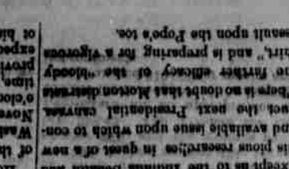
The Republican.



GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 24, 1875.

Read the Republican and know what is going on in the county.

GRANT'S MESSAGE.

"The Government" is now shut up at Washington for once, in six months.

The Philadelphia Times, in alluding to the document, says: It is "given out," by a Washington correspondent of the Chicago Times that Senator Morton is in Washington hard at work manufacturing anti-Pogey thunder for the President's forth-coming Message." The wily Senator thinks he sees a veritable bonanza for the Republican party in the newly-hatched bugaboo, and is scouring the Congressional Library to obtain old Vulcan decrees and other ideological lumber of like nature. Whether the Message will be chiefly made up of Morton's anti-Pogey rant, or whether it will be confined to the usual Executive topics, is a matter of no consequence to the country. Grant is a long article declaring that Grant is the only man in the country who can save the Republican party, and favorable mention of Morton in connection with the Presidency, is all that is necessary to make the Message "read" like a campaign document. Its only merit will be the result. Well if it can't be any worse.

MARK M. (Bitch) Pomeroy has gone into bankruptcy. His creditors are numerous and scattered throughout the country. The debts aggregate over $140,000, and there are no assets.

CAUTION.—We notice that the Rev. Mr. Glendenning, of Jersey City notoriety, has accepted a call from the congregation at Henry, Ill., and is now packing his trunk to go West. We advise the congregation at that place to "keep a look out," because the eleventh man indicted belongs in part to the Beecher persuasion.

MADAM DEMAREST.—Up in Potter county, where the people have been crazy over temperance ever since 1854, the Prohibition ticket received TWO votes, while the "whisky ring" candidate for Governor has a large majority. How is that for "prohibition in the Keystone State?" Is it not the same cant and pretence?

A FOOL SAYS.—The Journal says: "The recent Republican victories do not appear to have had a very beneficial effect upon the Democracy." How is that for "pretext and pretence?" Is it not the same cant we have been hearing for a year? Is it not the old Democratic "bosh" about "fraud and force" that has been worked for all it is worth? Is it not the same old Democratic "pretext and pretence
