An American named Jefferson has playing a game of billiards, 500 up, gainst the English player Dufton, and winning it, using his nose as a cue.—
To anticipate Punch, it may be as well to remark, perhaps, that this is the first instance known of an American traveling on his nose instead of on his check; but this merely by the way. Mr. Jefferson may be an American or otherwise, so far as we have any positive information on the subject, but, as a man who knocks billiard falls about with his nose, he belongs lassification. And yet we would not A LLEGHENY HOTEL, ightly part with Lagrangian to the world at large, and soars above lightly part with Jefferson, seeing that he is the only man in the world who has a cue growing from the midwith him, and hail him as a citizen of ar great republic. As a people we have been accused by effete European monarchs and their bloated retainers.

In their freatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. Walker's Vinegan Burrers, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viseld matter with which the howels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with Vinegan Burrers. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.
