States for cabinet ware and cabinet purposes.

Twenty years ago malogany was used for cabinet purposes throughout the East, but either the demand so far exceeded the supply or the taste changed, and at present time walnut is the style. The supply of walnut, mainly obtained from Indiana, is decreasing. Indianapolis and Toledo are now the great business centres for walnut lumber. The northern half of Indiana has been already stripped of its walnut timber, and the saw-mills have been removed to the southern

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 27, 1874. THE LABORER. BY W. D. GALLAGREE.

Stand up—creet! Thou hast the form And likeness of thy flod—who more? A soul as duuntless amid the storm Of daily life—a heart as warm And pure, as breast e're were.

What then? Thou art as true a man As moves the human mass among: As much a part of the great plan That with Creation's dawn began, As any of the throng.

Who is thine enemy? The high In station, or in wealth the chief The great who coldly pass thee by With proud steps and swerted eye? Nay! nurse not such belief.

If true unto thyself thou wast,
What were the proud one's scorn to thee?
A feather which thou mightest east
Aside as dily as the blast
The light leaf from the tree.

No!—uncurb'd passions, low desires, Absence of noble self-respect— Death, in the breast's consuming hers, To that high nature which aspires For ever, till thus check'd. These are thine enemies—thy worst

They chain thee to thy lonely let; Thy labor and thy life accursed. O, stand erect, and from them burst, And longer suffer not.

Thou art thyself thine enemy:
The great? what better they than thou?
As theirs, is not thy will as free?
Has God with equal favors thee
Neglected to endow?

N. Dewbery was aroused at last, and called by the service of the control of the same and the sam

The indications are that within the next ten or fifteen years the curled and bird's eye maple timber of the West will be in active demand throughout the Eastern, Middle, and Southern States for cabinet ware and cabinet

To his surprise he found the door locked. He wrapped on it with his knuckles, and pounded on it with his knuckles, and pounded on it with his feet, but Mrs. Dewberry had gone to sleep with her deaf ear uppermost, and not a sound disturbed her peaceful rest.

He'd not stay there all night—that he was determined on. So he shouted and banged and shook the door until Mrs.
