Our Special column is decidedly interesting in a local point of view, and profitable reading to outsiders who want to save money.

Mr. A. R. Read, of this place, will teach the Osceola high school this winter.

The Huntingdon Globe now circulates a half-a—circle. That's too premature, Tyburst, for such a big meme!

Rev. Wm. H. Dill will preach at Wolf Run School House next Sunday, October 21st, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

Squirrels and pheasants are not very plenty about this vicinity. Some few are brought in by our sportsmen and crack shots.

Farmers having oats to sell, should read the notice of F. M. Cardon & Brother, headed "Oats Wanted," in our special column to-day.

One thousand bushels Oats wanted, for which one-half cash will be paid, by G. C. & T. W. Moore. Other grain in proportion. 17-2t

A Good Idea.—Postmaster Gaulin advises us to put a perch in our Postoffice drawer, so that our roosters can rest better. Let them crow!

Fowler & Guyer, recently engaged in the lumber business at Tyrone, Pa., have dissolved partnership. Read their notice in another column.

Fishers for black bass still continue to visit Fulton's dead water, notwithstanding the chilliness of the weather. Not many fish are caught just now, however.

The test well at Hyner's Station, in Clinton county, has proved a fortunate investment for the stockholders. Oil was struck at a depth of 1,650 feet.

A hog weighing 650 pounds will be shot for in a match, which will come off at Gallitzin, Cambria county, on Saturday, 27th inst. The match will be free to all.

A couple of dozen of Odd Fellows of Clearfield Lodge, left this, Tuesday, morning for Du Bois City, where they will assist the Grand officers in organizing a Lodge.

Sale of Unclaimed Freight.—Mr. George W. Reynolds, Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad at this station, advertises some unclaimed freight for sale, on Wednesday, the 31st instant.

All Right Now.—The compositor made some errors in setting up the report of the First National Bank of Clearfield last week. We reproduce the statement this week properly corrected.

Capt. Clark, of Osceola, recently arrested a fellow from Huntsdale, and landed him in jail at this place, for forging a note on a gentleman of Huntsdale. The forger was arrested at Reynoldsville, whither he had skipped after the forgery.

The entertainment given in the Court House last Friday evening, by the Clearfield Temperance Union, was a very pleasant affair. The reading and singing were excellent. The hat was passed around, and the audience "shelled out" very liberally.

A Squasher.—Hugh Kelly, residing on Sheriff Pentz's farm, in Brady township, claims to be the champion squash grower this season. He has lots of them, and one that tilted the scales at 110 pounds. Let somebody counter on Kelly and take the belt.

Self-Feeding.—The Brookville Jeffersonian says: "A Shadigee farmer, aged 54 years, cut four new teeth the other day. He hadn't got accustomed to them yet, and they fell in the straw-cutter while he was swearing at the self-feeding attachment."

"Court Three Nots," No. 11, of the Order of Forestry, was recently instituted at Houtzdale, in this county. It is a benevolent and charitable institution, and is rapidly increasing in membership and favor in many parts of this and adjoining States.

Farmers, take notice that S. Guinzburg pays cash for wheat, corn, oats and buckwheat, at his store in Clearfield, or will exchange boots and shoes for all kinds of grain, just as customers may elect. See his big and little advertisements in this issue.

The Hollidaysburg Standard tells of a lady residing in that place who received by mail the other day a gold chain which was stolen from her thirty-five years ago, evidently by one of her youthful schoolmates, while a pupil at Mount Joy Seminary. A case of conscience long drawn out.

Tooth Carpentering.—An exchange says that the Goodyear Dental Vulcanite Company, of Boston, Massachusetts, entered twenty-three suits in the U. S. Circuit Court at Pittsburg, recently, against Pennsylvania dentists, to restrain them from using vulcanite in the manufacture of false teeth.

In Washington.—Senator Wallace, and a portion of his family, left for Washington last Thursday morning, to be present at the opening of Congress. The Postoffice address of the family during the session will be No. 24 Grant Place, Washington, D. C. Correspondents will please bear the address in mind.

The telephone may be well enough as a musical discriminator, but what the country needs is the invention of some sort of musical conductor which may be applied to hand organs and tin-pan pianoes, in such a manner as to conduct the "music" noiselessly off, and dump it in some out-of-the-way place, where it will not become offensive.

Leon M. and S. N. Coudriet, Administrators of the estate of Francis Coudriet, dec'd, will sell a valuable lot of personal property at public sale, at the late residence of the deceased, in Covington township, on Thursday, Oct. 25th. The property consists of store goods, logs and lumber, horse, cow, hogs, wagons, grain, household furniture, etc. Read the advertisement in another column of this paper.

"Summer from her golden collar slips and strays through stubble fields," while John A. Stock continues to sell the best of tobaccos and cigars at his establishment on Second street, Clearfield, Pa.

There is no excuse for young men refusing to marry. Two papers were recently married in the Huntingdon county poor house. He's [illegible]

The Boy Ordinance.—We learn that the borough fathers have passed the Belle fonte municipal idea of governing boys. That is a step in the right direction. The next one is, enforce it. We hope the boys will govern themselves accordingly. We will publish the document in full next week.

Rev. H. S. Butler and Elder A. M. Hills will represent the interests of the Clearfield Presbyterian congregation at Synod, which meets in Harrisburg, to-morrow (Thursday) evening, and will continue in session over Sabbath. There will be no preaching services in the Presbyterian Church, in this place, next Sabbath.

Perhaps.—Our brother Daniel, residing at Luthersburg, informs us that he raised apples this season which weighed eighteen ounces each—lots of them. But he neglected to forward us a sample. Apples of that weight are evidently very large, and the best way to make a long story short is to forward a bushel or two as samples, so as to settle the credulity of strangers and others who are in the apple business. We have no doubts on the subject, but others may have.

Hip! Hip! Hurrah! Ohio gone Democratic, 30,000 majority for Bishop; and Jno. A. Stock sell cigars and tobacco as cheap as ever.

About Time.—It looks now as tho' the borough fathers were going to give the ten year old boys some attention in an official way. If our Burgess and Councilmen have no more "back bone" than some of the parents who allow their children to attend the devil's school every night until nine o'clock, and even later, the old imp and his pupils will come off first best.

New Goods received daily at Fleck & Co.'s, and old goods sold without regard to cost.

Mr. Jos. Spackman has purchased the Drug Store formerly owned by A. I. Shaw, and having received a fresh supply of Drugs, is now prepared to fill all orders for anything in his line. Mr. Spackman is a practical druggist, a graduate of the College of Pharmacy, and prescriptions will therefore be carefully compounded if sent to his store. His advertisement will appear next week.

List of letters remaining unclaimed in the Postoffice at Clearfield, for the week ending October 13, 1877 :—

Lewis Ammerman,	William T. Holland,
Miss Lizzie Caldwell,	Daniel M. Jinkins,
Adam Dixon,	Rachael Pearce,
William Davis,	David Sharp.
Miss Mary Hill.	P. A. Gaulin, P. M.

Ladies' Satchels, a new lot just received, at Fleck & Co.'s. 10-tf.

A Vacancy.—Lewis M. Stewart, the Prothonotary of Huntingdon county, died on Saturday, the 6th inst. Having died within a less period than three months of the election, it becomes the duty of the Governor to appoint a successor, who will serve until the first Monday of January, 1879. Three applicants turned up at Harrisburg on the Monday following Mr. Stewart's death. No trains running over the route on Sunday, the trio apologized to the Governor for not arriving sooner.

Dramatic Reading.—Mr. G. D. White, the distinguished English Tragedian, and Addison Van Horn, a well-known humorist, will give an entertainment in Pike' Opera House, on Tuesday evening, October 23d. The programme is made up of selections from the best authors, and will, no doubt, draw a crowded house. The selections from Shakespeare will be represented in costume, and those alone will be well worth the price of admission. Both these gentlemen are highly spoken of by the press, and we hope they will be liberally patronized by our citizens. The price of admission is 35 cents, reserved seats 50 cents. Doors open at 7 o'clock, performances to commence at 8 o'clock.

As our stock is large and prices the lowest, we are determined to sell.
16-tf. T. A. Fleck & Co.

Mr. Jesse W. Carlisle, of Troutville, was recently commissioned by the Governor as Sealer of Weights and Measures for the county of Clearfield. Mr. Carlisle called at the Commissioners' office, one day week before last, for the purpose of removing his outfit to Troutville, and was very much surprised to find that it consisted of a two-horse wagon load of stuff. There are two pair of scales, one each of all the different sizes of weights and liquid measures, the entire outfit being made of copper and weighing eight or nine hundred pounds. Mr. C. found it too hefty to be hauled around in a buggy, and he left the office with the remark, that he would "send a four-horse wagon after the stuff."

On Hand.—The Artists and sketchers of J. A. Caldwell's Atlas Co. have arrived, and Messrs. Clery and Howden will call upon the citizens of this place and vicinity for the purpose of soliciting views for the embellishment of the work. We understand that a number of persons are desirous of having engravings of their residences published in the Atlas, and an opportunity will now be afforded them by these gentlemen. These gentlemen have made a sketch of the Court House and of the Prison, which show the style of the work and the skill of the Artists engaged on the work. Those desiring to take a look at these two drawings can be accommodated by making their request known to either of the gentlemen above named. Of course, views of all our church and school buildings will be taken as well as many private residences.

Base Ball.—The following is the score of a match game of base ball, between the Ansonville Club and the Rough and Ready Club, of Sanburn, this county, played on the grounds of the former, on Saturday last :—

Time of game—One hour and fifty-five minutes.

The Shooting Season Opened.—As usual, we expect to chronicle the annual killing of deer hunters this fall. On Sunday last a squad of eight men left Mr. John McDowell's log camp near Snow-Shoe, Centre county, and took to the mountain for deer. Jas. A. C. McQuestin, 19 years of age, whose parents reside at Bigler Station, this county, proves to be the first victim in the line of disaster. It appears he was stationed at a crossing, and had laid his gun on a log. A dog started a deer, he reached for his gun, grabbing it at the muzzle, drawing it towards him, discharging the contents into his arm near the shoulder, causing death on Monday morning. His comrades got him to camp about 8 o'clock, P. M., and started to bring him home, but he died at Gillilandtown, from loss of blood. His parents learning of the accident, went to meet him, but he expired before they reached his bedside. He was a very exemplary young man. His body was brought home on Monday night and buried on Tuesday.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The following list of civil causes were tried at the recent term of Court, before Hon. C. A. Mayer :

Andrew Pentz, Sr. vs. Wm. Corley, et al. Ejectment. Verdict for Defendants.

Gilbert Tozer, surviving partner of Tozer & McMasters, vs. John Hippe and Uriah Lloyd. Appeal. Verdict for Plaintiff for $12.95.

E. A. Irvin & Co. vs. W. H. and Mary E. Joy. Scire Facias. Verdict for Plaintiff.

Geo. M. Brisbin vs. Pa. Railroad Company. Summons in Debt. Verdict for Plaintiff for $658.40.

James B. Graham vs. David Crowell. Scire Facias. Verdict for Plaintiff for $102.87.

Henry Swan, for use, vs. Josiah Lamborn. Summons in Trespass. Defendant confessed judgment in favor of Plaintiff for $250.

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

To the Honorable Court, etc.:

The Grand Inquest of Clearfield county, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, respectfully beg leave to report: We find the public buildings, generally, in good condition. The water closet in the rear of the Court room is in bad condition and a nuisance. The privy in the prison yard should be removed and set in some other part of the yard, as it now affords a means of escape for prisoners. There should be a door in the prison corner for egress and ingress, to take in supplies, and carry out filth, etc. Two of the furnaces are not in good condition. There are three insane prisoners, and we recommend their removal—especially George Haines.

Two Gone.—Jefferson county, during the past fortnight, has lost two of its most worthy citizens by death. We allude to Hon. Robert B. Means, of Brookville, and Hon. Joel Spyker, of Rose township. The former, Judge Means, was well-known to many of our citizens as the proprietor at one time of the Rail Road House, at Brookville, and afterwards he became the owner of the American House, where he served as a popular landlord for several years. He served a term of five years as Associate Judge. At the time of his death, and for some years previous, he was extensively engaged in the lumbering business. His demise occurred in the 59th year of his age.

Squire Spyker formed considerable acquaintance with our people while serving as a member of the Legislature many years ago, when this county and Jefferson were in the same district. He served as a Justice of the Peace for a period of forty-five years, and lived an honorable, upright and Christian life.

TEMPERANCE MEETINGS.

Under the auspices of the County National Christian Temperance Union, a series of Temperance meetings will be held throughout Clearfield county at the following times and places :—

At Westover, on Thursday evening, Oct. 25th. To be addressed by James H. Kelley and A. R. Read.

At Luthersburg, in the Church, on Monday evening, Oct. 29th. To be addressed by A. R. Read and others.

Another: A lady had been sick between three and four years with female weakness. Emaciated, wasting of tissues, loss of vitality and flesh, nervousness, pains in the back, poor appetite, constipation, dizziness of head and bitter taste in the mouth on rising in the morning. She said: "I was urged to try the Baroma by a lady friend who had been cured by its use, and finally bought two bottles, which helped me at once, and I concluded to give it a fair trial and took the half-dozen lot. By the time they were used up I had gained thirty pounds in flesh, and am perfectly strong and healthy.

3 Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your Druggist about it. Sample bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by C. D. Watson, Clearfield, Pa. May 23, 1877-now-1y.

1 Dr. Shiloh's System Vitilizer.

We are authorized to guarantee this remedy for the cure of Dyspepsia, Inactive liver, Sour Stomach, Consumption, Loss of Appetite, Coming up of Food, Yellow Skin, and general Languor and Debility. Died.

In Morris township, on Monday, July 16th, 1877, C. R. Williams, aged 68 years.

The deceased enlisted in the Second Regiment, Pa. Cavalry, in 1861. In 1863, he had a serious attack of chronic diarrhea, from which he suffered for four long and weary years. After that, for a period of six years, he was enabled to partly take care of himself; but in 1873 the disease appeared in a more violent form, and he lingered until July last, when death relieved him. He was a consistent member of Messiah's Church at Kylertown for over twenty years. He leaves a widow, but no children.

In Woodward township, on Wednesday, October 3d, 1877, of congestion of the brain, Mary Imogene, daughter of William and Helen Luther, aged 1 year, 3 months and 29 days.

In Luthersburg, on Sunday, October 7th, 1877, James E., son of Harrison and Mary Passmore, aged 3 years, 6 months and 4 days.
