

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 6, 1877.

MAXIMS FOR THE DAY.

No man worthy the office of President should be willing to hold it in content, or to stand before any fraud.

Under the terms of the new constitution, the President is to be elected for a term of four years.

STOP! Look the STRIKE fairly in the face! A good many thousands are over the country, here out of employment before it begins.

PRETTY GUARDS.—In how many towns that the National Guards of this State, who have cost the people hundreds of thousands of dollars already to strut about at encampments and public drills.

ATTENTION, CANDIDATES.—On and after the 22d of August, the announcement of the names of candidates for Prothonotary, Register and Recorder, and County Surveyor, will be in order.

TWIN SPOURS.—The Harrisburg Independent says: "A fashionable young lady dropped one of her false eyebrows in a church pew, and hadly frightened a young man next to her who thought it was his mustache."

A GOOD JUNO.—The following interview between the Judge and a juror, occurred in a St. Louis court: Judge—"Do you understand the nature of an oath?" Juror—"Of course I do," was the reply.

BANK STRENGTH.—This community was considerably surprised on Tuesday week by learning that the Lock Haven National Bank had suspended.

OHIO.—The Radicals of this State, on the 1st inst., nominated the following ticket for State officers: Governor—W. H. West of Bethelton.

AT LIBERTY AGAIN.—RE-GOVERNOR Moses, of South Carolina, who was recently arrested and imprisoned for practicing numerous frauds on the State Treasury while Governor, finally, after a ten days' effort on the part of his friends, succeeded in raising $10,000 bail, which opened the prison door, and he is again a free man.

The present evils which afflict us are directly chargeable to misgovernment. Gross political immorality, as a rule, has been witnessed on every hand for fifteen years, until the social grade has become about as low in the scale of morals as the former.

Again: The opportunity has developed over the other alarming fact. The rioters had scored of sympathizers in every community, and they are men, who, heretofore have passed for good citizens.

The present conflict between capital and labor is causeless and wrong. It is like a quarrel between husband and wife, and not very lovely or edifying to the children, and tends to ruin, rather than to render any one happy.

The working man who assists in creating a mob, acts like the man in the fable. He was the owner of a goose which laid him a good sized golden egg every day.

It is remarkable that there should prove to be so many men among us who possess good common sense, and yet they lack proper spirit to "let well enough alone."

At WORK.—Since we wrote our "cashiering" article, the Governor's special order No. 24, has come to hand, and reads as follows:

THE DISCONSOLATE.—The recent widespread spirit of rioting and lawlessness has shaken the faith of many of our people in our form of government.

That is a pretty good prancing hawk, but it is a little too wild when viewed with military eyes. However, there is no use in hanging men of this kind.

SOILED.—The breaking out of the railroad riots at Martinsburg, West Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, was a perfect bonanza for the editors of the Philadelphia Bulletin, Johnstown Tribune, and such other journals that are controlled by editorial bigots and skunks.

REMARKABLY.—The Pittsburgh Gazette rejoicingly remarks: "The railroad strikers have delivered up all the property in their hands to the company."

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

We know by very little about military science or the laws of war, but viewing affairs at a considerable distance from the field of the recent operations, we have come to the conclusion that a wholesome lesson might be imparted to those who engage in future wars, if a little were done in the cashiering line.

It is amusing to see the California press this season, let him order a number of Courts' Martial and send for those gallant (?) members of the NATIONAL GUARDS of Pennsylvania, who delivered their guns and ammunition over to the mob, and have them explain why they performed this criminal act.

We are rather glad that the Radical would National, instead of State, as the Democrats insisted that the soldiers of the Commonwealth should be named, is the title under which so many "white leathers" were displayed.

Really it means nothing; but what it means is that Congress shall furnish work in the national bureau of industry at "fair prices," &c. &c.

The Daily News correspondent, telegraphing from Belgrade, 15 miles from the fighting on Monday, says that the Russian forces were estimated at 50,000.

THE DISCONSOLATE.—The recent widespread spirit of rioting and lawlessness has shaken the faith of many of our people in our form of government.

That is a pretty good prancing hawk, but it is a little too wild when viewed with military eyes. However, there is no use in hanging men of this kind.

SOILED.—The breaking out of the railroad riots at Martinsburg, West Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, was a perfect bonanza for the editors of the Philadelphia Bulletin, Johnstown Tribune, and such other journals that are controlled by editorial bigots and skunks.

REMARKABLY.—The Pittsburgh Gazette rejoicingly remarks: "The railroad strikers have delivered up all the property in their hands to the company."

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

The Hayes party held a State Convention at Cleveland, Ohio, one day last week, and put quite a number of new planks in its platform as remedies for the numerous wrongs with which the country is afflicted.

It seems that our string of riots and murders strikes deep into the hearts of our people, and they may have annoyed us a two day's engagement on the 30th and 31st of Tuesday, July 30th and 31st, on the plains of Plevna, on the river Vist, a tributary of the Danube.

The Daily News correspondent, telegraphing from Belgrade, 15 miles from the fighting on Monday, says that the Russian forces were estimated at 50,000.

THE DISCONSOLATE.—The recent widespread spirit of rioting and lawlessness has shaken the faith of many of our people in our form of government.

That is a pretty good prancing hawk, but it is a little too wild when viewed with military eyes. However, there is no use in hanging men of this kind.

SOILED.—The breaking out of the railroad riots at Martinsburg, West Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, was a perfect bonanza for the editors of the Philadelphia Bulletin, Johnstown Tribune, and such other journals that are controlled by editorial bigots and skunks.

REMARKABLY.—The Pittsburgh Gazette rejoicingly remarks: "The railroad strikers have delivered up all the property in their hands to the company."

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

The Hayes party held a State Convention at Cleveland, Ohio, one day last week, and put quite a number of new planks in its platform as remedies for the numerous wrongs with which the country is afflicted.

It seems that our string of riots and murders strikes deep into the hearts of our people, and they may have annoyed us a two day's engagement on the 30th and 31st of Tuesday, July 30th and 31st, on the plains of Plevna, on the river Vist, a tributary of the Danube.

The Daily News correspondent, telegraphing from Belgrade, 15 miles from the fighting on Monday, says that the Russian forces were estimated at 50,000.

THE DISCONSOLATE.—The recent widespread spirit of rioting and lawlessness has shaken the faith of many of our people in our form of government.

That is a pretty good prancing hawk, but it is a little too wild when viewed with military eyes. However, there is no use in hanging men of this kind.

SOILED.—The breaking out of the railroad riots at Martinsburg, West Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, was a perfect bonanza for the editors of the Philadelphia Bulletin, Johnstown Tribune, and such other journals that are controlled by editorial bigots and skunks.

REMARKABLY.—The Pittsburgh Gazette rejoicingly remarks: "The railroad strikers have delivered up all the property in their hands to the company."

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

Mr. Lafayette S. Grover was elected United States Senator by the Oregon Legislature last winter. He was the Governor of the State at the time, and issued a certificate to Crokin, one of the Democratic electors, because of the Hayes electors was a Postmaster at the time of his election, and therefore Constitutionally disqualified.

It is amusing to see the California press this season, let him order a number of Courts' Martial and send for those gallant (?) members of the NATIONAL GUARDS of Pennsylvania, who delivered their guns and ammunition over to the mob, and have them explain why they performed this criminal act.

We are rather glad that the Radical would National, instead of State, as the Democrats insisted that the soldiers of the Commonwealth should be named, is the title under which so many "white leathers" were displayed.

Really it means nothing; but what it means is that Congress shall furnish work in the national bureau of industry at "fair prices," &c. &c.

The Daily News correspondent, telegraphing from Belgrade, 15 miles from the fighting on Monday, says that the Russian forces were estimated at 50,000.

THE DISCONSOLATE.—The recent widespread spirit of rioting and lawlessness has shaken the faith of many of our people in our form of government.

That is a pretty good prancing hawk, but it is a little too wild when viewed with military eyes. However, there is no use in hanging men of this kind.

SOILED.—The breaking out of the railroad riots at Martinsburg, West Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, was a perfect bonanza for the editors of the Philadelphia Bulletin, Johnstown Tribune, and such other journals that are controlled by editorial bigots and skunks.

REMARKABLY.—The Pittsburgh Gazette rejoicingly remarks: "The railroad strikers have delivered up all the property in their hands to the company."

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

The consolidationists are taking advantage of the present disturbances to urge the necessity of a "stronger Federal Government." This is all wrong. It is precisely the opposite thing that is needed.

It is amusing to see the California press this season, let him order a number of Courts' Martial and send for those gallant (?) members of the NATIONAL GUARDS of Pennsylvania, who delivered their guns and ammunition over to the mob, and have them explain why they performed this criminal act.

We are rather glad that the Radical would National, instead of State, as the Democrats insisted that the soldiers of the Commonwealth should be named, is the title under which so many "white leathers" were displayed.

Really it means nothing; but what it means is that Congress shall furnish work in the national bureau of industry at "fair prices," &c. &c.

The Daily News correspondent, telegraphing from Belgrade, 15 miles from the fighting on Monday, says that the Russian forces were estimated at 50,000.

THE DISCONSOLATE.—The recent widespread spirit of rioting and lawlessness has shaken the faith of many of our people in our form of government.

That is a pretty good prancing hawk, but it is a little too wild when viewed with military eyes. However, there is no use in hanging men of this kind.

SOILED.—The breaking out of the railroad riots at Martinsburg, West Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, was a perfect bonanza for the editors of the Philadelphia Bulletin, Johnstown Tribune, and such other journals that are controlled by editorial bigots and skunks.

REMARKABLY.—The Pittsburgh Gazette rejoicingly remarks: "The railroad strikers have delivered up all the property in their hands to the company."

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

The consolidationists are taking advantage of the present disturbances to urge the necessity of a "stronger Federal Government." This is all wrong. It is precisely the opposite thing that is needed.

It is amusing to see the California press this season, let him order a number of Courts' Martial and send for those gallant (?) members of the NATIONAL GUARDS of Pennsylvania, who delivered their guns and ammunition over to the mob, and have them explain why they performed this criminal act.

We are rather glad that the Radical would National, instead of State, as the Democrats insisted that the soldiers of the Commonwealth should be named, is the title under which so many "white leathers" were displayed.

Really it means nothing; but what it means is that Congress shall furnish work in the national bureau of industry at "fair prices," &c. &c.

The Daily News correspondent, telegraphing from Belgrade, 15 miles from the fighting on Monday, says that the Russian forces were estimated at 50,000.

THE DISCONSOLATE.—The recent widespread spirit of rioting and lawlessness has shaken the faith of many of our people in our form of government.

That is a pretty good prancing hawk, but it is a little too wild when viewed with military eyes. However, there is no use in hanging men of this kind.

SOILED.—The breaking out of the railroad riots at Martinsburg, West Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, was a perfect bonanza for the editors of the Philadelphia Bulletin, Johnstown Tribune, and such other journals that are controlled by editorial bigots and skunks.

REMARKABLY.—The Pittsburgh Gazette rejoicingly remarks: "The railroad strikers have delivered up all the property in their hands to the company."

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

RATHER TRUTHFUL.—A Washington Correspondent told the Hartford Times that the people of Boston were more easily frightened by persons of her calling than those of other cities in the United States!

CONSPIRACY.—The Iowa Radicals have straddled the liquor question. They adopted the straight prohibition, but they do not allow for a liquor.

READ THIS.—For the purpose of putting our readers as to what the law is in relation to riots, we lay before them the recent charge of Judge Deah, which will be found at length on our first page.

The Tribune says:—Ben Wade may die, but he will not be succeeded. Who, if he will do the former it doesn't matter, so much difference about the latter.—Boston Post.

Mrs. Partington's:—It was not hunger but perfect consumption that started the recent strike that ended in such an awful riot.

The Ohio Republicans want a "National Bureau of Industry," which means a national system for political loafers.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that Letters of Administration on the estate of JESSE WEAVER, late of Clearfield County, Pa., deceased, were granted to the undersigned, and all persons indebted to said decedent, or having claims against said estate, are required to present and verify their claims for settlement with the undersigned, on or before the 20th day of August, 1877, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the office of the undersigned, in Clearfield County, Pa., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

CAUTION.—All persons are hereby notified that the following property was sold by the undersigned, on the 20th day of August, 1877, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the office of the undersigned, in Clearfield County, Pa., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that Letters of Administration on the estate of JESSE WEAVER, late of Clearfield County, Pa., deceased, were granted to the undersigned, and all persons indebted to said decedent, or having claims against said estate, are required to present and verify their claims for settlement with the undersigned, on or before the 20th day of August, 1877, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the office of the undersigned, in Clearfield County, Pa., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

CAUTION.—All persons are hereby notified that the following property was sold by the undersigned, on the 20th day of August, 1877, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the office of the undersigned, in Clearfield County, Pa., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that Letters of Administration on the estate of JESSE WEAVER, late of Clearfield County, Pa., deceased, were granted to the undersigned, and all persons indebted to said decedent, or having claims against said estate, are required to present and verify their claims for settlement with the undersigned, on or before the 20th day of August, 1877, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the office of the undersigned, in Clearfield County, Pa., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

THE EASTERN WAR.

The Turks Win An Important Victory

Eight Thousand Russians Killed. Sixteen Thousand Wounded.

PLEVNA THE BATTLE FIELD.

TURKISH LOSSES COMPATIVELY SMALL.

It seems that our string of riots and murders strikes deep into the hearts of our people, and they may have annoyed us a two day's engagement on the 30th and 31st of Tuesday, July 30th and 31st, on the plains of Plevna, on the river Vist, a tributary of the Danube.

The Daily News correspondent, telegraphing from Belgrade, 15 miles from the fighting on Monday, says that the Russian forces were estimated at 50,000.

THE DISCONSOLATE.—The recent widespread spirit of rioting and lawlessness has shaken the faith of many of our people in our form of government.

That is a pretty good prancing hawk, but it is a little too wild when viewed with military eyes. However, there is no use in hanging men of this kind.

SOILED.—The breaking out of the railroad riots at Martinsburg, West Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, was a perfect bonanza for the editors of the Philadelphia Bulletin, Johnstown Tribune, and such other journals that are controlled by editorial bigots and skunks.

REMARKABLY.—The Pittsburgh Gazette rejoicingly remarks: "The railroad strikers have delivered up all the property in their hands to the company."

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

SENATOR MORTON'S DEFEAT.

Mr. Lafayette S. Grover was elected

United States Senator by the Oregon Legislature last winter. He was the Governor of the State at the time, and issued a certificate to Crokin, one of the Democratic electors, because of the Hayes electors was a Postmaster at the time of his election, and therefore Constitutionally disqualified.

It is amusing to see the California press this season, let him order a number of Courts' Martial and send for those gallant (?) members of the NATIONAL GUARDS of Pennsylvania, who delivered their guns and ammunition over to the mob, and have them explain why they performed this criminal act.

We are rather glad that the Radical would National, instead of State, as the Democrats insisted that the soldiers of the Commonwealth should be named, is the title under which so many "white leathers" were displayed.

Really it means nothing; but what it means is that Congress shall furnish work in the national bureau of industry at "fair prices," &c. &c.

The Daily News correspondent, telegraphing from Belgrade, 15 miles from the fighting on Monday, says that the Russian forces were estimated at 50,000.

THE DISCONSOLATE.—The recent widespread spirit of rioting and lawlessness has shaken the faith of many of our people in our form of government.

That is a pretty good prancing hawk, but it is a little too wild when viewed with military eyes. However, there is no use in hanging men of this kind.

SOILED.—The breaking out of the railroad riots at Martinsburg, West Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, was a perfect bonanza for the editors of the Philadelphia Bulletin, Johnstown Tribune, and such other journals that are controlled by editorial bigots and skunks.

REMARKABLY.—The Pittsburgh Gazette rejoicingly remarks: "The railroad strikers have delivered up all the property in their hands to the company."

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

HOMERULE.

The consolidationists are taking advantage of the present disturbances to urge the necessity of a "stronger Federal Government." This is all wrong. It is precisely the opposite thing that is needed.

It is amusing to see the California press this season, let him order a number of Courts' Martial and send for those gallant (?) members of the NATIONAL GUARDS of Pennsylvania, who delivered their guns and ammunition over to the mob, and have them explain why they performed this criminal act.

We are rather glad that the Radical would National, instead of State, as the Democrats insisted that the soldiers of the Commonwealth should be named, is the title under which so many "white leathers" were displayed.

Really it means nothing; but what it means is that Congress shall furnish work in the national bureau of industry at "fair prices," &c. &c.

The Daily News correspondent, telegraphing from Belgrade, 15 miles from the fighting on Monday, says that the Russian forces were estimated at 50,000.

THE DISCONSOLATE.—The recent widespread spirit of rioting and lawlessness has shaken the faith of many of our people in our form of government.

That is a pretty good prancing hawk, but it is a little too wild when viewed with military eyes. However, there is no use in hanging men of this kind.

SOILED.—The breaking out of the railroad riots at Martinsburg, West Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, was a perfect bonanza for the editors of the Philadelphia Bulletin, Johnstown Tribune, and such other journals that are controlled by editorial bigots and skunks.

REMARKABLY.—The Pittsburgh Gazette rejoicingly remarks: "The railroad strikers have delivered up all the property in their hands to the company."

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

THE TWO MATTHEWS.—The Hayes administration has developed two most eminent men by the name of Matthews, but neither of them imitate the Saint allied to in the New Testament.

Democratic Primary Election Rules of Clearfield County.

CHIEF OFFICERS.

1. The organization of the County Convention shall be held on the 1st day of August, 1877, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the office of the undersigned, in Clearfield County, Pa., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

2. The number of delegates to be elected shall be as follows:—

Clearfield township, 1 delegate; ...

3. The election for delegates to represent the several districts in the County Convention shall be held on the 1st day of August, 1877, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the office of the undersigned, in Clearfield County, Pa., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

4. Every qualified voter of the district, who is entitled to vote at the election, shall be entitled to vote at the election.

5. The voting of all delegates elected shall be by ballot, upon which shall be written the name of the person to be elected.

6. Every qualified voter of the district, who is entitled to vote at the election, shall be entitled to vote at the election.

7. The voting of all delegates elected shall be by ballot, upon which shall be written the name of the person to be elected.

8. Every qualified voter of the district, who is entitled to vote at the election, shall be entitled to vote at the election.

9. The voting of all delegates elected shall be by ballot, upon which shall be written the name of the person to be elected.

10. Every qualified voter of the district, who is entitled to vote at the election, shall be entitled to vote at the election.

THE GREAT NEW YORK STATE CIRCUS.

Watch for it! Wait for it!

RECOLLECT THE BIG SHOW WILL BE HEARD ON Monday, August 13, 1877.

WILD BEASTS.

DASHING RIDERS.

BARING GYMNASTS.

FUNNY CLOWNS.

PERFORMING DOGS.

ACTING MONKEYS.

Don't fail to get a ticket, and see the Best Circus now in America.

And know that you are going to see just what is advertised, for this exhibition is dependent upon its merits for success.

Every thing choice, unique and elegant. Everything in place, nothing to offend.

A grand street parade will take place at 10 o'clock in the morning, when the procession will be led by the GORGEOUS BAND CHARIOT, followed by the performers in carriages, and the mounted band containing the wild animals.

WILL EXHIBIT AT CLEARFIELD.

Monday, August 13th, CURWENVILLE, Saturday, August 11th.