Graham—Abraham Hoover, Patrick Curry, Jacob Wilhelm. Gullish—Capt. McKiernan, Patrick Flynn, R. C. Thompson, J. B. Shaw, J. R. Fernald. Knox—David Richard, James M. Bloom, Geo. High. Lawrence—Capt. Ogden, R. Shaw, Jr., W. R. Luther, Jos. Limer, Jr., R. H. Hughes. Morris—J. L. Stewart, Peter Noyes, Al. Thors, Thomas Kaylor. Washington—A. D. Bennett, Christ. Ericker. Osnoda—J. A. Blattenberger, C. Kerin, A. V. Carpenter. Falford—James McIntyre, J. H. Rowley, Wm. Freeman. Pike—W. A. Bloom, John Owens, J. P. McKiernan, R. C. Thompson, J. B. Shaw, J. R. Fernald. Woodward—Wm. Luther, Geo. Lambert, Jas. Corry.

The townships of Ferguson, Huston, Jordaa and Karthaus were unrepresented. Yet it was the largest body of representative men from all sections of the county we ever saw in the county. At this stage of the proceedings, Capt. McKiernan moved, in order to test the sense of the Convention, that the 'Crawford System' for making nominations be abolished and the Delegate System adopted.—Capt. Ogden then offered the following as an amendment:

Resolved, That the Crawford county system of nominating candidates be the true popular system, and should be sustained by this Convention, and that a Committee of five be appointed by the Assembly, to make recommendations to the same for the session of this Convention.

Resolved, That the question of a change of the Crawford county system be referred to a committee of five, as an amendment to be held for that purpose.

Mr. Wallace then moved, as an amendment to the amendment, the following:

Resolved, That the system of nominating candidates heretofore in use in Clearfield county by the Democratic party be abolished and the Delegate System be adopted, and in lieu of and instead thereof, the Delegate System be adopted, and that the party organization be continued, governed and directed by the following rules:

1. The organization of the County Committee shall be as follows: One member for every borough and township, and a Chairman, whose Committee shall be elected annually by the Assembly, and shall begin at January following their election.

2. The number of delegates to which each district is entitled is based upon the following rule: Each township shall be entitled to one delegate, and each borough to one delegate, and for each additional one hundred Democratic voters, one delegate shall be added, and for each additional one hundred Democratic voters, one delegate shall be added, and for each additional one hundred Democratic voters, one delegate shall be added.

3. The question for delegates to represent the several districts in the annual Democratic County Convention shall be held at the usual place of holding the general elections for each district, on the first day of October, and continuing until 10 o'clock, p. m., of same day.

4. The question for delegates shall be held by an election board, to consist of the member of the County Committee for such district, and two other persons, who shall be appointed and designated by the County Committee in case any of the persons so constituting the board, shall be absent from the place of holding the election, or who shall be disqualified by the County Committee, by the first day of the month appointed, by Rule First, for the opening of the same, his or their place, shall be filled by the County Committee, and the members of the Democratic voters present at the time.

5. Every qualified voter of the district, who at the time of the election, voted at the Democratic ticket, shall be entitled to a vote as the delegate election.

6. The vote of all delegate elections shall be by ballot, upon which ballots shall be written or printed the name or names of the delegates or delegates voted for, together with any instructions which the voter may desire to give to the delegates or delegates. No ballot shall be received from the person voting, by a member of the election board, or by any other person, who is not a member of the Democratic voters present at the time.

7. The vote of all delegate elections shall be by ballot, upon which ballots shall be written or printed the name or names of the delegates or delegates voted for, together with any instructions which the voter may desire to give to the delegates or delegates. No ballot shall be received from the person voting, by a member of the election board, or by any other person, who is not a member of the Democratic voters present at the time.

8. No instructions shall be received or recognized unless the same be voted upon by the ballot as provided in this article, and no ballot shall be received from the person voting, by a member of the election board, or by any other person, who is not a member of the Democratic voters present at the time.

9. Each election board shall keep an accurate list of the names of all persons voting at such elections; which list of votes together with a full and complete return of such election, containing an account of the names of the delegates or delegates and all instructions voted shall be certified by said board, to the County Convention, upon printed blanks to be furnished by the County Convention.

10. Whenever from any district, qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the number of delegates, shall be present at the County Convention, or shall be present at the election of delegates, such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district.

11. Whenever from any district, qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the number of delegates, shall be present at the County Convention, or shall be present at the election of delegates, such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district.

12. Whenever from any district, qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the number of delegates, shall be present at the County Convention, or shall be present at the election of delegates, such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district.

13. Whenever from any district, qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the number of delegates, shall be present at the County Convention, or shall be present at the election of delegates, such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district.

14. Whenever from any district, qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the number of delegates, shall be present at the County Convention, or shall be present at the election of delegates, such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district.

15. Whenever from any district, qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the number of delegates, shall be present at the County Convention, or shall be present at the election of delegates, such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district.

16. Whenever from any district, qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the number of delegates, shall be present at the County Convention, or shall be present at the election of delegates, such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district.

17. Whenever from any district, qualified Democratic voters, in numbers equal to five times the number of delegates, shall be present at the County Convention, or shall be present at the election of delegates, such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district, and the delegates from such district may, if they so desire, be organized as a district.

18. Blattenberger and Appropriation.

The indorsement of Senator Hipple by the Republican convention of Oregon, meets the pretty nearly unanimous approval of the Republican press, who consider the resolution which passed that body as very fitting and appropriate. So do we. Senator Hipple has changed his name without legal authority, it is true, but half of Oregon has done the same. It is considered impolitic out in any of those States to take a man who has had his name in the east. Senator Hipple deserted his wife and children in Pennsylvania, when he went west and left his financial affairs in rather a mixed state. But again half of a quarter of the Oregonians are popularly supposed to have done the same thing. One of the best and most reliable sources of immigration to the new States consists in the ascending of husbands, and it would be exceedingly impolitic for new States to be up on this source of supply by harsh and discouraging reflections. Hon. Mr. Hipple seems to have committed bigamy, but then a good portion of the men of Oregon have done that too. Though public opinion there does not exactly justify bigamy, yet it regards it leniently. To desert the wife of one's youth and marry a western slope girl to raise up a family with, is to experience one of those youthful misfortunes, faults, or shortcomings, which ought not to prejudice people against a man's character in after life. Such being the state popular feeling in Oregon, it is only 'fitting and appropriate' that Senator Mitchell Hipple should not be condemned for merely doing what other people do. To condemn him would imply a condemnation too many other citizens of Oregon, and therefore the Republican convention would not dare to do it.

THE BUREAU BURN.—Jay Cooke & Co. have failed, carrying with them a number of smaller firms. The history of a great land speculation is the history in the great majority of cases of gas bag fortunes and disastrous collapses. The sad part of the story in reference to the failure of the head and front of the North Pacific railroad enterprise is, that aided by the influence of speculators, chivalric statements, and similar shams, who with the confidence of trusting people only to betray and ruin, Jay Cooke & Co. have induced thousands of families to entrust about all their worldly wealth to their keeping, who will now find themselves penniless. Many thousands have also listened to the plausible lies told by hiring deacons, who sported 'Rey,' before their names, and expended their all in moving their families into northern wilderness only to find themselves the helpless victims of a needy corporation. The millions upon millions of hard earned dollars that this firm has gathered and squandered represent but the blasted hopes of a multitude.—Ohio Statesman.

OLIVIA ON COOKS.—Olivia, the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, does not seem to worship Governor Cooke. She declares that President Grant can make a Governor, but it takes Almighty God to make a man. In the same way that Victoria reigns in England, and is worshipped by the British, though to his credit let it be said, that when his name-sake and heir married an American Princess he refrained from asking the House of Delegates to make provision for the same. For all such acts of condescension we have reason to be thankful, as well as that the Board of Public Works governs in his name. Victoria never blocks the wheels of government, and Gov. Cooke refers every matter to the proper department. He has never worn a military mind to decide questions among his people, and heretofore his fame will slide down the inclined plane of time as the first Governor of the District of Columbia who failed to negotiate the District bonds.

Too SENSITIVE.—There is such a thing as being altogether too sensitive. The colored citizens of Summit county, Ohio, have asked the State Constitutional Convention to abolish the word 'negro' from the English language, at least to prohibit its use in public documents and school books. This is childish. The word is a good and necessary word, and is no more creditable than 'colored' or 'African,' neither of which is so definite or correct. The Blacks are just as much black as the Whites are white—no color is as good as another, but so long as there are colors, in the present state of affairs, it is often necessary to discriminate between them.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE ROBBER.—The Philadelphia Press says: It is said that at the time of the failure of the National Bank of Washington ex-President Johnson had $80,000 in it to his credit, on which he was receiving six per cent interest, which was his only revenue. Should the bank be able to discharge its obligations the ex-President will be almost penniless.—Another case which will excite sympathy is that of Mrs. John G. Wilson, whose husband, a member of Congress from Oregon, died in 1857. Her husband had $1,000 on deposit in the bank when he died, and arrangements were made by Judge Williams and Senator Kelly to obtain the money for the widow, who is wholly without means, and is now teaching school to support her family. Still this same Press remarks that this nation can never compensate Jay Cooke for his patriotism during the war. We suppose if he does rob half the widows and orphans of the war, it will be all right, because he was a 'patriot.'

THE STORY OF THE COOKS.—Henry D. Cooke used to be editor of the Ohio State Journal, and it was while occupying that position that Governor Chase took a fancy to him that led to his being transferred to Washington, and to brother Jay's being put in charge of the government loans.—He was a rather dull editor and Jay a prosaic banker, but under the management of the party both in Ohio and in Washington, they became wealthy. Chase had a habit of gathering round him men who would not become his rivals, and it was in pursuance of this idea that he took up the Cooks.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Jay Cooke was the christian banker and financier, as Colfax and Henry Wilson were the christian statesmen, and C. O. Howard the christian scholar. This has been a very bad year for that kind of christianity.

General Election Proclamation.

WHEREAS, by an act of the General
