In this criminal case I shall peither Irouble him for particulars, nor drive him from the Special Term to the General, nor drag him to Albany to the Court of Appeals, nor compel him to try his cause with a mere tithe of his evidence, nor in any manner impose on him a gossamer's weight of difficulty in bringing me to justice. Moreover, in the criminal case he will be relieved of his ill-omened fears of civil damages, in the defence; he will be entitled to the last word to the jury; and if I have borne falso witness against him he will be able not only to prove me guilty, but to send me to the penitentiary.

I am advised and believe that the cumming managers of Mr. Beech or's safety are seeking to contravene, the ends of justice by the following stralagem, to wit: as soon, as Mr. Beecher's counsel shall have restricted and process of the sends of justice by the following stralagem, to wit: as soon, as Mr. Beecher's connel shall have restricted and process of the following stralagem, to wit: as soon as Mr. Beecher's connel shall have restricted to the least word to the jury; and investigations why the commencial metropolis of the State should see controlled by one who is in symmpatical process.

THE PARTICULARS.

IV. Touching Mr. Beecher's renewed demands for impossible particulars, I here repact in substance what my counsel presented before the court a fortnight ago, in prompt fulfilment of their pledge to supply at a half hour's notice all the particulars which we possessed. They are these: That the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher cemmitted acts of adultery with Mrs. Elizabeth R. Tilton on the 10th and 17th of October, 1868, and at intervals the reaffer till the spring of 1870; that the said set recoverities.

Elizabeth R. Tilton on the 10th and 17th of October, 1868, and at intervals thereafter till the spring of 1870; that the said acts were committed at 124 Columbia street and 174 Livings ton street, in the city of Brooklyn that confession of these acts were made by Mrs. Tilton on the 3d of July, 1870, and at other times; that similar confessions were made by Mr. Beecher on the 30th of December, 70, and at other times; that the confessions and at other times that the confessions were made by Mr. Why Mr. Irwin should decline to RAILROAD WHEELBARROWS Why Mr. Irwin should decline to tell the committee what common re-port says he long ago told to his per-sonal friends, is somewhat strange.— It is openly stated on the avenues of Washington, that one of the largest checks was paid over to Wm. S. King, Postmaster of the House of Repre-sentatives when the subsidy was pro-Beccher on the 30th of December, 70, and at other times; that the confessions of Mrs. Tilton were made to Mrs. as at a glance it must be Doctor Brough, saw at a glance it must be Bradshaw, Mrs. Emma R elect to Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. Emma R elect to Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. Emma R elect to the Forty-fourth Congress-Other and the substitution of the substitution or false at the time when they were made, and they stand in that position be now.
