Our young friend, John W. Wrigley, who is excavating for the purpose of erecting a residence on Clearfield street, immediately in front of his present one.

We are requested to announce that Rev. H. S. Byler, pastor of Clearfield, this week and will fill his pulpit next Sabbath (17th), morning and evening.

Mr. W. S. Loomis, having returned to Clearfield, and recovered from his late illness, is desirous of giving lessons in instrumental music. Persons who desire to take lessons will please call on Mr. L. at the Shaw House.

At the residence of his son, George C. Brown, Jacob Brown, aged 27 years. His body was conveyed to and buried at Spring Mills, Centre county, where the deceased formerly resided.

A WEEDY LAMB.—Mr. A. B. Tate, of Bell Township, Clearfield, has a Cotswold lamb forty-five days old, that weighs forty-two pounds. The ewe had only one lamb of the rest of her flock.

The Williamsport boom is said to contain more legs at present than any other boom in the country.

HEAVY EMIGRANT TRAVEL.—Two way passenger train, westward bound, now passes through the city almost every afternoon.

IMPORTANT ARREST.—Wm. Bromley, who is charged with the murder of William Plushin, is held on bail in Erie county, in June last, and for whom there is a reward offered of $1,000.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Daniel Snyder, aged about 13 years, son of Mr. Rosanna Snyder, of Millburg, left the Wagonload (Berks county) Orphan's Home some time during the holiday, without the permission or knowledge of those in charge of said home. Where he is, whether living or dead, is unknown to his poor grief-stricken mother, and she would give all she possesses to know his whereabouts.

NEW TRENDS.—Huntingdon has four miles of streets. So says the Monitor.

THE LAST JACOBITE.—The annual July meeting of the Clearfield Park Association will be held on the 22d and 23d inst. and 1st of August next.

SCHOOL BOOKS.—We call the attention of scholars directed to the following provision of the school law upon the subject of a uniformity of text books.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL.—The Clearfield County Normal School, which opened in Clearfield at the beginning of last week, seems to be gaining in popularity and number of students each year.

RE-SIGNED HIS POSITION.—Mr. Chas. C. Brown, for a number of years past, a prominent conductor on the Pennsylvania railroad, having resigned his position for the purpose of accepting the office of Assistant Superintendent of the Delaware and Potomac Railroad, has resigned his position.

REPORT OF A PRELIMINARY SURVEY OF THE KEATING AND CARHARTS RAILROADS.
JAMES HAZEN, Pa., May 10, 1876.
To the Hon. Board of Commissioners: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your resolution of the 28th of March, 1876, and to report to you the results of a preliminary survey of the Keating and Carharts railroads, made on the 29th and 30th inst. and on the 1st of April, 1876.

As the route of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad is a north-westerly direction, the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad is a north-westerly direction, the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad is a north-westerly direction.

THE GRADES
The grades will be very easy, varying about five feet to the mile.

LAND RIGHTS
It will not doubt be very light, as the line is to be laid out on a new tract.

THE NEGRO SCHOOL BILL.—The bill passed last week by the House of Representatives, for the purpose of creating a fund for the support of schools for the education of negroes, and throwing all schools open to them upon an equality with the white children, and those white parents who do not wish their children to be educated in the "colored wards" can make the best of it. The meaning of this is that separate schools for the education of the race shall no longer exist.
