ESTABLISHED 1837. BAILEY'S PURE RYE WHISKY

We again sall your attention to the above sole brated brand of giods, and we do so with the onviction that there is a great want extains among a vast number of persons who are compelled to use, medicinally or othersite, a pure whisk.

To supply this want we noter Halley's Pure Rye, an article which has been before the public for a number of years, its reputation standing high, as a thoroughly reliable situation at another of our sminent physicians prescribe it to the saids side of all others.

Being made on the heat known releasifie principles, from the choisest grain, and by practical distillers, it retains a shelightful flavor, and, greatly improved by age, nather it largely cought after by first class briefs and drugglets.

Should you desire is give this whicky a trial, and are in death as to whether your hold or druggist keep it, inch having one of our signs display (ed.) write to us and we shall be most happy to direct you to the persons who handle our good in your meighborhood.
