FAILURES AT THE STATE CAPITAL.

The Harrisburg correspondent of the Press draws the following gloomy picture of things at the capital:

The town has been in a fever of excitement for several days, owing to losses incurred by many holders of bonds issued by the State.

THE SCANDAL REVIVED, Very impressive must have been to hear Mr. Moulton respond to the demand of Plymouth church, that he should show cause why his name should not be dropped from the roll for absenteeism.

THE CENTENAL ORATOR.

The vexed question of the Centennial was settled yesterday by the selection of William M. Evans, of New York, with Longfellow as poet and a grandson of Richard Henry Lee as reader of the Declaration of Independence.
