

THE "CLEARFIELD REPUBLICAN," PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY, BY GOODLANDER & LEE, CLEARFIELD, PA. ESTABLISHED IN 1827.

MUCH IN LITTLE. —Our vanity is the constant enemy of our dignity. —A round of pleasure—A promenade concert. —When our vices quit us, we flatter ourselves that we quit our vices. —He who swears informs us that his bare word is not to be credited. —Folks don't "fall" now-a-days. They "ask the advice of their creditors." —Vanity makes men ridiculous, pride odious, and ambition terrible. —Society men were not the disciples of our fathers. —In all the affairs of this world, so much reputation is in reality so much power. —Nobody looks any longer at the rainbow which has lasted a quarter of an hour. —Vanity indeed is a venial error; for it carries its own punishment with it. —Our evil genius, like the junior member of a deliberative body, always gets its views first. —If we had no faults ourselves, we should not have so much pleasure in discovering the faults of others. —Our repentance is not so much a regret for the evil we have done as a fear of what may be the consequences. —A Milwaukee man ate five loaves of bread and two hams for a wager, the other day. He thought he was making King of Sweden's Island. —It is said a certain Boston divine never said a blessing over a table where there is wine or liquor. Perhaps he thinks it is good enough without. —A fair one says she knows what she's talking about, and that it just doubles the value of a kiss to have to swallow it under a big mistake. —A Chicago grocer stuck out a sign, "Barrel and saw my figs." A laborer changed the initial letter of the last word, and the sign was promptly taken in. —A poor man, who was ill, being asked by a gentleman whether he had taken any remedy, replied, "No, I ain't taken any remedy, but I've taken lots of physic."

NOTIOUS ASSEMBLIES. JUROR DEAR'S CHARGE TO THE GRAND JURY IN RELATION THEREON. Court was in session at Hollidaysburg, during the riotous riot at Altoona, and His Honor, Judge Dean, in charging the Grand Jury, presented the law relating to mobs and riots so plain and full that we deem it our duty to lay the charge before our readers, so that they may learn the law, too, and can, therefore, in the future, discharge their duties in the premises intelligently, as becomes good citizens.
