The Triennial Assessment.

We presume that it is generally known that the triennial assessment occurs this fall, and that the value of all real estate will be fixed by the As--essor for three years hence. This being the fact it becomes the duty of every citizen to give the Assessor a correct statement of his, her, or their property. We will therefore intro-duce the Assessor to the citizen about an follows :

Assessor-Good morning, Mr. Jones I suppose you are aware that I am the Assessor, and have called to make a inemorandum of your property. Cirizry—All right, Mr. Smith, 1 will give you in all I have. It is just and proper that each citizen should pay his due share of tax.

Assesson-How much land do you own to day ? CITIZES-One hundred and twenty acres. (The Assessor puts that down.) Assessor-Is that more land than you was assessed with last year ?

CITIZEN-Yes, sir. I purchased twenty acres from Mr. Doe last spring A .- Then I will make a note of that fact, and when I assess Mr. Doe I must reduce his lot that much below last year, so that the transfer can be seen on the duplicate. How many horses have you over four years old? C .- Two.

A .- How many cows, oxen or steers do you own over four years old? C .- I have two cows and one steer

A .- Do you own a gold lever or other gold watch or silver lever of the value of $20 and upwards? C .- No, sir. I own neither.

A .- Do you own a buggy, carriage or spring wagon used for pleasure for the conveying of passengers? C.-Tes, sir. I own a buggy. A.-Have you an excess of over $300 worth of household farniture, in-C.—Tes, sir.
