CHANGE OF PROPRIETORS.
The undersigned having purchased the store goods and property formerly owned by Lewis Fogel, of Frenchville, Pa., has just received a method of bringing his business to the notice of the public, and promises to furnish his patrons with the very best quality of DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, BOOTS & SHOES,
HATS & CAPS,
TRUNKS & VALISES, at exceedingly low rates. This I am enabled to do, because I have no rent to pay, and can therefore divide the profits with my customers. I may be said that this is an experiment with me, but if selling a good article for a few cents more than cost, and expending trade, I am bound to succeed in my undertaking. Give me a call, examine my stock and learn my prices.
To my large stock of boots and shoes, hats and caps, I have just added a full stock of Gent's Furnishing Goods, which I will sell at the very lowest figures, for cash, or in exchange for country produce, at the highest market price.
