Up! Up!

The great advance in wheat and corn is attracting the farmer, but it delights the farmer. This we do know. When the grain comes in, it will be a success.

Dr. W. Wilson, of this borough, who has been suffering for some time with typhoid fever, is getting well, although his recovery is retarded by his old rheumatism.

Contributions in the various churches of this borough have been very liberal, and the spring of ladies' hats and bonnets are being introduced, and this is what we expect in the church collections.

Shirley Phipps has postponed her registration until the first Monday in June. According to the new law, an applicant must be at least 21 years of age, and the date of the registration must be approved by the Court. Owing to this law, no dates will be made until May 20.

HERING EASTWARD—Mr. J. K. Seay, of the firm of Joseph Seay & Sons, Lockport, Pa., has returned to his home, and will be passing through this place last Monday, May 7, to go to his home in Lockport.

ANOTHER LARGE FISH—A correspondence at Kyrlestown informs that Mrs. Jerry Hoover, Sr., of Morris township, showed him a large fish, which she thought would beat that of Mrs. Hoover's fish, which was a record for this township. It weighed 40 pounds, and was 40 inches long, and 10 inches wide.

A YOUTHFUL WEDDING—We learn from the Athens Sun, that on Tuesday, the 24th ult., Rev. H. Baker, of this city, united in the bonds of holy wedlock Mr. Owen Wagner and Miss Helen Wagner. The ceremony was witnessed by the bride's parents, and a number of guests. The bride is a native of this city.

A RETURNED MISSIONARY—An ex-comeback says that Rev. J. D. Brown, late Missionary for India, has been appointed Superintendent of the Central Pa. M. E. Conference, at a salary of $1,200, in addition to his other duties.

The Newporters are catching hundreds of shad in the Juniata. That's the place. The fish are the size of the Columbia shad, and are being marketed in this city. The shad are being marketed in this city.

A NEW TUNE—It has happened recently, in the trial of cases before the Justice of the Peace, that the Justice, after hearing the evidence, would deliver the case to the jury, and the jury would deliver the case to the Justice. This is a new tune.

DEFEAT—Centre county took a vote on the Poor House question, a few weeks ago. The vote was 117 for and 113 against. The Poor House was voted solid against it. It was voted against it.

ONE LOSS—John B. Rafferty, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Pennsylvania, died on Friday, April 20th, aged 68 years. He was a native of Ireland, and had lived in this city for many years.

ADAM-LIKE—When Adam was discovered with the apple in his mouth, and was reproached for his transgression, he replied: "The woman whom thou gavest me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat." The editor of the Altoona Mirror tries to get out of it in this way.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE CLEARFIELD COUNTY Agricultural Society, informs us that an effort was made to hold a race from time to time, but it failed to attract the public. The race was held on the 24th inst., but it failed to attract the public.

THE LARGE SHOW-WINDOWS at Head's store are springing a new and interesting lot of goods. The display of spring styles of hats is large and handsome.

As the warm evenings draw near, the night dress becomes the fashion. The night dress is a fashion that is becoming more and more popular.

We are requested to announce that Rev. W. M. Wilson will preach in the West-Central M. E. Church next Sabbath evening, at 8 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Major Frank M. Hill has been appointed Postmaster at Tyrone, in the place of James P. Thomson, whose commission has expired. Mr. Hill took charge of the office yesterday, May 1st.

"The License question" was elaborately treated in the Bellevue Westlake last week. No fear in the West Ward, and therefore, nothing to drink, and all travelers who stop at the depot must "sign dry."

There is still a change in the lumber market. The price of lumber has advanced, and this is a good sign for the lumber industry.

By order of the Postmaster General, the Postmaster throughout the country are now weighing all mail matter received at and forwarded from their respective offices daily. This is to be kept up for thirty days, the idea being to fix the value of the mail service.

The Baptist Church at Curwensville was much improved by having the organ fixed. The organ is now in the best of repair, and is a great asset to the church.

The County Commissioners are now and will be in session for a few days. Let them reside in the vicinity of the Courthouse, and not in the "back woods" as they are often called.

From present appearances potato bugs are not in the field as yet. The potato bug is a pest that is becoming more and more common.

Two young gentlemen of this place went out to the farm, and they found a nest of birds. The nest was full of eggs, and was a great find.

A couple of gentlemen, who live in a small town north of this city, were proceeding in their car on a night last week, when a lamp of light from the road stopped them, and they were taken to the hospital.
