Our Special column is decidedly interesting in a local point of view, and profitable reading to outsiders who want to save money.

Philipsburg has now an ordinance allowing people to drive on the side walk to unload coal, wood, etc.

Only twenty-five days until Christmas. Among the little folks this is the all-absorbing topic.

A quarterly meeting will commence in the M. E. Church, in this place, on to-morrow (Thursday) evening a week.

The new county officials, recently elected, will be qualified and enter upon their duties on the first of January next.

Greenville borough, Mercer county, is out of debt and has five hundred dollars to loan until spring, at six per cent.

The Clarion water works were completed last week, and have been put in successful operation. They cost the borough $24,000.

The proceedings of the County S. S. Convention, as they appeared in last week's Journal, will be found on our first page this week.

We learn from the Mirror that they have established a railroad prayer meeting in Altoona—that is, exclusively for railroad employes.

A porcine grunter, belonging to Mr. Switzer, of this place, came to an untimely end on Wednesday last, by getting under the wheels of the western bound passenger train.

Reed, Fleck and Gaulin are getting everything in apple-pie order for the holidays. They know exactly how to tickle the popular taste and they keep everything on hand in their line.

Elsewhere will be found the programme of the Elders' Convention of the Huntingdon Presbytery, which meets in this place on the 14th of December, which we clip from the Tyrone Democrat.

Charles Slaughter, of Huntingdon, is in the Mifflin county jail. He was charged with selling liquor on the Newton Hamilton campmeeting ground and is suffering imprisonment in default of $200 fine.

HOTEL LICENSE.—Those parties who design applying for license at January Term of our court, had better be moving around. We have blank petitions and bonds on hand, which have been approved by the court.

The new Odd Fellows' Hall in Brookville will be dedicated, with appropriate ceremonies, on Tuesday, December 7th. It is expected that the officers of the Grand Lodge will be present, and an interesting time is anticipated.

COFFEE AND SANDWICHES.—Banks Holmes, one of our enterprising colored gentlemen, requests us to call the attention of those who go away on the morning train, to the fact that he has hot coffee and sandwiches at the depot every morning.

Geo. N. Colburn, of this place, has opened a boot and shoe store in Houtsdale, and placed the same in charge of Abe Rosenkrans. The Houtsdale people will find Abe a clever and accommodating clerk, and we trust he will receive a liberal patronage at their hands.

A CHANGE.—The Harrisburg Daily Patriot has adopted the eight page form, and puts forth a morning and evening edition, at the same time reducing the price to two cents per copy. It is an ably conducted journal, doing good service for the Democracy, and deserves liberal patronage.

Constable McClellan gives notice in our special column that he intends going for the hair of those tamables who have not paid him their county and State taxes for 1875 and 1874, and intimates that those for 1875 need not manifest such unabated modesty hereafter, on that subject.

PRETTY HIGH.—The Tyrone Democrat says it cost Huntingdon county for holding the late elections in that county, including publishing proclamation, blanks, etc., the snug of $1,947.50, and asks some one at the fountain head to tell what it cost in Blair county? That is about $1,400 more than we can spring on this side of the mountain.

PAY CAR.—From the Tyrone Herald we learn that a pay car has been introduced on this branch roads, and the employes are now paid from the car by our friend John Riley, Esq., chief clerk in Superintendent Blair's office. Mr. Riley is a clever and very accommodating gentleman, and that particular business could not be entrusted to more honest, competent or faithful hands.

LOOK HERE, SHERIFF!—If you, in imitation of similar officers in other counties, are going to furnish us five or six columns of copy, three or four weeks before January court, you had better be sending it around, so that we can measure it and ascertain whether we have minion type enough on hand to accommodate you. All business since the election of Hartranft and Rawle is on a solid basis.

STILL ANONYMOUS.—The Altoona Sun announces the death of Perry Anonymous, the colored man who assisted the baggage master at the depot, who died on Friday evening. Perry was about fifty-two years old. His odd surname was given him because the name of his father was never known. He was worth several thousand dollars, but we have not learned what disposition he made of it.

Lorenzo Haight, the individual who was captured at this place some two months ago, with a stolen ox in his possession, was convicted of larceny at the November term of the Elk county court, and sentenced to restore the stolen property, pay a fine of six dollars and undergo an imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for two years and six months. A pretty dear steal for Lorenzo.

CHRISTMAS.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Penfield Presbyterian church will hold a Fair and Festival on Christmas day—afternoon and evening. Dinner, 12 to 2 P. M.; oysters, 5 to 10 P. M.; Fair, 12 to 10 P. M. They solicit contributions of money or of articles to sell—from house, farm or store—to be sent in the Secretary, Mrs. L. Bird. Mrs. H. Woodward, Pres.; Mrs. L. Bird, Sec.; Mrs. A. Penfield, Treas. 2tf

ELDER'S CONVENTION.—A Convention of the Elders of the Presbytery of Huntingdon, will be held in the Presbyterian church, Clearfield, commencing on Tuesday, December 14th, 1875, at 2 o'clock p. m. We give below the Programme of Subjects for Discussion and names of the Elders selected to open the discussion on each subject. Session of the Convention will be held at 2 and 7 p. m. on Tuesday, and 9 a. m. and 2 and 7 p. m. on Wednesday, each session to commence with Devotional Exercises of half an hour. A Discussion opened by Wm. P. Orbison, Huntingdon.
Alternate, John Lawske, Osceola.

All sessions of the Convention are open to the public, and all are invited to attend.

ACKNOWLEDGING THE CORN.—A Bell township correspondent puts it in this way: "I notice that the editor of the Cambria Freeman has been boasting of the corn crops raised in Susquehanna township, in that county, but I think that Bell township will come out ahead, when all the facts are gathered. This I know to be true: Thomas A. McGee, one of our worthy Commissioners elect, raised a most excellent corn crop this summer, and my attention was called to four ears of corn, one of which measures 11½ inches in length, 7 inches around the large end and 6 at the small end, containing 18 rows of 85 grains each, total 1178; next largest, length 11x8x½, containing 18 rows of 53 grains each, total, 990; next largest, size 12x7½x½, containing 16 rows of 60 grains each, total 960; smallest, size 11x7x3½, containing 18 rows of 51 grains each, total, 918, making a total length of 45½ inches, and a total of 4,026 grains. These ears were all in one shock, the larger two being on one stock."
We can now see how our friend McGee was so unexpectedly nominated and elected Commissioner. It was the Grangers, who evidently knew all about the corn business. Well, who's next? Our devil says he wants the reel of that stock well distributed next spring, so that we may all have some corn.

HOUSE BURNED.—We regret to learn that the dwelling of our old friend, John Beaumont, residing a few miles west of this borough, was destroyed by fire a few nights ago. The young folks had all gone to singing school, and as Mr. Beaumont was sitting alone in his room he saw a light in the garden. He arose to see what it meant, and putting his head out at the door he discovered that the upper story of his dwelling was all in a blaze, resulting in the total destruction of his home in a short time, he saving but very little of his hard earned property. The fire originated from a defective flue. Mr. Beaumont is very deaf, a fact which accounts for the fire gaining such headway before he noticed it. He has been an industrious, frugal member of society, and deserves the aid of all who love to practice industry and economy.

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA CONFERENCE.—The next session of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the M. E. church will be held in Harrisburg, commencing March 22, 1876, and be presided over by Bishop Wiley. The Bishop is a native of Lewistown, and was for many years a Missionary in China. For several years preceding the General Conference of 1872, when he was elevated to his present position, he was editor of the Ladies' Repository, a periodical of high standing and merit in the church. This session of the Conference extends further into the month of March than any preceding one in its history, and is the first session held in Harrisburg since the incorporation of that territory within its bounds in 1872. Harrisburg formerly belonged to the Philadelphia Conference.

ENTERTAINMENT.—We learn that the Leonard Literary Association purpose giving an entertainment in Pie's Opera House, about the Holidays, the proceeds to be appropriated to the purchase of a library for the use of the society. Judging by the efforts of this association at their entertainment last June, we feel safe in promising those who may attend this one a rare treat. The proceeds of the last entertainment—upwards of $50—are on interest in the hands of responsible parties, and the society desire to increase it to a sufficient sum to warrant them in laying the foundation for a good library. The object is a worthy one, and deserves the countenance and support of all.

OUR COAL FIELDS.—The Osceola Republic says the location of the Madera railroad extension is steadily progressing, and it is hoped that in a week or ten days the road will be ready for grading. Thus our immense coal fields and deposits of mineral wealth are being gradually reached by the iron horse, whose steady advance will give employment to thousands who are now barely earning a subsistence. On the Madera extension, Kendrick & Co. are doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances, and considering that they have been operating only about two months. For the last week their shipments will average from eight to ten cars per day.

Thanksgiving Day was one of the most delightful, in a weather sense, we ever beheld, but one of the "easiest" in a business way we ever encountered. Union service was held at the M. E. church, and the blessings showered upon this locality were ably dwelt upon by Rev's Stevens and Butler, to the edification of those present. The streets were filled with people, who seemed to enjoy the sunshine and fashions as they turned out. It was the most splendid holiday we ever witnessed, though in a business way the blessings were very few.

To Correspondents.—"Here Coly."

The fatal point in your case is that you failed to send your proper name with your communication. "John Anderson." We are pretty well satisfied that you have adopted another man's name. More, it is sawa we want, and not the details of a family quarrel or cheap disgusting neighborhood gossip. Get your mind to run in some other groove, and you will be able to find some sense—just what we want—and by signing your own name to your communications, people may give you credit for being pretty honest.

LARGE YIELDS.—Mr. F. W. Orner, of Menallen township, Adams county, has just husked 161 bushels of corn grown on 2 acres and 94 perches of land, being 107½ bushels to the acre. The corn and land were carefully measured by Surveyor H. S. Orner. Mr. F. W. Orner also raised the last season 370 bushels of oats on a little more than 2 acres of ground.

A YANKEE TRICK.—A man calling himself Victor L. King undertook to victimize a former named Meser, of Westfield, Erie county. King agreed to make Meser an agent for the sale of a patent land roller of which he claimed to be the owner. After talking the matter up, he produced a contract, which he asked Meser to sign. By dexterously slipping a piece of paper under it, he managed to get Meser's name on the latter instead of the contract. He then wrote a note for $633 above the signature, and taking it to Phelps' bank in Westfield had it discounted for $630. The banker finding the note a forgery proceeded to chase the forger and caught him at Derry. He escaped by picking the lock of the handcuffs with a toothpick, but was again captured and now awaits trial at Erie jail.

INFORMATION WANTED.—The following note of inquiry has been received by the Post Master at Brookville, and no doubt some of our readers can furnish the information desired:

POSTMASTER, BROOKVILLE, PA.

Do you know of any one in living in Jefferson county by the name of Symes or Johnson? I was taken away from my mother when four years old. My father's name was Cambridge Johnson. He was drowned about fourteen years ago. You will please let me hear from you if you know anything of them.

MRS. MAGGIE STARKES.

Dalton, Mongtry Co., Ill.—Brookville Republican.

Yes! we knew Cambridge Johnson eighteen years ago. He was a blacksmith, lived near Luthersburg and Reynoldsville, alternately, was drowned in Sandy Lick creek while rafting, and we hold his note for $9.45, dated the 16th of June, 1857, due six months after date. Anybody can have it in exchange for a $20 "rag baby."

CLEARFIELD COAL TRADE.—Statement of Coal and other freights sent over the Tyrone & Clearfield Division, Pennsylvania Railroad, for the week ending Nov. 20th, 1875, and the same time last year:

We, the undersigned, merchants and business men of Clearfield, being desirous of keeping a holiday, and of giving our employes the same privilege, agree to close our respective places of business on Thanksgiving day and Christmas, and further, that notice of the same shall be given two weeks before each holiday, in both the town papers.

MORE CENTENNIAL.—Rev. R. Crittenden, of Bellefonte, says: "The Clearfield Co. S. S. Association is collecting reports from all the sabbath schools in the county for a permanent centennial record. The association is also encouraging the formation of a Bible class in every neighborhood where the Sunday school is suspended for the winter. On the receipt of the address and 3 three cent stamp I will send a Scripture Reference Reading, to any person in Clearfield county who requests it, for the purpose of organizing a Bible class for the winter."

About 11 o'clock on Saturday night last, an outhouse at the residence of James L. Leavy, in this place, was discovered to be on fire. It was burning rapidly when first seen and but for the timely discovery might have been the means of doing considerable damage. The building was in close proximity to the dwelling, and the fire had already been communicated to the kitchen roof, but was extinguished without serious consequences. The outhouse was entirely destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown.

What does it mean? The Hollidaysburg Standard says, "The telegraph line between Osceola and Huntingdon is almost completed."—Philipsburg Journal.
He means Houtsdale. The editor in question has often encountered "good times" at Huntingdon. Hence the name of that model town is always in his head. Though always means right. His geographical blunders are merely accidental; and the editor of the Journal should not have written, "What does it mean?"

BEST BUSINESS WRITING.—A JUST AWARD.—Prof. Cowley, of the Iron City College, Pittsburg, was awarded by the late Exposition of that city, a special premium, over all other competitors for "Best Business Writing." This award meets with general approval, since it is well know n that both as a teacher and penman, Prof. Cowley stands at the head of the profession in the United States.

Wanamaker & Brown, clothiers, of Philadelphia, are a responsible firm. They make up men's and boy's clothing and make them right. Their prices are remarkably low, and the wonder is how they can be so low. The best of all is, however, they have but one price for each article, and that price all must pay alike. There is no such thing as "jewing" allowed. If you buy there you always know that you are getting your money's worth and nobody can buy cheaper.

IN MEMORIAM.

In the death of Wm. H. La Touche, of Penfield, who died on Friday, the 26th ult., aged 49 years and 29 days, I would like, as one who knew him well, to testify as to his true nature, which from his reticence was so little known. I recognize in him a man who was persecuted by his enemies for the faults and frailties which human nature is heir to, always failing and refusing to acknowledge the good qualities which were sanctified to her family and the very few whom he took into his confidence. He was kind and affectionate to all deserving ones, as many a destitute and penniless wayfarer, who has been cared for under his roof, can testify. In his death his wife and children have lost a kind and affectionate husband and father, one who in every emergency made his family the first consideration to be provided for; and many a one will feel the absence of the true friend in time of need, which he has so often been. Sacred to his memory.

S. S. M.

Communicated.

MR. EDITOR.—Dear Sir: I wish to thank you for the favorable notice you gave our Sunday school efforts in your last issue, and especially for the kindly plea for contributions just now so much needed, in order to meet past expenses and carry the work forward. Your readers I am sure will be glad to know that some response to those appeals are already received. For over forty years the friends of our Bible School Society have never suffered its missionaries to become bankrupt. If some of the "friends of Sunday schools have cried for bankrupt laws," I know of not more than one Sunday school superintendent who has been compelled to receive "the benefits of such legislation." I am not sure that he gained any advantage thereby.

You were partly correct in representing ours as a case of bankruptcy, for really it has sometimes seemed hardly possible to pay any part of the dollar in debt. There is a bright side to all these dark experiences. As long as "our fellowship (partnership) is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ," it is certain that we shall never fail. Thanking you again for your kindly mention of our work and the operations of the Clearfield County Sabbath School Association, I am,

Yours, as always, hopefully,
R. CRITTENDEN.

Bellefonte, November 27, 1875.

LETTER FROM SAMUEL LANSBERRY.

BRADFORD TP., Nov. 27, 1875.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN: I notice in several newspapers an item, or statement, to the effect that the suit of the Governor vs. Joseph Lansberry, for the shooting of Butler, cost $8,000—and that the counsel for the defence charged him $5,000, and that of the $8,000 his brother paid all but $800. The truth is, that the entire cost to Lansberry for the trial, including counsel fees, was less than $800, the same being paid out of the funds of Joseph Lansberry. As I attended personally to the matter, I know of every dollar that was paid out. I deem this explanation but justice to the counsel and to Joseph Lansberry.

I am with respect,
SAMUEL LANSBERRY.

A DEPUTY WANTED.—The Punxsutawney Spirit says:

On Sabbath last, while Capt. Brown, of Marchand, Sheriff elect of Indiana county, was returning home from Curwin, where he had been attending church, his horse took fright and started to run. Mr. Brown, his wife and daughter were all thrown out of the buggy—the two latter escaping unhurt, but the Captain being thrown in front of the buggy the wheels passed over his right leg, breaking it between the ankle and knee. Dr. Morrow, of Marchand, was called in and reduced the fracture.

A GOOD MOVEMENT.—The Brookwayville Press, of last week, says:

On Wednesday, a couple of gentlemen were in town from Ramsburger. They are taking of building a turnpike from that place here, and came over to see some of our moneyed men on the subject. A road from Ramsburger to here to be desired, as in that way we could have the mails in about ten hours from Pittsburg, and also make a large saving on freight and express.

PHILIPSBURG JOURNALISMS.—R. D. McKinney has been appointed Deputy Grand Councillor for the district comprising Osceola, Clearfield, Morrisdale Miner and Philipsburg Councils of American Mechanics.

The action brought against the principal of our high school for whipping a scholar in one of the departments, came to a sudden end before the bill of indictment reached the court room. The Grand Jury ignored the bill, and the source of the teacher's ire thus vanished.

Specials.

MRS. DEMOREST PATTERNS.—These patterns are meeting with so much favor that I will soon keep the entire line as given in catalogue, so that any one can be had without delay. A nice assortment of the latest winter styles just received.

PAY YOUR TAXES.—The County Commissioners have given me emphatic notice that if my duplicate for 1875 is not settled up by the 1st of January, that the Sheriff will be after the money soon after that time. Those, therefore, who have not paid me their county tax for 1873 and 1874, or 1875, had better pay up if they want to do the fair thing and save costs besides, as I am determined not to pay other people's debts or keep the county out of its just dues coming from others.

JOHN McCLELLAN,
Clearfield, Dec. 1, 1875-3t Constable.

NEW GOODS AGAIN.—Wm Reed, room No. 2, Opera House, is receiving this week a new stock of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Furs, Floor Oil Cloths, Window Paper and Curtains, Oil Blinds, etc., to which he invites the attention of cash buyers. Reed is selling a great many goods, as he sells cheap for cash. dec1, 1t
