

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor. CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 24, 1877.

Reader, if you want to know what is going on in the business world, just read our advertising column, the special column in particular.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE: HON. JOHN TRUNKY, OF YENANGO COUNTY. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: HON. WILLIAM P. SCHILL, OF BEDFORD COUNTY. FOR STATE TREASURER: HON. AMOS C. NOYES, OF CLINTON COUNTY.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

FOR PHOTOGRAPHER: ELI BLOOM, of Clearfield. FOR REGISTER AND RECORDER: L. J. MORGAN, of Clearfield. FOR SURVEYOR: S. F. McCLOSKEY, of Carverville.

MAXIMS FOR THE DAY.

No man worth the name of President should be willing to be killed or to bleed for his party. I could never have been recommended to the election by the smallest aid of mine or power, however respectable in private life, who was never early upon his own party of fraud or treachery in any American history. No subsequent success, however brilliant, can wash away the stigma of such a record.

THE HARIBURG PATRIOT SAYS: "There has been a good deal of talk about the nomination of Passmore being a triumph of Cameron over Hartman as a preliminary skirmish over the United States senatorship."

Belle Boyd in Maryland says the Belle Boyd in Texas is a fraud. The question now is: Are there any native Turkish Generals?

If Sitting Bull and Joseph were as dead as Crazy Horse, the situation would be much simplified. The first volume of Jefferson Davis new book on the late unpleasantness will appear in November.

Ex-Governor Hendricks and wife were welcomed at Indianapolis on their return trip from Europe by the firing of cannon and much popular and personal effusion.

QUEER HOOPERING.—The Radical crowd over the Iowa election is a queer chuckle. To get off with 20,000 less than last year, is, to our mind, cheap exaltation.

THE "LIGHTNING ROD" CANDIDATE.—We hear funny stories of the adventures of Passmore, Mr. Mackey's Lightning Rod and Insurance Agent candidate for Auditor General, at the county fairs. He sinks the candidate for a respectable and dignified State office in all the petty artifices and tricks of his business profession.

THE BUCKEYE ELECTION.—We do not know whether our western neighbors have a returning Board similar to that of Louisiana, and if so, how much they resemble it.

EASILY FLATTERED.—The Chairman of the Radical State Committee, Wilson, in alluding to the 25,000 Democratic majority and forty-four majority in the Legislature, says: "Our party in Ohio has suffered an apparent disaster in Ohio. The result has only local and temporary significance."

DEVILISH IMPUDENCE.—We notice that ex-Secretary of War Beaknap was the chief orator at an Army reunion at St. Paul, Minnesota, a few days ago.

TRAY'S NEW JERSEY VICTORY.—The Radical news were turning back springs last week, because they had succeeded in electing their man Mayor of Newark. We cannot see where the crowd comes in. Last year their majority for the same office was 1,850, this year it is only thirty.

DEMOCRATS, GET READY!—The election day is approaching, and it becomes the duty of every patriot to back his armor on and meet and invade the enemy on the 6th day of November. Another battle of ballots will capture the Keystone State, and restore her again to the side of the Union.

THE RADICAL RELIGIOUS MISSIONARY.

Captain Delaney, the perigrinating Radical missionary, who has been sent out by that party to sow the seed of religious prejudice by seeking to arouse among members of the Catholic church a feeling of hostility to Colonel Noyes, simply because one of his defeated opponents at the State Convention was in town a few days since.

His object in visiting here is easily surmised. It was no doubt, to counsel with the State parties who were to be Democrats, sold out the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, Judge Pershing, two years ago. At that time this Captain Delaney was on a like mission, wherever a Molly Maguire vote could be found. Slattery, one of the members of that order, confessed to him "he himself arranged for the purchase of the Moly vote in Luzerne county for Hartman—and that the money was carried there for that purpose by a person from Harrisburg, a messenger in the Executive Department, one John C. DeLaney." How much of the money came here to influence votes, Slattery didn't confess; but that it did come here has been ascertained certainly, and it accomplished its work. It fell into but few hands, however, who kept it, whilst they duped others to vote against Pershing by different means. If Captain Delaney's mission here was to the same purpose, to control them by the same means as Slattery testified to, we may discover that it will not work as smoothly as of yore.

Some of those duped two years ago are not as tractable now and the most vocal swear that if this thing is to be carried by money it shall not fall into one or two hands, but must be shared around.—Danville Intelligencer.

SHARP PRACTICE.

The Harriburg Patriot says: "There has been a good deal of talk about the nomination of Passmore being a triumph of Cameron over Hartman as a preliminary skirmish over the United States senatorship."

The Harriburg Patriot says: "There has been a good deal of talk about the nomination of Passmore being a triumph of Cameron over Hartman as a preliminary skirmish over the United States senatorship."

THE HARIBURG PATRIOT SAYS: "There has been a good deal of talk about the nomination of Passmore being a triumph of Cameron over Hartman as a preliminary skirmish over the United States senatorship."

Belle Boyd in Maryland says the Belle Boyd in Texas is a fraud. The question now is: Are there any native Turkish Generals?

If Sitting Bull and Joseph were as dead as Crazy Horse, the situation would be much simplified. The first volume of Jefferson Davis new book on the late unpleasantness will appear in November.

Ex-Governor Hendricks and wife were welcomed at Indianapolis on their return trip from Europe by the firing of cannon and much popular and personal effusion.

QUEER HOOPERING.—The Radical crowd over the Iowa election is a queer chuckle. To get off with 20,000 less than last year, is, to our mind, cheap exaltation.

THE "LIGHTNING ROD" CANDIDATE.—We hear funny stories of the adventures of Passmore, Mr. Mackey's Lightning Rod and Insurance Agent candidate for Auditor General, at the county fairs. He sinks the candidate for a respectable and dignified State office in all the petty artifices and tricks of his business profession.

THE BUCKEYE ELECTION.—We do not know whether our western neighbors have a returning Board similar to that of Louisiana, and if so, how much they resemble it.

EASILY FLATTERED.—The Chairman of the Radical State Committee, Wilson, in alluding to the 25,000 Democratic majority and forty-four majority in the Legislature, says: "Our party in Ohio has suffered an apparent disaster in Ohio. The result has only local and temporary significance."

DEVILISH IMPUDENCE.—We notice that ex-Secretary of War Beaknap was the chief orator at an Army reunion at St. Paul, Minnesota, a few days ago.

TRAY'S NEW JERSEY VICTORY.—The Radical news were turning back springs last week, because they had succeeded in electing their man Mayor of Newark. We cannot see where the crowd comes in. Last year their majority for the same office was 1,850, this year it is only thirty.

DEMOCRATS, GET READY!—The election day is approaching, and it becomes the duty of every patriot to back his armor on and meet and invade the enemy on the 6th day of November. Another battle of ballots will capture the Keystone State, and restore her again to the side of the Union.

IMPORTANT LEGAL DECISION.

A Potsville correspondent of the Philadelphia Record informs that journal that a very important decision was rendered by Judge Pershing in the Schuykill county court the other morning. McAndrew, late ministering for the district comprising Schuykill, Dauphin, Columbia and Northumberland counties, was arraigned on a charge of embezzlement.

He was arraigned on a charge of embezzlement. The judge decided in favor of the plaintiff, ordering the defendant to pay $50,000 to the Merchants Exchange Bank. The judge also ordered the defendant to pay $500 yearly rent. At the time of his removal from office he was indebted to the Bank $117.50, and the Bank claimed a lien on the maps, etc., and refused to deliver them to Mr. Randall. In his opinion Judge Pershing awarded a peremptory mandamus on the Bank to deliver up the documents on the ground that the contract was individually with McAndrew, and the State was not a party to it.

THE OHIO REVOLUTION.—It does our soul good to compare the election figures of Ohio. From the lakes to the lovely stream, the Ohio river, and from the Indiana line, the music is all the same. Reform is visible on every hand.

A REMARKABLE CONSOLIDATION.—The Washington correspondent of the Boston Herald writes that Mr. Blair has announced to one or two personal friends that he has no idea of being a Presidential candidate in 1880.

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

"SQUARE TIMBER"

"Square Timber" Noyes, the Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, accompanied by the Hon. Wm. McClellan, Chairman of the State Convention, visited the Republican camp at West Branch, Ohio, last night. They attended the fair. Although the day was very stormy, and the attendance much thinner than it otherwise would have been, Colonel Noyes met with a very cordial reception.

At the European end of the battle-field. But the flanking efforts of the Russians at this point has not been as effective as in Asia. There can be no question but that the Turkish Commander is wholly responsible for the disaster and defeat at Karak. The successful flank movement made through the neglect of the Turkish Commander, and it will be impossible for him to ever explain it away.

THE EASTERN WAR.—Turkey has been taken on the wing since our last issue. It looks a little blue for the Turks at the Eastern end of the line. The Russians made a flank movement at Karak, in Asia Minor, on the 16th, and captured a large quantity of provisions, guns, ammunition and prisoners.

A REMARKABLE CONSOLIDATION.—The Washington correspondent of the Boston Herald writes that Mr. Blair has announced to one or two personal friends that he has no idea of being a Presidential candidate in 1880.

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH.—A lively Radical organ alludes to the canvas in this way: "Outside of the interest felt as to Justice Sterrett's election there seems to be very little concern in the State campaign."

RELIGIOUS GUSH.

The devil seems to be a snibbling to-day as he went in the garden, six thousand years ago. There is a class of men and women at the head of which stands Henry Ward Beecher and Mrs. Tilton, who are always full of religious gush and "emotional feelings," and have "God bless you" always on their tongues. The development of this moral treason against God was an announcement of the "religious gush."

The "religious gush" is a term used to describe the emotional fervor of certain religious leaders. It is characterized by excessive displays of piety and moral outrage. The article discusses the actions of Henry Ward Beecher and Mrs. Tilton, who are portrayed as being particularly susceptible to this form of religious fanaticism. The author suggests that this "gush" is a form of moral treason against God.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Richardson's Celebrated Elmira Boots and Shoes, can be had only at H.A. Kratzer's. H.A. Kratzer, Clearfield, Pa. is selling. Two Doors West of Postoffice, Clearfield, Penn'a. 86 CENTS. 85. KEELS SHIRTS, Best in the market, at H.A. KRATZER'S. BUYERS, MAKE A NOTE OF THIS.

DRUG STORE.

H. B. SPACKMAN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST, PHILADELPHIA, MANUFACTURER OF PATENTED Wrought-Iron Air-Tight HEATERS.

WROUGHT-IRON HEATERS.

THE BELL'S RUN WOOD FACTORY. BURNED OUT! BURNED UP!

ORDINANCE.

As Ordinance—To prohibit gambling and betting on the streets, sidewalks, steps, etc.

ORDINANCE.

The NEW CHAPLAIN.—The Rev. Dr. John Poisel, the new chaplain of the House of Representatives, was once a shoemaker in Martinsburg, W. Va.

REED & HAGERTY, J. G. SCHRUYER, HEAVY AND SHELF HARDWARE.

COOKING STOVES, HEATING STOVES AND RANGES.

GLASS AND PUTTY.

TABLE & POCKET CUTLERY.