

The effort made by all patriots since the election, to settle the Presidential question...

The Radical candidate for the Vice Presidency vouches for the character of Wells and Anderson...

TRIEUNIAL ASSESSMENT FOR 1877.

Valuation of all property assessed for the year 1877, taxable for State and County purposes...

Table with columns for Townships, Valuation, and various assessment details. Includes a list of townships like Abbeville, Abbeville, Abbeville, etc.

In accordance with the Act of Assembly regulating triennial assessments, and constituting a board of revision...

CLARK BROWN, THOS. A. MOORE, HARRIS HOOPER, Commissioners.

A NATIONAL DISGRACE.

The recent investigation of a Congressional Committee in the frauds practiced on the ballot-box by the Grant-Cameron leaders...

AN EXAMPLE.—An exchange says.

Wade Hampton's father was a millionaire when he died and he left to each of his two daughters by his will, $100,000...

THE NATIONAL ROUTES.—The robbery of the United States Treasury...

Secretary Morrill is determined to make an example of Winslow, the clerk who abstracted the money from the cash room of the Treasury...

COMMERCIAL INNOCENCE.—Some smart individual last week drew a $64,000 check on an Insurance Company...

The fraud was not detected until after the bank officers had sent a number of checks to the office of the Insurance Company...

THE FIRST VICTORY FOR THE TURKS.—Troop, N. Y., January 18.—Yesterday morning five tons of powder, stored in the glazing building of the 'Seeholm' powder mill, exploded...

The explosion was felt for a distance of twenty miles. The firm had a large stock of powder on hand manufactured for the Russian Government.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S REPORT.

The annual report of the Attorney General, just submitted to the Legislature, shows that of twenty-eight claims of the State certified for collection, thirteen have been paid...

VANDERBILT'S DOMESTIC LIFE.—To his family the late Commodore Vanderbilt was kind, warm, and benevolent.

He expected his children to be well married and to live, and he had little patience with those who continued dependent, as several of them did.

THE LATE PRESIDENT.—The late President Lincoln was a man of a high and noble character.

He was a man of a high and noble character, and his death was a great loss to the world.

THE ELECTION RETURNS.—The electoral returns of the State were thrown out in 1873, when the two Houses failed to count the votes for President and Vice President.

In 1874 there was an election for State Treasurer and members of the Legislature. The members carried both, but were again counted out. The official returns were 54-46.

THE CITIZENS OF RICHLAND COUNTY.

The citizens of Richland county, South Carolina, in which Columbia is situated, have held a convention to consider the State's political condition.

WILL NOT GO DOWN.—The latest news from Harrisburg are to the effect that the Legislature, a large majority of the members of which belong to Simon Cameron & Son, refuse to endorse the job of robbing the State of one million dollars for the purpose of putting Jim Milliken and Harry White on a "war footing."

It may be considered a little rough on Jim and Harry, but it is for the taxpayer.

RADICAL PROSPERITY.—The miracle of Radicalism for the past ten years proves as fatal to commercial prosperity as the cholera or yellow fever plagues, which occasionally scourge sections of our country.

The assessment returns of our country when compared with that of three years ago, shows how deep the malady has struck.

DEMOCRATS BEWARE.—The two Speakers of the Senate and House—Newmyer and Meyer—are the slaves of Simon Cameron & Son.

They have purchased them and they are their chattels and must obey them, although slavery has been abolished.

THINNING OUT.—One Radical United States Senator after another is being weeded out of that body, where there is no room for them.

Ex-Gov. A. H. Garland, Democrat, has just been elected to succeed Powell Clayton, of Arkansas.

DOWN IT GOES.—The nearer we approach President Tilden's inauguration day, the lower the price of gold becomes.

It is now one hundred percent less than it was a year ago, and less than it has been for sixteen years.

A NOBLE DEED.—A very good anecdote is told of Judge Abbott, one of the members of the House Investigating Committee which went to South Carolina.

When he was in Charleston he asked the old darkey in his work in his room what made him so slow about building the fire.

OUR INFANT COAL FIELD.—Seward's Coal Trade Journal gives a summary of the coal trade for the past year.

The statement is clear and explicit and gives the business thought throughout the year.

A GOOD IDEA.—The Philadelphia Commonwealth says: "The Radical Cameron ring in our State Legislature are preparing to arm the militia of Pennsylvania to force revolution to aid the Grant conspirators who seek to destroy our Government."

The vote is taken we hope every fellow who votes says will forthwith enroll. The roll of axes, the roll of the drum, and the master roll will never agree in the count.

THE REFORM.—We are indebted to our State Senator, Hon. S. R. Peale, for copies of the Legislative Record.

The first bundle arrived on Friday, containing the proceedings of our lawmakers for the two previous weeks.

AN INTERESTING REMINISCENCE.—On our fourth page will be found an historical account of schools in Clearfield county, for the past fifty years.

It may suit the "patent and folders" to mail and pack once a fortnight, but it don't suit the printers.

BOTH BILLS DEFEATED.—The agreement of the joint committee of Congress, as to the mode of counting the vote for President, is the worst defeat that ever befell "Sitting Bull" Morton.

It has knocked that poor imitator of Robespierre clear off his feet, and the last news we have from the Black Hills, are to the effect that Gen. Crook has driven the murderer of Gen. Custer clear out of the country.

INSPECTOR GENERAL JAMES A. HARDY.

Inspector General James A. Hardy, U. S. A., died in Washington on Friday, Dec. 15th. He was a native of New York, and entered West Point in 1838, graduating in 1843.

TWIN BILL-BOMBERS.—The late two Senators and two Challengers who did all the wicked deeds usually assigned to corrupt men.

They were Simon Cameron and Zachariah Chandler, and they were the worst of the worst.

THE SAINTED BROTHER.—Henry Ware Beecher, last Sunday remarked: "I am not afraid of God. I am not afraid of the Lord Jesus Christ. I am not afraid of hell. I am not afraid of losing heaven."

The New York Sun says: "Does he regard, then, reject his wife? Does he regard, then, reject his wife? Does he regard, then, reject his wife?"

THE FOURTH PAGE.—Besides the advertisements this page of the REPUBLICAN is filled with interesting reading matter.

Take in particular "drank-ennies," "the grass-hopper for war," "the progress of the great conspiracy," "Sherman's two blunders" and "counting the votes."

ARABS FIGHTING OVER CENTENAL PASTORS.—Lenny Hooper in his Paris letter, writes to the Editor of the Tribune: "An echo from the losing doors of the Centennial, and a funny one at that, reached me a few days ago."

It appears that a party of Arabs took to the Exhibition a quantity of olive wax from the Holy Land, and sold large quantities, their net profits amounting to some $25,000.

CORDON, THE EX-TREASURER OF SOUTH CAROLINA, WHO DREW OUT THE MONEY FROM THE STATE TREASURY.

He drew out the money from the State Treasury, and he drew out the money from the State Treasury.

THE CONSPIRATORS AT WASHINGTON.

The conspirators at Washington have tried in every way to confuse the public mind in regard to the real facts in Louisiana, and to sustain the return Board by the grossest misstatements. To cover up the fraud and forgery by which that State has been seized and transferred to Hayes, they have created the impression that the people of Louisiana are to be deprived of their rights, and that the State is to be divided into two parts, one of which they are entitled, and the other which they are not to be divided.

THE CONSPIRATORS AT WASHINGTON.

What the people want is the plain truth, free from all bias and false coloring. In 1870, five years after the war the total population of Louisiana was 725,915, with an excess of about 2,000,000 over blacks. Since then a local census has been taken by Kellogg, but as the object was wholly political, and to support the theory that the blacks are to be divided, the census is not to be accepted as having any substantial value.

THE CONSPIRATORS AT WASHINGTON.

The condition of the State under carpet-bag rule has not had the tendency to invite white immigration, and if any part of the population were to be divided, which Kellogg and his confederates put forth concerning the treatment of the colored people, the necessary effect would be to exclude any influence from that source. Both these influences have conspired against anything more than a normal increase of the population, and that relatively less than in well-governed States, where peace and prosperity prevail.

THE CONSPIRATORS AT WASHINGTON.

The national census taken at the national census took place in 1872 for Governor and President. The Republican Returning Board, headed by Lynch, proceeding without an official report of a single poll in the State, and wholly untrue, took from the State authorities, parties, papers, letters of local leaders, and their personal judgment of what the vote ought to have been, fabricated the following returns:

THE CONSPIRATORS AT WASHINGTON.

The electoral returns of the State were thrown out in 1873, when the two Houses failed to count the votes for President and Vice President. In 1874 there was an election for State Treasurer and members of the Legislature. The members carried both, but were again counted out. The official returns were 54-46.

THE CONSPIRATORS AT WASHINGTON.

Next in order was the Presidential election of last November, with the following results for the highest candidates: Hayes, 54; Tilden, 46. The board, of which J. M. Wells is President, of which J. M. Wells is President, of which J. M. Wells is President.

THE CONSPIRATORS AT WASHINGTON.

It is thus seen that the aggregate at the Presidential election of 1876, out of 1872 by 32,351, or fully 25 per cent. increase, of which the blacks had a full share. Now, allowing three per cent. in 1874 by 13,170, or about ten per cent. of annual increase of the entire population since 1872, the vote would be every five, and the result produced would be some 168,000 more entitled to vote, or only 7,000 more than the number actually cast.

THE CONSPIRATORS AT WASHINGTON.

These proportions are unusually large, they are taken from the Republicans may have every advantage. There is no other State where the vote cast comes so nearly to the aggregate number of voters, showing that the vote was not only cast, but that the circumstances under which it was cast were singularly favorable, especially in an agricultural State, where the polls are far apart, to have brought out such an exhibition of strength.

THE CONSPIRATORS AT WASHINGTON.

At the election for Governor of Louisiana for four years without any color of title to the office, and held up by Federal bayonets alone. His so-called Government would have recalled Kellogg had been acting as Governor of Louisiana for four years without any color of title to the office, and held up by Federal bayonets alone.