It appears from what is transpiring around us, that the Missouri and Iowa are not the only "hotbeds" in the West...

Well, for the benefit of those of our readers who were not present to see Shapley scalp Wallace, we will state that nobody was hurt.

That is a wonderful state of affairs! Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

The excitement and alarm which the Missouri and Iowa were causing in West, while they raged, did not produce half the alarm in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin...

The correspondent in question in sounding the alarm says: "What makes it so alarming is that it is so general."

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

We mean the Radical stumpers generally. "A scholarly old gentleman, as he was represented to us, named E. J. Morris, was brought all the way from Philadelphia last week, to address the Radicals of our city."

When a man becomes 75 years of age, he should abandon common lying and not disgrace his kindred for four generations.

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

A BURN POP.—The Harrisburg Patriot says: "The Republicans insist on a 'solid south' for Tilden and Hendricks. Are they aware that by so doing they concede 138 electoral votes to the Democracy and that it will require only the votes of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, in addition to the Southern States, to defeat Hayes and Wheeler?"

THE LATEST ATTRACTION AT THE NATIONAL THEATRE.—THE AMBIGUITY OF SUCCESS.—THE PROPRIETORS OF THE "NATIONAL THEATRE" ARE BILLING THEIR ESTABLISHMENT QUITE HEAVILY.

THE PUBLIC HAS BEEN DISAPPOINTED IN NOT WITNESSING ALL THE GREAT ATTRACTIONS enumerated upon the bills, that they have upon this occasion made such arrangements as still insure its complete and enthusiastic success.

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

Why a few Pennsylvanians to such a pitch of indignation and rage, and to such a pitch of indignation and rage...

To show the real inwardness of the politics of the West, we copy from the Sentinel, published at Indianapolis, the following excellent bit of the "thieves' article" in the style of a play bill, but "sharp, descriptive and effective: "RADICAL REFORM."

THE PUBLIC HAS BEEN DISAPPOINTED IN NOT WITNESSING ALL THE GREAT ATTRACTIONS enumerated upon the bills, that they have upon this occasion made such arrangements as still insure its complete and enthusiastic success.

I cannot describe to you how unpleasant is the sensation produced by your profusion of a desire for peace. Why do you not, in the name of the God of Heaven, let us have it? You need but to cease hostilities and the general tranquility will be restored.
