MOODY AND SANKEY.

These Evangelists who sailed from Liverpool on the 4th of August, arrived safely in New York, and will soon be safely in New York, and will soon be ready for work on this side of the At-lantic. The Handl gives the following sketches of them: Dwight L. Moody is a New Eng-lander, born in 1837, and brought ap in the Unitarian faith. When about 17 years of age he went to Hoston to obtain employment in a shoe store, and being attracted one Sabbath even-ing to Dr. Kirk's Church the sermon that he heard made him feel very un-comfortable and he resolved never to that be heard made him feel very un-comfortable, and he resolved never to comfortable, and he resolved never to go there again, or to any other church. He went there, however, the next Sabbath evening, and became impress-ed with the truths of religion. Shortly afterwards be left Boston for Chicago to enter into business. Here he taught in a mission Sunday school, collecting
