WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 13, 1876. IN FRENCHVILLE! THE OLD FARM HOUSE

The easy chair, all patched with care, Is placed by the cold hearth-stone; With wishing grace, in the old fire-place The evergrees are strove. And pictures hang on the whitened wall, And the old check ticks on the sotings!

More levely still, on the window-sill, The descriped flowers rest,
The descriped flowers rest,
White 'midst the leaves on the moss-gr
The martin builds her nest;
And all day long the souther breaze
Is whispering love to the bunded tree

HOW TO AVOID HARD TIMES

For years have find, with a noisoless tread, Like fairy dreams away,
And in their flight, all shorn of its might,
A father—old and gray
And the soft winds play with the snow white hair
And the old man sleepe in bis easy chair.

Inside the door, on the sanded floor, Light, any footsteps glide, And a maiden fair, with flaxen hair, Kneeds by the old man's side— An old oak wrecked by the angry storm, White the try clings to its trembling form
