

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEB. 1, 1877.

CANNOT ELECT.—The Democrats have a middle over the election of United States Senator in West Virginia.

EXTREMES.—The people of Tennessee have certainly both the extreme points of the political compass.

SENATORIAL ELIGIBILITY.—Some of the people very much, although the contest has been settled for some time.

ANOTHER VICTORY.—An election was held last Thursday to elect a Congressman in the First Illinois district.

EARLY ADJOURNMENT.—A joint resolution has passed over by the Legislature to adjourn over from Thursday, the 18th of March.

ON TIME.—An enthusiastic friend, in alluding to the election of Mr. Wallace to the Senate, closes an article in this way.

SEVERING MONEY ANTHONY.—We observe by the Auditor General's Report that Fish Commission has received $22,800.

DISBANDING THE "CALLED TROOPS".—Outlawry in North Carolina has become the rule, and not the exception.

STRENGTH FINANCING.—Our State tax off the personal property amounting, according to the Auditor General's Report, to the sum of $545,823.24.

"NOBBY" REPAIR BILLS.—A glance at the Auditor General's report for 1874, clearly sets forth the fact that some handsome repairs have been going on at the State Capitol.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL COMMISSION.—In the diary days of the session last winter, the Legislature passed a law directing the Governor to appoint a commission of seven persons to examine and revise the Constitution of 1873.

"NOBBY" REPAIR BILLS.—A glance at the Auditor General's report for 1874, clearly sets forth the fact that some handsome repairs have been going on at the State Capitol.

A London dispatch announces that the Rev. Charles Kingsley, chaplain in ordinary to the Queen and the Earl of Wessex, has died at Chester, England, it is dead. Canon Kingsley, who it will be remembered, visited the United States a year or two ago, lecturing in Baltimore and other cities during his sojourn.

The Senatorial harvest is being rapidly gathered. New York has elected Sherman, Indiana, MacDonnell, Kentucky, Wallace, New Jersey, Pennington, Tennessee, Andrew Johnson, Maine, Hamilton, Rhode Island, A. B. Humble, Michigan, I. P. Chittenden, Massachusetts, H. L. Dawes, Nebraska, A. S. Paddock.

It is stated as a fact that England, although not so large as some of the States of the Union, has more sheep than the whole of North America; and the East and West, and Texas and California, do not produce half so much mutton altogether as the little Island. The author of this paragraph probably included Scotland as part of "the little island" even with this allowance the States are in a large way.

—Sir Samuel Baker, in his description of his journey to that comparatively inaccessible region, Central Africa, states that he had made arrangements to have the London Times sent to him, but he did not understand it. On his return from the Equatorial Lakes of Fatiko, near the White Nile, he on one occasion had delivered to him a single number of the London Times, which he had not read, but had given to a native. The old officers were re-elected. A Constitutional Committee was appointed, consisting of three men from the western part of the State, and five from the eastern part.

The Indianapolis (Ind.) Journal notes that the standing wheat trees on the farm of J. M. McCallister, county, Ind., were sold recently for $17,000. There is a large amount of other timber on the tract which is not included, only the walnut timber being sold. Walnut timber is coming more and more into use throughout the country and Europe, and at present a very large business is done in preparing and shipping it from Indiana. It is the most valuable of this timber than any other State.

The Mount Hope coal mine in Portsmouth, N. H., contains the richest anthracite in this country; if not in the world. It is much lighter in color than the ordinary anthracite, and in many places it strongly resembles bituminous. The mine contains 15,000 tons a year, and it is pretty good fuel, though when the beds were opened, many years ago, it was thought to be next to worthless. It sells for $3.00 per ton, and is a very valuable coal. Large quantities of this coal is consumed at the mines in smelting copper from Chile.

The Ross case has again taken a fresh look on the public interest in an account of a reward of $5,000 for information leading to the recovery of the child. A circular has been issued to justices of the peace and county officials in various parts of Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland, asking them to personally investigate themselves in the search for the missing child, and to thoroughly examine all places within jurisdiction where the child could be by any possibility be concealed.

It would seem that they have a "dry-drum" in California. It is a month of verdure and sunshine. In a letter to the editor of the Troy, N. Y., Daily Eagle, Oakland, December 13, a correspondent informs a resident of California, under his J. J. W. window, and wild flowers of rich yellow hue, plucked on the edge of the track. The temperature of the room in which he writes is 75 degrees, and the sun is shining brightly on the lawn, and the air was fragrant with the flowers.
