HARD TIMES

HAVE NO EFFECT

IN FRENCHVILLE!

I am aware that there are some persons a little hard to please, and I am also aware that the complaint of "hard times" is well deserved.
But I am so situated now that I can satisfy the former and prove conclusively that "hard times" will not wait upon either and supply them with all my patrons shall be initiated into the secret of it.

HOW TO AVOID HARD TIMES

I have goods enough to supply all the trade in the lower end of the county. I sell at exceedingly low rates from my warehouse in MULBERRY, where I can always be found.
I will wait upon either and supply them with all my patrons shall be initiated into the secret
of it.

Dry Goods of all Kinds,

Such as Cloth, Satinets, Cassimeres, Madras, Dolans, Lenses, Drills, Calicoes,

THE REPUBLICAN.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 11, 1876.

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN SONG.

Alto—Tune "Dixie"

There's a man who's the son
Of the olden time,
For whom the stars are shining
And the people are
In the land of the living
He's the man who's the son
Of the olden time,
For whom the stars are shining
And the people are
In the land of the living

Ye they will take upon themselves
The task of restoring And laying by the chains
The party dominating Oh S. J. Tilden, etc.

Reform the watch word these hard times Give heed, ye people,
Or you will find no room
Such broken vessels,
Oh S. J. Tilden, etc.

There's a man who's the son
Of the olden time,
For whom the stars are shining
And the people are
In the land of the living
He's the man who's the son
Of the olden time,
For whom the stars are shining
And the people are
In the land of the living

Let no guilty man escape,
Command Ourselves
For I am the chief messenger
Of the olden time,
Oh S. J. Tilden, etc.

What one of prison, or law,
If they are disgraced,
If they are disgraced,
If they are disgraced,
Oh S. J. Tilden, etc.

EX-REBELS IN GOVERNMENT EMPLOY.

(Special Correspondence Clearfield Express)

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 20, 1876.—The subsidized Radical press, as well as their Major-Generals and other cross-road orators, continue to raise a terrible howl and endeavor to fire the loyal Northern heart with the false declaration that the Democratic party is influenced and controlled by those who, in the late war, were in rebellion against the Union, when the fact is, from the close of the war to the present time, the Republican party, with Grant at the head, has not only recruited, but officially ordered Union soldiers to stand aside and give lucrative places to open and notorious rebels of the most dishonorable and pusillanimous stripe. The records and documents in the file in the department show the disgraceful fact that Wm. H. Chapman was Lieutenant-Colonel of Colonel John S. Mosby's guerrillas, and is now a Special Agent in the Post-office Department at 82 d. Hays.

His brother, Sam. F. Chapman, was Captain of Company E, same command, and is now a Postal-car Clerk, receiving $1,400 per annum, running between Washington and Richmond.
This man, W. H. Chapman, is the one who tied a Union soldier to a tree, severed from his person his privates, and then placed them in the victim's mouth. He also assisted in the execution of the six Union soldiers belonging to the Sixth Michigan Cavalry.
These atrocious facts were reported to Postmaster Jewell and he dismissed him, but Grant made Jewell reinstate him, and he was the direct cause of Jewell leaving the "Cabinet." These facts can not be successfully denied, as the evidence is on file in the War Department.

The influence in these cases are Grant and Mosby. Elias Griewald, was appointed by Grant, through the influence of Mosby, to an $1,800 clerkship in the Treasury Department Aug.
24, 1876. He was Major and Assistant Adjutant-General of General J. H. Winder's staff, and was in charge of Andersonville prison-prisoners during the war, and also in charge of Castle Thunder and Tobacco Warehouse at the close of the war. John G. Heister was Second Lieutenant on the rebel rank Alabama, and is now a Special Agent in the Department of Justice, through the influence of Senator Morton and Col. Mosby. Miss Jackson, whose father killed young Ellsworth in the Marshall House, in Alexandria, in 1861, is now a five hundred dollar clerk in the Treasury Department through the influence of President Grant and Colonel Mosby.
Mrs. Mumford, whose husband out-down the Stars and Stripes in New Orleans, is now in the Treasury Department at $1,200 per annum, through the influence of Senator Morton and Colonel Mosby. Wm. M. Calkin, Major and Quartermaster in an Alabama Regiment, is now in the General Land Office, receiving $1,600 per annum, through the influence of General Babcock and President Grant. Marcy Adison, a Sergeant in the famous Black Horse Cavalry, is now a clerk at $1,400 per annum in the Surgeon-General's office, through the influence of President Grant. Miss Mosby, a sister of Col. John S. Mosby, is a clerk in the Patent Office at $1,200 per annum, through the influence of President Grant and Col. Mosby. Thomas J. Mosby, a brother of Col. John S.
Mosby, was a hawker during the war, was appointed by General Grant, on the 15th day of August, a Ganger in the Fifth Virginia District, through the influence of Col. Mosby.

There are now twenty-seven of Mosby's guerrillas in the Government departments, including nine more in the Navy yard.

A SOUTHERN ON "THE FLAG."—IN a speech recently delivered to an immense assemblage at Atlanta, Georgia, Ben. Hill made the following invitation to the Flag of the Union floating above him. We commend his words to all our readers.

"All hail the flag! Raise high that flag of our fathers! Let Southern brethren kneel to it! Let Southern refugees kneel to it! Southern patriots will defend it and Southern heroes will die for it! And as its folds unfurl beneath the heavens, let our voices and our arms be united in a grand invocation. Flag of our Union, wave on! wave on! wave on! But wave over freemen, not over subjects. Wave over States, not over Provinces. And now let the voice of patriots from the North and from the East and from the West join our voices from the South, and send to heaven one universal acclamation. Wave on, flag of our fathers! Wave forever! But wave over a
