

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, EDITOR.

CLEARFIELD, PA.,

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 18, 1875.

Readers, if you want to know what is going on in the business world...

THE PRIMARY.

Rule 4 of the Democratic primary election to be held annually on the Saturday preceding the third Tuesday of September...

The fee for announcing candidates will be for Senator, $15; Treasurer, $10; Commissioner, $5...

THE NEXT ELECTION.

We cannot follow the attention of voters: The new Constitution forbids all persons from voting unless they have been assessed at least two months and paid their taxes at least one month before the date of the election.

THE STATE DEBT.

The Commissioners of the sinking fund in their published statement on the 21st of August...

ONLY HALF DONE.

The brethren of Plymouth church, after the trial voted their parson a $100,000 salary.

AN ABLE ARGUMENT.

The argument of E. B. Gowen, Esq., President of the Reading Railroad, before the Legislative Committee recently...

CENTRE DEMOCRATS.

Our friends over the mountain held their county convention on Tuesday a week, and put the following ticket in the field:

GO AND BOOT THEM.

The editors of the Lancaster Intelligencer are displeased at the action of the Democrats of York county...

WHAT NEXT?

The editor of the Belfonte Industrial Advocate is not pleased because he cannot have things his own way.

The last huge plundering job brought to light under the present corrupt national administration is that of Columbus Delano...

The last huge plundering job brought to light under the present corrupt national administration is that of Columbus Delano...

The Pittsburgh Dispatch belongs to that class of journals which have about as much respect for the Constitution...

The Presbyterian Banner, in a leading editorial, entitled "The Difference," reviews a review...

The Treasurer of the Sinking Fund, in a review of the report...

The Washington Star says: "It is a curious fact to enter the public service to look in at the treasury department to lay and see the sorrow and despair of the poor fellows who have had to stop down and out in consequence of the reorganization...

The Cincinnati Enquirer asks: "Who will embark in cotton or woolen mills when it pays better to have a tin hat full of government bonds?"

A. D. 1875, commencing on the 1st of Monday, the 12th day of September...

The charges are made by pure and unadorned Radicals who have been on the ground and know all about the frauds which have been committed.

There is no living ex-President, but it is believed there will be one on the 5th of March, 1877, unless Grant should die in the meantime.

The largest mortar in the world has been put into the parlor of the United States Hotel at Saratoga.

The total amount of crude oil moved by the Allegheny Valley Railroad from the Butler and Clarion District during July is 342,779 barrels.

It is remarkable that those who held the lowest views in respect to the Constitution, always proclaim themselves patriots above all others...

The scalawags and carpet-baggers of Mississippi are having a first class quarrel. The leaders are washing their dirty linen in the public tub.
