THE SEDUCER AND HIS VIC

A resident of Minnenpolis picked up an old scrap-book created in his hours of boyish leisure 15 or 20 years ago, and found therein a sermon on "The Seducer and his Victim," which was delivered by Henry Ward Beecher in Brooklyn, in the year 1856. The Minneapolis gentleman copied the sermon and sent it to the St. Paul Pioneer. We extract the following significant terlierment of the seducer:

We extract the following significant indictment of the seducer:

"The seducer! Playing upon the most sacred passions he betrays innocence. How! By its tenderest faculties; by its trust; by its unsuspecting faith; by its honor. The victim often and often, is not the accomplice so much as the sufferer, betrayed by an exorcism which bewitched her noblest affections, and became the suicide of her virtue! The betrayer, for the WILL STORM STRIES—VOL. 13, NO. 2854.
