

The Old Union Saver in full Force!

A STREET ILLUMINATION!

Over a Mile of Fire, Banners, Transparencies, Bands.

TILDEN HENDRICKS AND REFORM

We have spent many happy days in Clearfield, but on Tuesday, October 31st, 1876...

As we go to press, Tuesday after noon the Radicals are still trying to "hold the fort"...

Too Bad!—A number of wicked men in Indiana county are conspiring to defeat that eminent hero, patriot and statesman, Gen. Harry White.

THE WRAKED SEX.—Of the thousands of lost and found articles in the depository on the Centennial grounds...

THE NEW MUSEUM.—The pocketbook and umbrella museum, on the Centennial grounds, is just now one of the most attractive features of the great exhibition.

READ, READ!—The "Massacre of the Alamo," on our first page is an article full of historical facts...

AN ENTERPRISING CURS.—How is the name of the Radical candidate for Sheriff of Philadelphia...

STARTLING FACTS.—Read South Carolina's wrongs, as detailed on our fourth page, and then ask yourself the question...

THE CAPITAL DESERTED.—About 3,000 Radical clerks left Washington on Saturday, Sunday and Monday...

IS THIS WHAT WE'RE PROMISED?—Now, my fellow-citizens, you who voted to bring this administration into existence...

SPEECH OF EX-GOVERNOR BIGLER.—I shall speak kindly of the masses of the Republican party...

REPUBLICAN EXTRAVAGANCE.—Now let us look at figures still more profitable to wit: The total expenses of the government from 1870 to 1890...

RAZKING.—The Phila Judges, in passing over the Registry lists of that city, struck therefrom the names of 21,256 persons...

A GREAT FRAUD.—A fraud of immense magnitude, but equally as infamous as the sale of trader-posts by Belknap...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

MAJORITY IN 73 COUNTIES FOR GOV. IN '76 AND '75.

Table with columns for County, 1875, 1876, and Total. Lists various counties like Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, etc.

TESTIMONIAL TO JUDGE McCANDLESS.

A large and gracefully designed solid silver vase has just been executed by Messrs. Tiffany & Co., and is now on exhibition in their show rooms on Union Square.

STATE ELECTION.

The following table gives the official vote in Pennsylvania for the years 1874 and 1875.

Table with columns for Year, Liberty, and Union. Lists counties like Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, etc.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 26th, 1876.—By the President of the United States: A PROCLAMATION.

From year to year we have been accustomed to pause in our daily pursuits and set apart a time to offer thanks to Almighty God for the special blessings he has bestowed upon us...

PROF. SUMNER'S REASONS.

In speaking of the students of Yale College on the political issues, Prof. Sumner said...

First—When a party has failed in government, it is a sound principle to apply to the opposition...

Second—The opposition promise all manner of free trade and local self-government.

Third—The Democrats offer a non-atomous confidence.

Ever since 1860 I have observed Mr. Tilden's course to be the greatest success...

Again, they have brought against Mr. Tilden a vast number of scandals...

They say, too, that if Tilden is elected the public credit will be ruined.

Now, therefore, I, John F. Hartranft, Governor of Pennsylvania, do recommend that the good people of this Commonwealth...

RESUMPTION WITHOUT PREPARATION.

What would be thought of a farmer who should undertake to raise and deliver to another a certain quantity of produce, and then sign to sell the seed from which it was to spring?

Such preparations are evervthing. Without them, a legislative command fixing a day, an official promise fixing a day, are sham.

They are a snare and a delusion to all who trust them. They destroy all confidence among thoughtful men whose judgment will at last give public opinion.

An attempt to act on such a command or such a promise, without preparation, would end in a new salutation. It would be a fresh calamity, a life of confusion, distrust and disaster.

Disfranchised.—The Pittsburgh Chronicle says the changes made in the pulpits of the Methodist ministry this year are peculiarly unfortunate for those of the divines who desire to vote.

The law states that to a voter one must reside in his district at least sixty days, and as the Pittsburgh and Erie M. E. Conferences met the former September 23d, and the latter October 4th, and ordered the changes for the fall, it is evident that a number of intelligent gentlemen will not be permitted to cast ballots for their Presidential preferences.

SENT BUTLER BACK.—The hero of Datch Gap himself says that it is absolutely necessary he should fill Blaine's place in the House. It would be very pleasant on some accounts to see the peculiar-eyed Ben back in the House. With one eye gazing on the Speaker and the other bearing tenderly on the spittoon, and with expiring ideas cooched in elegant though somewhat halting periods, is a spectacle both impressive and instructive.

THE CENTRAL SALE.—There will be a general sale of all the buildings belonging to the Centennial Board of Finance on Thursday, November 30th, at 11 o'clock a. m. The list comprises the Main Building and Carriage Annex, Agricultural Hall, with Wagon and Photomicrographs, the Art Annex, Photographers' Exhibition Building, Shoe and Leather Building, Judges' Hall, Butter and Cheese Building, Guard Station-houses and various other buildings.

THE REVERSE THEY WANT.—The Radical stampers in this county always turn up their noses when the word "Reform" escapes from their lips. Perhaps the Democratic candidate would be in a similar fix if Ex-Gov. Bigler, Senator Wallace, Judge Barrett, or any other Clearfield County Democrat, who has been engaged in public affairs in the past had either of them gotten away with $20,000 belonging to the public Treasury, without an equivalent, or like the celebrated Oakes "No" put it where it would do the most good—in Radical Senators and Congressmen's pockets.

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

MAJORITY IN 73 COUNTIES FOR GOV. IN '76 AND '75.

Table with columns for County, 1875, 1876, and Total. Lists various counties like Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, etc.

TESTIMONIAL TO JUDGE McCANDLESS.

A large and gracefully designed solid silver vase has just been executed by Messrs. Tiffany & Co., and is now on exhibition in their show rooms on Union Square.

STATE ELECTION.

The following table gives the official vote in Pennsylvania for the years 1874 and 1875.

Table with columns for Year, Liberty, and Union. Lists counties like Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, etc.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 26th, 1876.—By the President of the United States: A PROCLAMATION.

From year to year we have been accustomed to pause in our daily pursuits and set apart a time to offer thanks to Almighty God for the special blessings he has bestowed upon us...

PROF. SUMNER'S REASONS.

In speaking of the students of Yale College on the political issues, Prof. Sumner said...

First—When a party has failed in government, it is a sound principle to apply to the opposition...

Second—The opposition promise all manner of free trade and local self-government.

Third—The Democrats offer a non-atomous confidence.

Ever since 1860 I have observed Mr. Tilden's course to be the greatest success...

Again, they have brought against Mr. Tilden a vast number of scandals...

They say, too, that if Tilden is elected the public credit will be ruined.

Now, therefore, I, John F. Hartranft, Governor of Pennsylvania, do recommend that the good people of this Commonwealth...

RESUMPTION WITHOUT PREPARATION.

What would be thought of a farmer who should undertake to raise and deliver to another a certain quantity of produce, and then sign to sell the seed from which it was to spring?

Such preparations are evervthing. Without them, a legislative command fixing a day, an official promise fixing a day, are sham.

They are a snare and a delusion to all who trust them. They destroy all confidence among thoughtful men whose judgment will at last give public opinion.

An attempt to act on such a command or such a promise, without preparation, would end in a new salutation. It would be a fresh calamity, a life of confusion, distrust and disaster.

Disfranchised.—The Pittsburgh Chronicle says the changes made in the pulpits of the Methodist ministry this year are peculiarly unfortunate for those of the divines who desire to vote.

The law states that to a voter one must reside in his district at least sixty days, and as the Pittsburgh and Erie M. E. Conferences met the former September 23d, and the latter October 4th, and ordered the changes for the fall, it is evident that a number of intelligent gentlemen will not be permitted to cast ballots for their Presidential preferences.

SENT BUTLER BACK.—The hero of Datch Gap himself says that it is absolutely necessary he should fill Blaine's place in the House. It would be very pleasant on some accounts to see the peculiar-eyed Ben back in the House. With one eye gazing on the Speaker and the other bearing tenderly on the spittoon, and with expiring ideas cooched in elegant though somewhat halting periods, is a spectacle both impressive and instructive.

THE CENTRAL SALE.—There will be a general sale of all the buildings belonging to the Centennial Board of Finance on Thursday, November 30th, at 11 o'clock a. m. The list comprises the Main Building and Carriage Annex, Agricultural Hall, with Wagon and Photomicrographs, the Art Annex, Photographers' Exhibition Building, Shoe and Leather Building, Judges' Hall, Butter and Cheese Building, Guard Station-houses and various other buildings.

THE REVERSE THEY WANT.—The Radical stampers in this county always turn up their noses when the word "Reform" escapes from their lips. Perhaps the Democratic candidate would be in a similar fix if Ex-Gov. Bigler, Senator Wallace, Judge Barrett, or any other Clearfield County Democrat, who has been engaged in public affairs in the past had either of them gotten away with $20,000 belonging to the public Treasury, without an equivalent, or like the celebrated Oakes "No" put it where it would do the most good—in Radical Senators and Congressmen's pockets.

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

MAJORITY IN 73 COUNTIES FOR GOV. IN '76 AND '75.

Table with columns for County, 1875, 1876, and Total. Lists various counties like Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, etc.

TESTIMONIAL TO JUDGE McCANDLESS.

A large and gracefully designed solid silver vase has just been executed by Messrs. Tiffany & Co., and is now on exhibition in their show rooms on Union Square.

STATE ELECTION.

The following table gives the official vote in Pennsylvania for the years 1874 and 1875.

Table with columns for Year, Liberty, and Union. Lists counties like Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, etc.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 26th, 1876.—By the President of the United States: A PROCLAMATION.

From year to year we have been accustomed to pause in our daily pursuits and set apart a time to offer thanks to Almighty God for the special blessings he has bestowed upon us...

PROF. SUMNER'S REASONS.

In speaking of the students of Yale College on the political issues, Prof. Sumner said...

First—When a party has failed in government, it is a sound principle to apply to the opposition...

Second—The opposition promise all manner of free trade and local self-government.

Third—The Democrats offer a non-atomous confidence.

Ever since 1860 I have observed Mr. Tilden's course to be the greatest success...

Again, they have brought against Mr. Tilden a vast number of scandals...

They say, too, that if Tilden is elected the public credit will be ruined.

Now, therefore, I, John F. Hartranft, Governor of Pennsylvania, do recommend that the good people of this Commonwealth...

RESUMPTION WITHOUT PREPARATION.

What would be thought of a farmer who should undertake to raise and deliver to another a certain quantity of produce, and then sign to sell the seed from which it was to spring?

Such preparations are evervthing. Without them, a legislative command fixing a day, an official promise fixing a day, are sham.

They are a snare and a delusion to all who trust them. They destroy all confidence among thoughtful men whose judgment will at last give public opinion.

An attempt to act on such a command or such a promise, without preparation, would end in a new salutation. It would be a fresh calamity, a life of confusion, distrust and disaster.

Disfranchised.—The Pittsburgh Chronicle says the changes made in the pulpits of the Methodist ministry this year are peculiarly unfortunate for those of the divines who desire to vote.

The law states that to a voter one must reside in his district at least sixty days, and as the Pittsburgh and Erie M. E. Conferences met the former September 23d, and the latter October 4th, and ordered the changes for the fall, it is evident that a number of intelligent gentlemen will not be permitted to cast ballots for their Presidential preferences.

SENT BUTLER BACK.—The hero of Datch Gap himself says that it is absolutely necessary he should fill Blaine's place in the House. It would be very pleasant on some accounts to see the peculiar-eyed Ben back in the House. With one eye gazing on the Speaker and the other bearing tenderly on the spittoon, and with expiring ideas cooched in elegant though somewhat halting periods, is a spectacle both impressive and instructive.

THE CENTRAL SALE.—There will be a general sale of all the buildings belonging to the Centennial Board of Finance on Thursday, November 30th, at 11 o'clock a. m. The list comprises the Main Building and Carriage Annex, Agricultural Hall, with Wagon and Photomicrographs, the Art Annex, Photographers' Exhibition Building, Shoe and Leather Building, Judges' Hall, Butter and Cheese Building, Guard Station-houses and various other buildings.

THE REVERSE THEY WANT.—The Radical stampers in this county always turn up their noses when the word "Reform" escapes from their lips. Perhaps the Democratic candidate would be in a similar fix if Ex-Gov. Bigler, Senator Wallace, Judge Barrett, or any other Clearfield County Democrat, who has been engaged in public affairs in the past had either of them gotten away with $20,000 belonging to the public Treasury, without an equivalent, or like the celebrated Oakes "No" put it where it would do the most good—in Radical Senators and Congressmen's pockets.

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE SENATOR.—The editor of the Eastern Sentinel, who personally knows our nominee for senator, remarks in this way:

ADVERSE EXPOSURE.—It gives pleasure to know that the Democratic Caucus in New York...

THE