SPEECH.

HON. WILLIAM A. WALLACE, DELIVERED AT CLEARFIELD, SEPT. 20, 1875.

A Gentle Arrangement of the National Bank Act...

At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy of Clearfield county, held in the Opera House, on Tuesday night, September 28, Hon. William A. Wallace delivered the following address...

GENTLEMEN: The gravity of the issue that now confronts us is the vital importance of the proper government of this country...

You have listened to our language with attention and interest, and you have seen that we are not a party of expediency...

In the attainment of good government, the ennobling of our people, and the ennobling of our country, we are all engaged...

We have a higher rate of interest on our public debt than any solvent nation on earth...

We pay a higher rate of interest on our public debt than any solvent nation on earth...
