Our Special column is decidedly interesting in a local point of view, and profitable reading to outsiders who want to save money.

Dr. Stewart's dental office in the Masonic building, Clearfield, will be open all of next week.

An exchange says that "gloves with twenty-five buttons are worn with ball toilets." They must button down the back.

Lorillard's celebrated brands of Navy Tobacco, "Defiance" and "Our Choice," at Lytle's, sole agent for Clearfield county

Rev. Wm. H. Dill will preach next Sunday, March 4th, at Shawsville at 10½ o'clock a. m.; Goshen at 3 p. m., and Centre at 7 p. m.

Hats with blue glass crowns are the latest new fad. The new glass will start the hair on the smoothest skull in forty-eight hours—or years.

The American potato bug has emigrated to China, and the almond-eyed natives are debating whether to worship it as a strange god, or boil it for soup.

Now that the snow has disappeared, you can discover what you have been throwing into the back yard during the winter. It may surprise you—it generally does.

Rev. J. F. Anderson will preach on Sunday next, March 4th, at Centre M. E. Church at 10½ a. m.; Mt. Joy at 3 p. m., and in the West Clearfield M. E. Church at 7 p. m.

A Clearfield young man who goes about sniffing, and blowing his nose, explained to a friend that "She didn't have any fire in the parlor last Sunday at all, and it was blade cold."

There will be no service in St. Andrew's (Episcopal) Church next Sunday, March 4th, as was announced in the Church. Services will be held on Sunday, March 11th, in place of the one above.

Before many weeks the balmy spring will be here, when your neighbors' chickens will be let come to organize investigating committees in your garden, and you can stand back and swear and throw stones at the lead-mistrual hen as she scratcheth around with her loving brood.

TRIAL LIST.—The following causes have been set down for trial on the second week of the March term of Court, 1877:—

W. B. & L. Association vs. James Haley
W. W. Watson, to use, vs. J. C. Wright & Co.
G. B. Logan vs. Tyrone & Clearfield R. R.
B. & C. Bartholomew vs. T. & Clearfield R. R.

The Journal man ought try the blue glass cure on his dead cows. If fifteen men, composing the Electoral Commission, can fraudulently count Hayes into the Presidency, blue glass will surely resuscitate a dead cows. In the meantime, those Hayes lamps still remain in the Express office, with the "C. O. D." uncollectable.

Banks Holmes feels very indignant because his Rooster "battles" did not stick to him at the recent election, after nominating him for High Constable. His name was fearfully scratched by many Republicans; because he was a darkey, and they didn't like the idea of voting for "a gem'an ob color." However, Banks says he can endure it this time.

Now that Hayes has been "counted in" as President, the Radicals of this borough certainly will not charge him "with impure motives," when we say that it would only be an act of common decency if they would raise some scrip to pay for those lamps, etc., which have been in the Express office at this place since last November, and not "stick" the Express agent for the price of them.

The postoffice tinkers at Washington City are still at work, seizing up things in the P. O. Department. They have recently changed the name of the office at Morrisdale from "Harrisnill" to "Sobieski," perhaps in honor of the Hon. Sobieski Ross, member of Congress from the 16th Pa. District. To pronounce the name properly you must be about one half drunk.

Dr. A. W. Hafer, dentist, of Osceola, was arrested and lodged in jail at this place, charged with having set fire to his house, which was burned down on Friday night, the 16th inst., and notice of which appeared in the columns of this paper last week. The prisoner was taken before his Honor, Judge Holt, last Saturday afternoon, on a writ of habeas corpus, and was released on $500 bail, to appear for trial at the next term of the Court of Quarter Sessions.

A true bill was found in the U. S District Court at Pittsburgh, last week, against Lafayette Bloom, of this county, Adam F. King, John Lance, Shirley B. McMillen, Luke A. Platt, Scott Mardis, A. A. Lock, Phebe Lock, and seven others, in all, against Miles Ogle and W. R. Johnston, for manufacturing and passing counterfeit money. These parties all belong to the celebrated Mardis gang of counterfeiters, which has been operating in this and adjoining counties for a year past.

The Hiawatha Literary Society, connected with the school at Centre, which is taught by Mr. A. R. Read, gave an entertainment last Friday evening, to a house well filled with visitors, who came to witness the exercises. The audience seemed to be well pleased, and went away, no doubt, feeling patriotic; for after seeing the tableau of "Red, White and Blue," represented by three little girls, as well performed, no lover of his country could fail to feel loyal. There was a variety of exercises, and all passed off pleasantly and with much credit to the performers.

A youngster, who has faithfully and punctually attended our High School for the past three winters, and the height of whose ambition is to be a newspaper reporter, handed us the following, recently, which he says is his maiden effort:—

"THE COW.—What a fountain of blessing is a cow! She is the mother of beef, the source of butter, the original source of cheese, to say nothing of shoes, harness, hair, combs, and copper fastenings. A gentle, amiable, ever-yielding creature, who has no joys in her family affairs which she does not share with man. Who rob her of her children that we may rob her of her milk, and only care for her that the robbery may be perpetrated."

Bully for the boy.

To prevent tobacco chewers from being imposed upon, Lorillards have put a tin stamp in every plug of their tobacco. Take none unless so stamped. Lytle is sole agent for Clearfield county.

GO AHEAD.—We notice that the citizens of Lawrence and Pike townships are taking steps to have the bridge across the river, on the line of the Philipsburg and Curwensville turnpike, generally known as "Bloom's bridge," made a free bridge. It is practically free from toll now, but there is no security until the act of Assembly creating the corporation is repealed. We hope our Senator and member of the House will give this matter their undivided attention.

WANTED!—1,000 cords of Hemlock and Rock Oak Bark, for which we will pay the highest market price.

WANTED!—An active, honest man, to sell the Improved Elias Howe Sewing Machine in Clearfield county. To any who wish steady employment, we offer extraordinary inducements. Write to our Special Agent, W. S. Potter, at Brookville, Pa., for terms, information, &c.

FOX CHASE.—The sporting fraternity had quite an exciting time with a fox last Saturday morning, which had been brought to the proprietor of the Shaw House a few days previous. "Reynard" had made an effort to get out on bail, but failing in this, he was taken to Shaw's field, above the old bridge, on the west side of the river, and given a chance to take "leg bail." The riflemen were stationed along the road leading over Coal hill, with orders to "shoot him on the spot"—if the dogs failed to catch before he crossed the road. All the men were in readiness, the fox set at liberty, when he immediately started for the hill, hotly pursued by two hounds, and "Reg." and "Dolph" close upon the rear, one of the latter being armed with a sixteen-shooter and the other with a pair of No. 11 cow hide boots. "Reg" displayed short wind, probably owing to the frequent use of "blue glass," and he was neatly passed by "Dolph" before the first-quarter pole was reached. But, unfortunately, "Dolph" mistook the track of one of the dogs for that of the fox, when he got on the wrong lead and came "a little behind out." The fox in the meantime made for the river-bank and out of range for the "Big Injun," who was stationed all over the hill; but "Burne" gave it a couple rounds from his double-barrelled "rifle," but the range was too long and no damage was done. At the river-bank, matters were getting interesting. "Reg.," "Dolph" and the hounds were close upon "Reynard," who had taken up his position on a huge cake of ice, for the purpose of cooling his fevered brow. At this juncture, one of the gunners left his post, and, getting within twenty-four feet of the fox, and resting his gun on the fence, he succeeded in killing it at the second fire. Thus ended what might have been considerable sport, had the animal not been slain so early in the chase.

Scarcity of Money.

There is no doubt but the present condition of all kinds of business and industry is fearfully depressed, and it behooves every family to look carefully to their expenses. Winter is coming on when children are liable to Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Coughs and colds will prevail everywhere, and Consumption, with other throat and lung diseases, will carry off many. These diseases should not be neglected. Doctor's bills are expensive, and we would advise our people to use BOACHER'S GERMAN SYRUP. It never has failed. One bottle at 75 cents will keep your whole family well during the winter. Two doses will relieve any case. Sold in all towns in the United States, and by your Druggist, C. D. Watson, Clearfield, Pa. apr0, '76-newly.

If you want a good shawl, no matter what kind, go to Fleck & Co's.

TRUE MERIT WILL WIN.

A few year since the proprietors of Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound introduced it here. It was not puffed, but sold on its merits. Our people soon found it to be reliable, and already it has become the most staple and popular pulmonary remedy in the market. It quickly cures the worst coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, asthma and incipient consumption. Nothing acts so nicely in whooping cough, and it is so pleasant that children readily take it. Containing no opium, or other dangerous drug, it is as safe as it is sure. Trial size, 10 cents; large size, 50 cents and one dollar. Sold by C. D. Watson, and Hartswick & Irwin, Druggists, Clearfield, Pa.

Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup is perfectly safe, extremely palatable. No physic required. Costs 25 cents. Try it. For sale by C. D. Watson and Hartswick & Irwin, Clearfield, Pa. mch 22ecwly.

HAIR WORK.

Ladies, when you want hair work done, remember three facts: that Mrs. S. J. Brown did not pick up her trade, but paid a high price and learned it thoroughly; also, that she does not trust her work in the hands of incompetent parties, but attends to each order personally; also, if you want watch guards, hair jewelry, hair flowers, or anything in that line, call on the undersigned, as she does all the work herself in preference to sending it away as other hair-dressers do. For first-class reference call on T. A. Fleck & Co., or call and examine for yourself.
