The energy and perseverance of the gustlement in question, in Kinesid's train. It is the daty of the flagman to two the aptiches when at imptions of branches.

perseverance of the gentlemen in question, in completing their works in so short a period, is very commendable, and we hope they will be re-warded. The quality of the gas is excellent, and it is pretty well demonstrated already that se-need not go to Wasimarciand, or anywhere else, for gas coal. Our own county is full of it, and in a few years more we will send enough east to light up all creation-if meetsary. The borough authorities have erected fifteen street lamps, which coat the citizens about ninety sents per oight for gas and seventy-five cents for lighting and turn-ing off the gas.
