Wade to be Hung. July last. The warrant is in the usual form, and was received by the sheriff on Wednesday evening about four o'clock. When the sheriff entered his cell he was accompanied by Deputy

Blair, Chief Coder, officers Andrews and Platt. Before the reading of the warrant, however, the new handcuffs, with an iron bar of about fifteen inches to separate them, were placed upon his wrists and securely rivited. The bar of iron is designed to keep his hands apart and to prevent him from using them as little as possible. Dur-ing the reading of the warrant Wade listened with stoical indifference, and at the conclusion remarked that it was correct, and written on a nice piece of paper. He was then removed to another cell on the opposite side of the hall, and the chain which is attached to his iron collar securely fastened to the floor, when the officers withdrew and left him to ruminate over his fate. The officers had scarcely left the cell of this desperate and the Democrate of Ohio have carried by 256 majority and into the Lagislature and will have 19 majority on joint ballot.
